

HOOD'S PILLS

Purify the torpid liver, and cure biliousness, sick headache, jaundice, nausea, indigestion, etc. They are invaluable to prevent a cold or break up a fever. Mild, gentle, certain, they are worthy your confidence. Purely vegetable, they can be taken by children or delicate women. Price, 25c. at all medicine dealers or by mail of C. I. Hood & Co., Lowell, Mass.

THE HERALD.

A FARM JOURNAL
Great Offer. From now to Dec, 1903, Nearly 5 Years.

By special arrangement made with the publishers of the FARM JOURNAL we are enabled to offer that paper to every subscriber who pays for THE HERALD one year ahead for only $1.00 both papers for the price of ours only; our paper one year and the FARM JOURNAL from now until December 1903, nearly 5 years. The FARM JOURNAL is an old established paper enjoying great popularity, one of the best and most useful farm papers published.

This offer should be accepted without delay.

J. T. Day is invoicing this week.
 Judge Steve Tutt was in town Saturday.
 Mrs. Rilda Day went to Maytown on business Monday.
 Edgar Kash will begin teaching the Sandfield public school on Monday.

Lanford Craft will teach a school in Morgan county, but we have forgotten the place.

Hon. W. O. Mize and Willie Kash, esq., attended circuit court at West Liberty Monday.

Sebe Walters on Friday last bought 11 head of yearling steers from Bill Pack for $120.

From present prospects there will be more corn raised in this section this season than ever before.

Miss Minnie Day, who has been visiting her aunt, Mrs. Frank Horton, of Camargo, returned home Sunday.

An infant child of Garry Adams, colored, was buried Sunday at the Governor Wilson farm on Red river.

Misses Maggie Kash and Carrie Rose were the guests of Bud Swango and wife, of Stillwater, Saturday night.

Bert Daniel, representing the Owan, Woolfolk & Payne Co., Louisville, was at the Day House Saturday and Sunday.

GOOD NEWS comes from those who take Hood's Sarsaparilla for scrofula, dyspepsia and rheumatism. Reports agree that HOOD'S CURES

There was a very large crowd at the Sunday school picnic at Stillwater last Saturday, some estimating it at 1,000 people.

Aunt Nancy Chenault, who has united with the Baptists, will be baptized at the big meeting at Public Square next Sunday.

Mitch Calamese, a policeman of Winchester, and a gentleman by the name McCord are the guests of Uncle Harry Swango.

G. M. Byrd last week sold a pair of red bull calves to Johnny Byrd for $30. One was three months old and the other about five.

Dr. Taulbee reports the birth of a dead male infant to the wife of Henry Osborn, of Sellers, Morgan county, on Sunday, June 24.

Will Cecil, a brother of Jim Cecil, of Ezel, accompanied by his wife and sister, is visiting at Jim's, and will also visit his sister, Mrs. Isaac Murphy and friends and relatives about Hazel Green.

Miss Callie Oney will leave Monday for her school at the mouth of Frozen. As she is a stranger in that section it gives us pleasure to introduce her, and tell something of her attainments. She graduated in a class of seven at Hazel Green academy last year and received the highest honors. In an examination at Jackson last May out of 66 applicants for certificates, she received the highest grade. Last winter she acted as governess in the families of Bud Swango and Judge Center, and rendered satisfaction. The trustees are to be congratulated upon securing her services, and unless we are much mistaken they will never have cause to regret it.

Hon. W. O. Mize on Saturday last traded off his old family horse "Selam," to Thomas Jefferson Bush, of Winchester, for a three year old iron gray, which is likely to prove as faithful a friend and as true as was old Selam. Mr. Mize gave Mr. Bush $75.00 to boot and everybody thinks he made a good trade, as the young horse he got in the trade is only 3 years old, 15 hands high, sound in wind and limb and perfectly quiet. Mr. Mize said it was like parting with a child to let his old horse go, but the man who got him will treat him right.

During commencement week at the academy the editor of this paper was sick in bed, and in consequence no mention of the exercises at the academy was made. As he did not attend and had no data to go by he could, of course, not do justice in the premises. But a friend has written it up and handed it in, late Tuesday evening, too late for this week. It will appear next week, and we hope this notice will be ample apology for its non appearance at an earlier date.

Mrs. Rachel Nickell, wife of Holly Nickell, of Red river, whose illness was mentioned in these columns last week, died at her residence on Thursday evening last in the 62nd year of her age. The cause of her death was a relapse from a spell of typhoid and malarial fever. She leaves a husband and seven children—four boys and three girls—to mourn her death—besides a host of other relatives and friends.

The publishers of Truth have been fortunate in securing for the July issue of their magazine reproductions in color of two of William M. Chase's splendid portraits. Mr. Chase is America's foremost artist, and these beautiful pictures—faithful copies of the original paintings—must be of interest not only to every artist and student in the country, but to all who care for the best in art.

W. A. Connoley, of Portsmouth, Ohio, was a guest of the Day House for dinner on Saturday last. Mr. Connoley is a jobber in dry goods and notions, and was formerly represented in this territory by W. C. Ferguson, who now runs a wholesale grocery on his own account.

During the rain and thunder storm of Thursday last Tom Lee, of the Caskey fork of Grassy, had a cow and calf killed by lightning. The cow was on one side of a gate and the calf on the other, and the gate was unharmed.

SCROFULA

thin blood, weak lungs and paleness. You have them in hot weather as well as in cold. SCOTT'S EMULSION cures them in summer as in winter. It is creamy looking and pleasant tasting.

25c. and $1.00; all druggists.

WHEN HE RETURNS.
 BY SAM WILSON.

He said good by, then went away
 Across the deep blue main,
 And in my heart he left hope's ray
 That he'll return again,
 And brighter then will be the scene,
 The darkest spot will look serene;
 How beautiful then will be my dream
 When he returns again?

I'll sing for him the sweetest air
 From love's own truest strain;
 I'll pluck for him the lillies fair
 When he returns again.

For in his heart my faith is strong,
 And this shall be my noblest song,
 I'll love him, yea, a whole life long
 When he returns again.

Old Uncle Steve Swango, of the Clifty neighborhood, was on Sunday last united in matrimony with the grass widow of Dr. Steve Swango, who is a nephew of the groom. The bride is a niece of Uncle Steve's wife. This looks like a general mix up, but there is no blood relationship between the bride and groom. Uncle Steve's girls had all married off and feeling lonely, he took unto himself a helpmate to comfort him in his declining years.

Miss Annie Wheeler on Monday morning signed a contract to teach the Flat Rock school in Menefee county, and will call "books" on the 16th inst. This school has 46 enrolled scholars, and comes in the third class. Miss Annie holds a third-class certificate, and this is the first time she has engaged to teach, but those who know her best say that her school will prove a success.

Henry Godsey and wife arrived from Washington on yesterday to spend a month's vacation with his father, D. S. Godsey, of Spencer.

Miss Minnie Day, of Hazel Green, came last week to visit her cousin, Rilda Horton, of Camargo.

J. W. Cravens and wife, of McCausey, were in the city from Saturday until Monday.—Mt. Sterling Advocate, July 3.

Mrs. Taylor Johnson, while visiting her sister, Mrs. Quint Daniel, on Tuesday evening, had an attack of neuralgia of the heart, which for about an hour rendered her condition very critical. Dr. Nickell was called to see her, and by administering stimulants brought her around all right. But she was certainly ill for awhile.

John Burns Adams, the colored silversmith and jeweler of Lee City, has an advertisement in this issue of our paper to which the attention of our readers is directed. He has done several jobs for the editor of this paper, and in each instance his work proved satisfactory. Give him a trial.

The publisher of this paper returned home last Friday from a few weeks' stay at Swango Spring, near Hazel Green, Ky., very much improved in health, and otherwise greatly pleased with his stay among the good people of that place.—L. F. Billings in Butler, (Ky.) Reformer.

Beginning with Monday last the mail between West Liberty and this point will be daily. It has been tri-weekly heretofore, and the change will be appreciated by people at both ends of the route and along the line.

Rev. R. A. Irvine, of the Presbyterian church, will preach at Frenchburg on the 24th inst., for Rev. James Little. The meeting will be protracted over the 5th Sunday. Mr. Little will assist in the services and all are invited to attend.

The rain of Thursday evening last produced a bigger tide in Long branch and lower Beaver than the June tide 18 years ago, which was the biggest ever known.

R. J. McLin, who has been in Cincinnati and other points for a week or ten days past, arrived home Monday.

Cole Gosney returned home last Saturday from the mountains where he spent the past three weeks in Wolfe county. Miss Pearl Gosney accompanied him home and will remain several weeks visiting relatives.—Butler, (Ky.) Reformer.

Incidentally we learn that Morgan county has only five candidates for representative to the legislature up to date. But the future may develop others. Hence we refrain from mentioning any of the aspirants until they announce.

Noah Lyons and little boy, Miss Mina Nickell and Miss Nannie Day and brother Claude, paid Hazel Green a flying visit Sunday in Mr. Lyons' new rig. He came up to get some medicine for his wife, who is quite sick.

The case against the Fugate brothers for the murder of Jesse Day at a church in Morgan county last summer, was called in the circuit court at West Liberty Tuesday and continued.

Rev. E. K. Pike and Dr. Gevedon will preach the funeral sermon of Samuel Cecil on the second Sunday in August, at Goodwins chapel. "Dinner on the ground."

A messenger on Wednesday morning called Mrs. Dulcinea Pieratt to the bedside of her daughter-in-law Mrs. Frank Pieratt, who was not expected to survive the night. Mrs. Pieratt was visiting at this place.

Don't forget that you can have the Courier Journal or Dispatch and THE HERALD one year for only $1.00 cash in advance, and besides we will send you the Farm Journal until the end of the 1904.

Curtis Rose, Robert Kash and Charly Rose attended the funeral of Peter Hensley, at Long branch Sunday, and report a large crowd and "dinner on the ground."

"For the Sake of Fun, Mischief is Done." A vast amount of mischief is done, too, because people neglect to keep their blood pure. This mischief, fortunately, may be undone by the faithful use of Hood's Sarsaparilla. Hood's Pills cure liver ills. Non Irritating.

The poor man's crop, the blackberries, are about ready to harvest, and the boys and girls can be seen going in every direction with their pails to gather them in.

If your horse or mule has a lump, bunch, bone spavine, curb, splint or any like ailment, go to John M. Rose and get a bottle of Quinn's Ointment, which will remove the obstacle. tf

Miss Lillie Evans has secured the lower district school on Gillmore creek, with 50 enrolled scholars, and will begin teaching on Monday, the 16th inst.

WANTED SEVERAL PERSONS FOR District Office Managers in this state to represent me in their own and surrounding counties. Willing to pay yearly $500, payable weekly. Desirable employment with unusual opportunities. References exchanged. Enclose self-addressed stamped envelope. S. A. PARK, 329 Caxton Building, Chicago. 26-6m

Joe Rose and daughter, Miss Ida, passed through town Monday, en route for Maytown where she will begin teaching the public school on Monday.

Why send away from home for pianos, organs, sewing machines, buggies, &c., when we can and will save you money, and goods will be first-class. We sell direct from factories and save you the jobbers profit, which is always big enough. We will repair your sewing machines, watches, clocks, &c., in first-class style and at reasonable prices. We can astonish you in prices on fine bibles, picture frames, watches, jewelry, etc., ect. Kindly soliciting the patronage of Wolfe and surrounding counties.

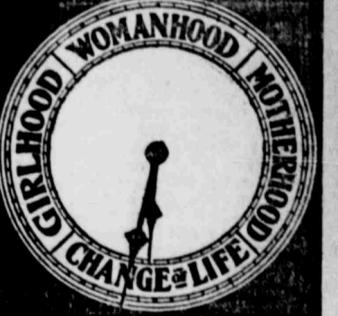

Mail orders shall have special attention. When answering this advertisement, say you saw it in the HAZEL GREEN HERALD. I am Very truly,
 J. T. GEVEDON,
 Hazel Green.

Agents on salary $15.00 per week and expenses; the greatest agent seller ever produced; every stock and poultry raiser buys it on sight. Hustlers wanted. Reference. Address, with stamp, American Mfg. Co., Terre Haute, Ind. tf

There will be a big Baptist meeting at the Public Square on Sunday next. Sacramento will be taken and the custom of footwashing indulged in.

Kiser Wilson passed through town Tuesday, en route to his uncle Sam Wilson's, where he will rusticate for a month or so.

Robt Kash and Charley Rose attended meeting at Ezel Sunday night. It was Charley's first visit to Ezel.

 CHANGE OF LIFE

The Time Comes
 to every elderly woman when an important functional change takes place. This is called "The Change of Life." The entire system undergoes a change. Dreadful diseases such as cancer and consumption are often contracted at this time.

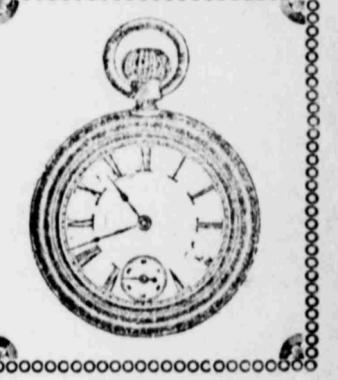

McELREE'S
Wine of Cardul

strengthens and purifies the entire system, and brings the sufferer safely over these pitfalls. Its effects have been wonderful. It is good for all menstrual troubles, but is especially recommended at this time. Ask your druggist for the famous Wine of Cardul. $1.00 a bottle.

For advice in cases requiring special directions, address the "Ladies' Advisory Department," The Chattanooga Medicine Co., Chattanooga, Tenn.

THOMAS J. COOPER, Tupelo, Miss., says: "My sister suffered from irregular and painful menstruation and doctors could not relieve her. Wine of Cardul entirely cured her, and also helped my mother through the Change of Life."
