Ayer's Pills are liver pills. They act directly on the liver, make more bile secreted. This is why they are so valuable in constipation, biliousness, dyspepsia, sick-headache. Ask your doctor if he knows a better laxative pill.

THE HERALD.

Mrs. Charley Hurt is visiting her daughter, Mrs. Chester Cooper, at Louisville.

Mrs. Mary Brooks has been very sick for the past week, but is able to be out again.

Henry Cecil continues quite ill and has now been confined his house for two weeks.

Roger Bryan, of Bryan, Goodwin & Hunt, and Bill Perry, with Van Deren hardware company were in town Tuesday.

Mrs. Hazel Rankin came up Friday to visit her father, Taylor Ringo, and family. She returned to her home in Winchester Tuesday.

CASTORIA.
The Kind You Have Always Bought
Bears the Signature of Chas. H. Fletcher

Mrs. H. H. Nickell and daughter, Miss Emma, were in town shopping Tuesday and the latter bought a nice hat from Miss Falay Long.

Sam Spencer, who is drilling in a well on Trace fork, promises to let us know the result in a day or so, and he thinks indications are good for oil.

A little four-year-old son of Jack Sally, of the Toliver neighborhood, died Thursday night last of membranous croup, and another is now dangerously ill.

A brand-new Webster's International Dictionary, 1909 edition, and dictionary holder for sale. Cost $15, will sell for $10 cash. Call at THE HERALD office.

Easter comes next Sunday and should the weather be propitious the ladies will come out decked in all the finery which our millinery establishments can furnish.

Arbor day passed off quietly in this section as nearly all the schools had been closed some time since. However, we learn that quite a number of trees were planted.

Miss Virginia Day returned Monday from Cannel City, where she had been visiting her sister, Mrs. W. E. Bach. She was accompanied by Mrs. Bach and little Miss Hallie Day.

Rev. Stephen Owsley, the warhorse of Bell county, is here this week. He will preach at Maytown and return here Sunday to fill the appointment of Bro. Ragan at the M. E. church South.

If you want a fine razor—as good as you can buy for $2—call this at office and get one for $1. We also have a few watches, good time keepers, that can be had for $1 each. Don't wait until supply is gone.

We are in receipt of a pamphlet containing the charges of ex-Warden George P. Chinn against the Board of Prison Commissioners and the lessees, Hoge-Montgomery Co., of the state convicts. Mr. Chinn's charges are very strong, and his appeal for an investigation is very emphatic. It now only remains for the general assembly to take up the matter and see that the convicts are more humanely treated.

A Correction.

THE HERALD last week announced that John Neace, who had been attending Hazel Green Academy, would take a 20 weeks' course at Berea, the inference being that he had left this school for Berea. The fact is that Mr. Neace graduated at this school over a year since, and later feeling that he wished to attain more knowledge he matriculated at Berea, more to try the the different systems of teaching than anything else. Mr. Neace has every respect for the school here and the way it is conducted, and as the error was ours we hope this will correct any false impression.

Killing in Magoffin.

In a difficulty at Hendricks post-office, in Magoffin county, on the first day of April Millis Arnett shot and killed George Anderson. The particulars, as we learn them, are as follows: George had gone to the postoffice, which was also a store, to purchase a single tree. Sam Arnett was present and made a pass at Anderson, when the latter hit him with the single tree. Instantly Millis Arnett opened fire upon Anderson, shooting him twice in the face and once in the side with a 44 calibre, which resulted in the death of Anderson almost instantly.

Died of Pneumonia.

Sam Neal, a son of Henry Neal, of Neal Valley, and a brother-in-law of Sam Spencer, the well-known oil driller, died at the home of his father on Thursday morning last of pneumonia. He had just made a trip to Farmers with a log raft, caught cold and had to return before he disposed of his raft. Doctors who attend-d him, however, state that it was his abnormal growth that caused his demise. He was just 17 years of age, and stood 6 feet 8 inches in his stock feet, while his physique in other respects was not proportionate.

Every sufferer from rheumatism will find an effective relief in the use of Thacher's magnetic insoles. The writer has been a sufferer from rheumatism in its various forms for years. Quite recently he secured a pair of the insoles above mentioned and is glad to say they keep the feet from perspiration and relieve pain. In all cases not chronic they will afford relief. The price is $1. Address, Thacher Magnetic Shield Co., 159 Wabash avenue, Chicago.

Aunt Polly James has been quite ill for a few weeks past and for a week has been dangerously so. She is the mother of a large family of children, many of whom live in Illinois. Indeed, she has raised two families, but all are grown men and women who live to themselves. She lives with her son, Clark, and in her present illness has every attention that her devoted children and friends can give her.

An infant child of James Faulkner and wife died Monday morning about six o'clock and was buried at the Holderby graveyard late Monday evening. Mr. Faulkner and wife are profuse in their thanks to James Dyer and wife, who stood by them in all their trouble, attending to burial clothes, coffin, digging the grave, burial, etc. Such neighbors as Mr. Dyer and wife are godsend to any community.

At an expense of considerable time, labor and trouble we have compiled and printed a pamphlet embodying a number of "Helpful Hints to Correspondents." In sending them out we may have missed one or more of our regular correspondents, and should any of these desire a copy, they can get one by calling at THE HERALD office and making their wish known.

Uncle Sam Wilson, the painter-poet, hid himself to the new dwelling of Harlan Nickell, above Daysboro, Monday morning, and will show his artistic skill by decorating the exterior and interior. From there he expects to go to Neola, where he will fix up the interior of J. B. Hollon's fine residence with oak and cherry stain and hard oil finish.

SANDFIELD SIFTINGS.

Mrs. Callie Toliver is confined to her room with la grippe.

J. J. Catron made a business trip to Cannel City Saturday.

J. B. McNabb is suffering severely with a boil on his hand. Will Hollon and family were visitors at W. A. Oldfield's Sunday.

Rollie Stamper, of Maytown, was a guest of Willie Catron Saturday night.

Miss Cordie Oldfield has just returned from an extended visit on Long branch.

J. J. Catron, wife and daughter, Estella, were guests of O. W. McNabb Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Ed McNabb, of Buck creek, were guests of R. A. Childers and family Sunday.

Misses Maud McNabb and Nancy Catron made a flying trip to Maytown Friday.

Miss Grace Childers was a guest of her sister, Mrs. Maggie McNabb, a few days recently.

Miss Maud McNabb and little sister and brother, Mallie and Elmer, spent Sunday with their uncle, J. M. Toliver.

Omar, the little son of Mr. and Mrs. Jack Salley, died at his home Wednesday, March 31. He was stricken Monday with membranous croup. He was a bright little boy of three years and six months and was the idol of his parents and grandfather, W. M. Clark, since he could lip their names, and had an affectionate smile for all whom he met. While death has thrown a shadow o'er this home and they are bereaved and broken-hearted in this world, we feel assured he is a shining angel in glory where there will be no more sickness nor death. Weep not for the little one, for of such is the kingdom of heaven.

We love them, yes, we love them, But Jesus loves them more, And so he calls our loved ones To that bright and shining shore. We can not tell who next may fall Beneath the chasteering rod, One must be first, then let us all Prepare to meet our God. April 5. SUNSHINE.

Has a New Corn Sheller.

J. Taylor Day has just installed a brand new power corn sheller to his already thoroughly equipped mill and will shell corn for his many customers. He will also continue to give the usual premiums of soda, glassware, etc., and grind at the usual water mill toll.

Someone entered the residence of Hoy Childers, on Lacy creek, Sunday night last while the family was asleep and took a box containing all of his private papers and money. The box was found Monday morning and the papers in a pig pen, but $14 in money, including a specially prized coin, had been taken.

Mrs. Ed French, who before marriage was Miss Mallie James, one time crowned queen of mountain maidenhood, has been dangerously ill in a hospital at Jacksonville, Ill. Her husband, as many of our readers know, is Ed French, who is a prominent minister in the Christian church, and at present located at Ashland, Ill.

By courtesy of State Superintendent J. G. Crabbe we are in receipt of educational bulletins entitled, "Health and Disease," "Whirlwind Campaign, 1908," and "School Buildings and Grounds," issued by the Kentucky Department of Education, all of which contain much interesting matter and information for the friends of education.

We are requested to state that there will be special Easter services at Bethel church, Gosneyville, next Sunday morning at 10:45 o'clock, conducted by the pastor, Rev. Frank Agar. An exciting program of appropriate recitations and special music will be rendered and all are invited to be present.

We are in receipt of a copy of Al-Hada—"The Guidance," a Syrian newspaper published in New York. It is quite an interesting sheet to those who can read it, but we must be excused from commenting on any of the articles as we are more interested in reading papers printed in the English language.

A discontented person is almost as big a bore as one who is self-satisfied.

KENTUCKY KERNELS

Carefully Colliated and Concisely Chronicled.

Shelbyville was last week visited by a $10,000 fire.

Five boys were taken from Johnson county to the reform school for stealing chickens.

Cornelius Arnett shot and instantly killed George Anderson, a farmer of Magoffin county, apparently without cause.

In the Maysville Circuit court a number of indictments were returned against various persons for selling tobacco after it had been placed in pool.

While directing some laborers in their work on his farm in Jefferson county, James A. Pritchard, a retired attorney aged 68 years, died of heart failure.

Ira Shubert, while out snipe hunting with his friend, Luke Abbott, in Scott county, was accidentally shot in the foot by the latter and amputation may be necessary.

A mare belonging to J. A. Wagoner, of near Paris, last week foaled a mule colt with seven feet. The hind feet were normal, but one front leg had two distinct feet and the other had three feet. The colt died.

One year in the penitentiary for each chicken stolen and disposed of was the verdict in the Bourbon Circuit court against June Fields, a negro. Fields stole five chickens, ate two and sold three to a dealer.

An unknown man entered the home of Joseph Gernert, in Louisville, and catching hold of Miss Irene Gernert, an 18-year-old daughter, cut off her hair with a razor or knife and made his escape before she could cry out.

What is thought to be the work of incendiaries was the burning of a large stock barn belonging to William Hay, of Hart county. Four valuable horses, a lot of feed and a number of farming implements were also burned.

The corner-stone of the $100,000 addition to the Odd Fellows' Widows and Orphans Home at Lexington will be laid next Tuesday, April 15. All Odd Fellows in the state are invited to participate in these impressive exercises.

J. W. Thomas, Jr., the recalcitrant young man who barricaded himself in the Thomas homestead in Shelby county for several days, has agreed to leave the state for all time to come, the family making a money settlement with him.

In a disagreement over a game of craps in a Mt. Sterling "dive," Jim Burnam shot and wounded Lee Butcher, Will Stoner and Hays Hall, and escaped himself unhurt. None were seriously hurt. Burnam was later arrested in Richmond, where he was masquerading as a woman. All were negroes.

United States Marshal Jackson destroyed in Elliott county one of the largest and most complete moonshine stills in the mountains of Kentucky. Andy Brown and Dan Black and wife were arrested and 440 gallons of the product were destroyed.

A request from a New York firm to send them a toast to Kentucky, to be used on a post card, was recently received by State Librarian Frank Kavanaugh. Mr. Kavanaugh says that he would like to have every Kentuckian, whether a resident of the state or not, to send him a toast. The best one will be selected to go on the post card.

A subterranean fire which has been burning in Buttonhole Knob, between South Park and Brooks Station, in Jefferson county, has led to the discovery of coal, sulphur and oil in paying quantities in that section. A fire was started by a forest blaze and it can not be extinguished. Already a hole 12 feet wide at its outlet has been burned into the ground.

In making mention of the move in Mt. Sterling to have an old-time county fair in Montgomery county this fall, the Owensville Outlook truthfully says: "The citizens of Montgomery county met in the court house at Mt. Sterling and committees were appointed to work up an old-fashioned county fair for Montgomery. If the citizens of Mt. Sterling and Montgomery county could ever agree on anything long enough to make a success of it there would be much rejoicing among the angels in heaven. We hope they will get to rejoice this time."

A preacher was called upon recently to tell a dying man that heaven was near. He said nothing about repentance or hell; he told the man he was about to go on a long journey and that at its end he would meet all the good friends who had gone before. He must not be afraid, he told him; all would be well. And the man died with a pleasant smile on his face. The incident is an illustration of the great change in sentiment. Two generations ago the preacher would have talked brimstone to the man about to depart.—Atchison (Kan.) Globe.
