WOLFE COUNTY.

Gillmore Gleanings.

Born, to the wife of J. Marion Ely, Oct. 21, a girl. Both mother and child are doing well. The infant child of D. B. Morrison and wife is dangerously ill; also, the infant child of Robt. Little and wife is not expected to live. Mrs. J. M. Ely was taken suddenly sick on the night of the 21st and was thought to be dying, but revived, and was next morning some better. Well, the fair is over, minus the whisky drunk, a few heads skinned, some horse swapping and a few saddles missing; your scribe learned of three being stolen. J. L. Callum and J. C. Callum and wife and Miss Kitty McQuinn, of Quicksand, Breathitt county, were the guests of J. H. Vest and wife during the fair.

Jane Items.

Wm. J. and A. J. Hollon have gone to the Mt. Sterling market with a nice bunch of young cattle. The new church prepared by J. R. Ekin is now furnished with a fine church organ. Holly was scantily represented at the fair by W. J. and J. R. Hollon, John T. Graham, G. L. Terrill and Nathan Hollon. While at the fair your scribe had a talk with Hon. W. J. Seitz. He is no doubt the man to elect if the good old HERALD told the truth during the primary. Miss Lou E. Hollon is suffering severely from a strained ankle. The firm of Graham & Tyra has been dissolved. Tyra is now selling goods and Graham is cutting sprouts. Stay on the farm, boys. Boys, lay down principles till after the election and vote for the nominee. Joseph Cundiff, of Breathitt county, has contracted to carry the mail from War Creek to Stillwater Bridge, which goes once a week.

MORGAN COUNTY.

From the Jams.

Dear reader, do you not know that you are doing an injustice to yourself and friends if you are not a subscriber to THE HERALD. Why, it tells you all the news and will make your fire-side brighter and more happy. It is a fact that too few of our mountain friends take papers of any kind whatever. Such persons are penny wise and pound foolish, for no one so carelessly is so ignorant that they can not afford it paper. One of such a nature is a drawback to society, government and Christianity, and deserves to live a hermit. While Calvin and Frank Hazelrigg, of West Liberty, passed through Sunday, enroute home from Hazel Green, where they had been taking in the fair and basking in the sweet sunshine of the immediate presence of their best girls. Your scribe made a trip out to Eliz, in the far edge of Wolfe Saturday, and finds that the county judge of that county is quite "popular." As everybody is being shaded up over the bad roads. If you see anything written from the "jams," you don't like, cut it out. Scott Orndell, who went west some time ago, will return to again enjoy the "boss" light and breathe the pure fresh air from the classic hills of the "jams." J. R. DeBusk will leave for Rockwell Friday evening to visit friends and relatives. The schools which have been dismissed for some time, in order that the fall work on the farm might be done up to a key note by the "small boy," have resumed "work" more vigorous than before, as all have had a rest and can enjoy the vacation that gives exercise to the mind. John Brewer, whose house was burned some time ago, has erected a new one on the same spot which is very creditable. Next Saturday, the 26th inst., is the teachers' association at Godwins' chapel. A good time is anticipated and everybody is invited to attend, but stop when in a half mile of the place if you count on drinking the "elixir of life." Everything is jamming along as they usually jamb down in the jams, but nothing jams like that man with the jim jams down in the jams. Harlan Oldfield is suffering with inflammation of the pharynx. Mrs. Louis DeBusk is very sick, and not expected to live. Lee Rose, whose severe illness was noted in the local columns week or so ago, is about well. Miles Bishop attended court at Mt. Sterling Monday. Aunt Rachel Nickle is very low. It is old age, perhaps, that is dealing so severely with her, as she has survived more than ninety anniversaries. Alvin Oldfield took his departure this week to seek his fortune on the railroad.

I wish to call the attention of my friends to my fall and winter stock of cape and dress goods, kid gloves, hosiery, caps, Tam-o-shanters, sailors in all styles, walking hats, and in fact hats to go all gais.

MES. F. N. DAY.

Ham Riser, of Magoffin county, was on Friday last found guilty in the United States court at Louisville of selling three quarts of whisky at different times to three of his neighbors, but the judge did not pass sentence.

Wanted,

500 bushels of good wheat. Will pay 75c per bushel on notes and accounts, or in merchandise, including flour, (S. P. Kerr brand) wheat to be delivered at my store in Hazel Green.

Col. L. M. Day and daughter, Miss Maud, and Mr. Boone Day, of Beatyville, visited the family of F. N. Day during the fair.

HAZEL GREEN FAIR.

ONE OF THE BEST RACING EXHIBITIONS EVER HELD IN THE MOUNTAINS.

All Races Were Hotly Contested, and, On the Whole, It Was a Big Success, All Things Considered.

Specially Reported for THE HERALD.

The last fair certainly demonstrated that the people of Wolfe county can make our fair a splendid success if all will unite in an effort to do so. Notwithstanding its many disadvantages, this fair was a very creditable effort and paid its way. The Hazel Green stock was "in it" throughout and fairly won a goodly portion of the premiums offered. The order was very good, better than was expected. No arrests were made and we did not observe any flagrant offenses except one, which was perpetrated by some dodgasted son of a gun who jumped on the track and threw up his hat and arms in front of the Chaney mare, thus destroying her chances of winning that heat. This was a villainous act and merited prompt and rigorous punishment. Had it occurred at Lexington and many other places that we know of, the offender would have been hustled to the "lock-up," then fined to the fullest extent and debarred from the race course until the offence had been pardoned, which would not be done until ample apology had been made by the culprit. This and all kindred acts are defiant of the rules of the association, and an insult to the dignity and intelligence of the officials in active control. The way to prevent such acts is clear. Put capable good men in control and then back them up with the authority of the association. The officials this year did reasonably well. The president, Dr. Lockhart, proved to be one of the best equipped, and most efficient presidents that we have ever had. By his courteous treatment of all, he won the heartiest praise. He is an enthusiastic admirer of honest sport, and is pretty well up in the rules governing same, all of which is absolutely necessary to the proper management of horse racing. Horse racing is like everything else, it must be controlled by men who know their business. A shoemaker can make a pair of shoes, and a jeweller can make a watch, but they cannot exchange places and do good work. See?

The races were, with one exception, easily won by the winners. The exception was the free for all pace on the last day, in which there were four entries, Joe Hatton won the first and second heats, the first very easily. To the surprise of all, Gov. Sprague (owned by Harry Gamble, of Lawrence county,) took the third quite handsly. This heat corked the Governor and Joe Hatton, and, as a result, Nauey Chaney took the fourth and fifth heats, though in the slowest time made in the race. For the sixth heat, three horses that were fearfully used up started, and Joe Hatton, being in the best racing condition, outlived the other two and easily won. Thus was finished the most stubbornly contested and hence the most exciting race ever witnessed upon this track. It was worth going miles to see. In this race the Chaney mare was splendidly driven by Elmer Hayes, and the numerous friends of the little black were prompt to observe this and showed their appreciation of it by giving Elmer "the victor's ride of honor in the presence of an applauding assemblage." The only thing that kept Elmer from winning was the horse that beat him, who was skillfully piloted to victory by that prince of colored jockey's, our own Noah, who never has a complaint to make to the judges, and who won more honors than any jock at the fair. It is due our neighbor, William Swango, the amateur jockey, to say that he covered himself with glory. Though some people might have taken a nearer route than he, still no one treated his opponents fairer than "Little Billie." His perilous ride on the last day, when he made the circuit of the track bare-headed, thus permitting the cool October wind to whistle thro' his auburn locks was indeed thrilling. It is also proper that we, in behalf of all, extend our heartiest thanks to our esteemed and public spirited neighbor, J. Taylor Day, alias "the governor," for having kindly piped the crystal waters from Uncle Pres Trimble's spring to the fair ground, so that all could quench their thirst. You can always figure on "the governor," for something of this kind.

In conclusion, we beg to suggest that the Fair Association reorganize, and in time. We trust that those who are chosen for active positions will be men who are capable and will inspire public confidence. If this is done then the result is assured. There is much needed work to be done on the track, grand stand(?) and fences. The time chosen for holding the fair should be suited to a lull in business in town and country. With this we relegate to the relentless past our fair of 1895. Below we give a summary of the races contested during the fair, so that all can see the results and how near or how far they "missed it."

SOME OF THE FAIR VISITORS.

Mrs. Ella Duff, of St. Helens, was here last week attending the bedside of her sick brother, and incidentally taking in the fair. Accompanied by her niece, Miss Cora McGuire, she paid us a pleasant visit Monday, and on Tuesday left for home. She has a charming little girl baby.

Willie Perry, Miss Grace Cartmell, W. T. Colvin, J. P. Hanev, Frank Hazelrigg, Amos Davis, W. J. Seitz, Julia Childers, Hannah and Maggie Caraway, Barbara Lykins, John Rose, Donny Carter, R. H. Cooper, Charles Keyser and wife and C. D. Moore and wife were among those in attendance from West Liberty.

Campton sent the following delegation, and perhaps others: New Conleton, Hon. Joseph C. Lykins, J. B. Hollon, Frank Stamper, John R. Hobbs and Lum Hanks.

Jackson was represented at the fair by the following persons: Will Day, Sherman Cope, Bruce Little, Ben Hargis, Jerry Cockrell and Judge D. B. Redwine.

Will Jones and wife, of Fincastle, Lee county, took in the fair last week and are visiting his mother-in-law, Mrs. Ellen Kash, of this place.

Beatyville was represented by Judge Wheeler and wife, and the latter's sister, Mrs. Butterworth.

Rolly May, Miss Rosa Samples, R. A. Childers and daughter were among those from Maytown.

Tom Greenwade, J. H. Young and Beverly Drake attended from Spencer.

Bill Henry and son, and a Mr. Stiles represented Montgomery county.

Candidate Russell Tabor and Henry Ringo were here from Rowell.

Wiley May and wife were here from White Oak.
A. J. Ringo, of Cornwell, was on hand.
Bob Day, of Caney, was here.
[There were a great many here whose names our reporter failed to get.]—Ed.

Free to our Readers.

A first class, high grade monthly home journal has come to be a necessity in every household. Such a journal, well-conducted, occupies a special relation to every member of the family circle. One of the best journals of this character we have seen, is the Woman's Health Journal, published at Chattanooga, Tenn. The choice stories, charming verse and interesting miscellany, appeal alike to young and old. Its special departments of Fashion, Among Our Girls, A Page for Mothers, The Home-Keeper, With the Children and the Health and Hygiene Department, edited by a competent and experienced physician, make it invaluable to any home.

THE HERALD, always on the lookout for what will profit its readers, has secured fifty yearly subscriptions to The Woman's Health Journal, which it proposes to give away during the next 60 days.

A years subscription to this journal will be given to
(1) Every new subscriber to THE HERALD who pays cash;
(2) Every old subscriber who renews by Nov 15;
(3) Every delinquent subscriber who pays up arrearages.
These subscriptions won't last long. First come, first served. Call at this office and see sample copy.

There is one remedy which every family should be provided with. We refer to Chamberlain's Pain Balm. When it is kept at hand the severe pain of a burn or scald may be promptly relieved and the sore healed in much less time than when medicine has to be sent for. A sprain may be promptly treated before inflammation sets in, which insures a cure in about one-third the time otherwise required. Cuts and bruises should receive immediate attention, before the parts become swollen, and when Chamberlain's Pain Balm is applied it will heal them without matter being formed and without leaving a scar. A sore throat may be cured in one night. A piece of flannel damped with this liniment and bound on over the seat of pain will cure lame back or pain in the side or chest in twenty-four hours. It is the most valuable, however, for rheumatism. Persons afflicted with this disease will be delighted with the prompt relief from pain which it affords, and it can be depended upon to effect a complete cure. For sale by John M. Rose, druggist.

One of the greatest sensations in Mt. Sterling for a long time occurred on Friday night last at about 10 o'clock, when the second attempt to assassinate Henry Watson was made near his home. As he was returning home on horseback one of two assassins, one in a buggy and the other concealed nearby, fired a double barrel shotgun at Mr. Watson, the shot hitting his horse's breast and shoulder only a few inches in front of the rider. Horse and man fell to the ground, and a second shot was fired at Mr. Watson, but without effect. Watson got to his feet and fired his pistol at the retreating assassin, who jumped into the buggy with his confederate and hastily drove away, but did not go out of town. Suspicion rests heavily upon certain parties high in official authority, who are supposed to be a part of the crowd that hung Tom Blair. There was great excitement there on Saturday and Sunday.
