The Secret of Long Life.

A French scientist has discovered one secret of long life. His method deals with the blood. But long ago millions of Americans had propped Electric Bitters prolongs life and makes it worth living. It purifies, enriches and vitalizes the blood, rebuilds wasted nerve cells, imparts life and tone to the entire system. It's a godsend to weak, sick and debilitated people. "Kidney trouble had blighted my life for months," writes W. M. Sherman, of Cushing, Me., but Electric Bitters cured me entirely." Only 50c at all dealers.

STILLWATER SPARKLES.

There seems to be a good deal of sickness in this vicinity.

J. W. Maloney is finishing moving his household effects to the Big branch of Red river.

Forest Bailey is moving to the Calaboose neighborhood, after a residence of twelve months at Stillwater.

Jeff Brewer, after spending several days with his family, returned yesterday to his logging interests on Dog creek.

Buying and selling of live stock seems to be the principal industry in this section just now. Walter Maloney bought a cow from Samuel C. Cecil for $85; J. W. Maloney sold a brood sow to D. B. Tyra for $15; Miranda Tyra bought a cow for which she paid $22; G. B. Lipps, who is selling off all his effects, let D. B. Tyra have a two-year-old brood sow for $20; James Meeks sold to George Halsey a four-year-old cow with calf and received $25 for them; James Rose Sr., received $80 from George Byrd in exchange for a cow.

THE HERALD comes to me each week and there is no need of a further word of appreciation as it is a pleasure to read it. It is as clean and nice a weekly paper as I have ever seen. It is always a welcome visitor as it gives special interest to its home people and to all who live in the mountains East in Kentucky. A spirit of selfishness has no part or lot in its columns, and we should do all that we can for THE HERALD by getting more subscribers and thereby help support it. Uncle Spence, may you long continue the good work you are doing and thereby greatly prosper. Feb. 8. DOMINGO.

To relieve the worst forms of Rheumatism, take a teaspoonful of the following mixture after each meal and at bedtime:

Fluid Extract Dandelion, one-half ounce; Compound Kargon, one ounce; Compound Syrup Sarsaparilla, three ounces.

These harmless ingredients can be obtained from our home druggists, and are easily mixed by shaking them well in a bottle. Relief is generally felt from the first few doses.

This prescription forces the clogged-up, inactive kidneys to filter and strain from the blood the poisonous waste matter and uric acid, which causes Rheumatism.

As Rheumatism is not only the most painful and torturous disease, but dangerous to life, this simple recipe will no doubt be greatly valued by many sufferers here at home, who should at once prepare the mixture to get this relief.

It is that a person who would take this prescription regularly, a dose or two daily, or even a few times a week, would never have serious Kidney or Urinary disorder or Rheumatism.

Cut this out and preserve it. Good Rheumatism prescriptions which really relieve are scarce, indeed, and when you need it, you want it badly.

Stomach Distress.

Every family here ought to keep some Diapiesin in the house, as any one of you may have an attack of Indigestion or Stomach trouble at any time, day or night.

This harmless preparation will digest anything you eat and overcome a sour stomach five minutes after taking.

If your meals don't tempt you, or what little you do eat seems to fill you, or lays like a lump of lead in your stomach, or if you have heartburn, that is a sign of Indigestion.

Ask your Pharmacist for a 50-cent case of Pape's Diapiesin and take one triangle after supper tonight. There will be no sour ricings, no belching of undigested food mixed with acid, no stomach gas or heartburn, fullness or heavy feeling in the stomach, Nausea, Debilitating Headaches, Dizziness or Intestinal griping. This will all go, and, besides, there will be no sour food left over in the stomach to poison your breath with nauseous odors.

Pape's Diapiesin is a certain cure for all stomach misery, because it will take hold of your food and digest it just the same as if your stomach wasn't there.

Actual, prompt relief for all your stomach misery is at your Pharmacist, waiting for you.

These large 50-cent cases contain more than sufficient to cure a case of Dyspepsia or Indigestion.

KENTUCKY KERNELS

Carefully Collated and Concisely Chronicled.

Winchester now has an automobile hose carriage in connection with her other fire fighting equipments.

The postoffice at Scottsville was recently burglarized and $400 in stamps were taken, together with seven registered letters and an empty mail pouch.

Lexington is getting to be quite an empty city. Last Friday there was not a single case on the docket and there was no session of the police court.

H. Meyers, who conducts a restaurant at Lexington, captured a negro burglar, who had broken into his place, at the point of a revolver, and marched him to the police station.

The judges of the Court of Appeals have re-elected Judge T. R. McBeath as court reporter for the next two years. Judge McBeath has been reporter for that court a number of years.

The Winchester Bank last week filed suit in Breathitt Circuit court against the estate of the late James Hargis, seeking to recover judgment for $20,000, on two notes of $10,000 each.

Nim France was lodged in the Knox county jail last week, charged with the murder of John Gambriel. The two men became involved in a difficulty and France shot Gambriel through the abdomen.

The Paintsville postoffice was visited by burglars last week and an unsuccessful attempt was made to blow open the safe. Their efforts were rewarded by taking about four dollars from the cash drawer in the store.

David Bullock, a prosperous farmer of Mason county, was found in a field on his place totally paralyzed. He was removed to his residence nearby, where he died in a short time. He was about 60 years old and left a large estate.

A horse trampled on a match igniting it and setting fire to a large stock barn, belonging to Brutus Wearren, in Garrard county. The flames spread so rapidly that nothing could be saved. Loss was about $2,000, with no insurance.

Miss Mary Ruten, a popular young lady of Junction City, died of tuberculosis last week. She is the third one to die of that disease in the same family in the past eight months, two brothers having preceded her to the grave.

A new method of selling mules is being tried in Madison county. Last county court a pair of mules was sold by the pound, buyer and seller being unable to agree as to the price. They finally agreed at 18c a pound, and they brought $365.

Will Spurlock, member of a prominent Big Sandy valley family, was last week taken to a local asylum at Lexington violently insane, his insanity being due, it is said, to drinking various essences when unable to get alcoholic stimulants.

John Burton, a Morgan county farmer, was killed last week by a C. & O. train about five miles east of Mt. Sterling. His body was sent to West Liberty from Morehead by the railroad company. He leaves a widow and nine children.

John Conn, indicted twenty-three times in Elliott county for selling liquor without license, was pardoned by Governor Willson on his promise and oath never to engage in the sale again. Conn gave bond in the sum of $1,500 that he would keep his oath.

His innocence of the charge on which he was convicted being shown by the confession of another convict, who was convicted as principal, Gregory Doyle, a Grayson county preacher, was paroled by the prison commissioners after having served ten years of a life sentence in the Eddyville penitentiary.

Among twenty prisoners delivered by the sheriff of Jefferson county to the warden of the penitentiary at Frankfort was John Banks, sent up for the seventh time, but each time under a different name. While serving under the name of George Smith he was pardoned by Governor Willson a short time since.

The home of Nathaniel Workman, on Three Lick creek in Rowan county, was destroyed by fire one night during the recent blizzard. Two children were burned to death and Mr. and Mrs. Workman barely escaped with their lives. They walked three quarters of a mile through the driving storm to a neighbor's house, clad only in their night clothes.

The one-year-old son of Mrs. Edna Therkins, of Sharpsburg, was burned to death by a spark which set fire to his coverings. He had been left by his mother in his cradle in front of an old-fashioned fireplace with a roaring fire of large logs. When found life was extinct and the body burned beyond recognition. A chair nearby
