ELSEWHERE is an article that in many respects is a tribute to "Mark Twain," or Samuel Clemens, as he was known among old-time type stickers, away back in the days of Bill Nye. They were both humorists and of so rare a type that none succeed them. True, America today has its humorists, but none of them show the milk of human kindness, the life we live, as did Mark Twain, especially. At his demise he was without doubt the greatest literary character that America ever produced. He was a first cousin to our friend Will J. Lampton, also a writer of much fame, and thru the Lamptons he got his literary talent. Taking Mark Twain as a man, reporter, pilot on the old Mississippi and finally as the great writer he was America never did produce his equal. He had staminy and his straight life was evidenced in everything he did. Who would have shouldered the burdens of his publishing company and came clean as he did? Bill Lampton is man, ever such, but we doubt if he has the courage of his cousin, and God knows we do not say it to his disparagement. We never had the pleasure of his acquaintance, but anyone who ever read "Tom Sawyer" or "Huckleberry Finn" can realize that Twain was a character not to be duplicated unless it be by Bill Lampton, and that is as proud a tribute as we can give the living or the dead.

We recently interviewed twenty of Hazel Green's most successful business men and found that all of them when boys had been governed strictly and very frequently thrashed. We also interviewed some loafers and learned that most of them had been "mamma's darling," and the others had been reared by their grandmothers and were cigarette fiends.

THE HERALD appreciates the kindness of its correspondents and others who contribute essays and poems for publication, but, really, the paper is compelled to leave every article of interest because there is no room for them.

From every view point the farming class of this county is in better shape now than at any period since the civil war. More people own their own homes and little farms; more are free from the yoke of bondage inflicted by burdensome debts; more are becoming independent each year by making a comfortable living for their families; more are waking up to the necessity of giving their children better educational advantages, and withal, prosperity and contentment seems to prevail thruout the county. Let progress still be our watchword.

Fair Warning.

Several times I have asked subscribers who are in arrears to come in and pay up so that I can pay my just debts. A few have come to my relief, but, alas, the great majority pay no attention to my appeals, and patience has worn out the seat of his pantaloons waiting for them to pay. This is the last time I shall ask them and if they are not squared up by June 1, 1910, they will have to pay a collector. Hoping I may have but few names to turn over to collectors, I am

Your friend and the people's servant,
SPENCER COOPER.

An Improvement.
"My dear," said Mrs. Newlywed, her face flushed with the excitement of her afternoon in the kitchen, "I want you to be perfectly frank with me now. What would you suggest to improve these doughnuts I made today?"
"Well," replied Mr. Newlywed, lifting one with a slight effort. "I think it might be better if you made the hole bigger."—Cincinnati Times-Star.

A Regular Tom Boy
was Susie—climbing trees and fences, jumping ditches, whittling, always getting scratches, cuts, sprains, bruises, bumps, burns or scalds. But laws! Her mother just applied Bucklen's Arnica Salve and cured her quick. Heals everything healable—boils, ulcers, eczema, old sores, corns or piles. Try it. 25c at all dealers.

Thousands Have Kidney Trouble and Never Suspect it.

How To Find Out.
Fill a bottle or common glass with your water and let it stand twenty-four hours; a brick dust sediment, or settling, stringy or milky appearance often indicates an unhealthy condition of the kidneys; too frequent desire to pass it or pain in the back are also symptoms that tell you the kidneys and bladder are out of order and need attention.

What To Do.
There is comfort in the knowledge so often expressed, that Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root, the great kidney remedy, fulfills almost every wish in correcting rheumatism, pain in the back, kidneys, liver, bladder and every part of the urinary passage. Corrects inability to hold water and scalding pain in passing it, or bad effects following use of liquor, wine or beer, and overcomes that unpleasant necessity of being compelled to go often through the day, and to get up many times during the night. The mild and immediate effect of Swamp-Root is soon realized. It stands the highest because of its remarkable health restoring properties. If you need a medicine you should have the best. Sold by druggists in fifty-cent and one-dollar sizes.
You may have a sample bottle sent free by mail. Address Dr. Kilmer & Co., Binghamton, N. Y. Mention this paper and remember the name, Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root, and the address, Binghamton, N. Y., on every bottle.

SELIM.
This finely bred combined harness and saddle stallion will make the season of 1910 at my barn in Daysboro, at the low price of $5 TO INSURE A LIVING COLT. Money due when the mare proves in foal, or bred to another horse or jack, or traded away, and a lien on the colt will be retained to secure service money.
SELIM is a dark chestnut sorrel, 16 hands 3 inches high, with white stockings on hind feet. He is 7 years old this spring. He was sired by Pat Washington, a celebrated saddle stallion of Fayette county, and out of a mare by Golden Chief, combined horse.

DEMPSEY.
This fine young jack will make the season at the same barn at $5 TO INSURE A LIVING COLT, on same conditions as those of the horse.
DEMPSEY is a red sorrel, 14 hands 3 inches high, 4 years old August coming. He is out of a Black Mammoth jennet, and by Sam Brown's Red Dempsey. Breeders who have seen him pronounce him a model jack. All possible care taken to prevent accidents, but I will not be responsible should any occur.
