54 Main st., corner of Pine, St. Louis. WE would respectfully invite the attention of Dealers, to our very large Fall Stock, consisting in part of Gold and Silver Watches, Jewelry, Pocket and Table Cutlery, Plates, Spoons and Forks and Britannia Castors, Silver Spoons and Forks, Silver Cups and Goblets, Musical Instruments, Spy G. &c.

Watchmakers' Materials, and general assortment of FANCY GOODS. Importing our Foreign Goods direct, and purchasing those of American make of the manufacturers for cash only, we are placed on an equal footing with the best Eastern Houses, and can offer better inducements to our customers. By purchasing here, the western dealer saves the expense and time of a journey east, and all the extra charges for freight and insurance, with the uncertainty and vexatious delays in receiving his goods, and secures the very great advantage of an early market, and the facility of recouping his stock with new and seasonable goods as frequently as occasion may require. With an experience of eighteen years in the wholesale trade in St. Louis, we believe we are acquainted with the styles of goods suited to the western trade, and would beg leave especially to call attention to our very large stock of Single and Double Barrel Guns, of Damascus Wire, Stubb and Plain Twist, which have been selected particularly by our Mr. Mead, who has been spending the last three months in Europe, making purchases of goods in the English, French and Swiss markets. Dealers will find it to their interest to give us a call before purchasing. St. Louis, August 18, 1852. EDWARD MEAD & CO.

TO THE MERCHANTS OF Missouri, Illinois, Iowa, Wisconsin, and Minnesota. GREAT INDUCEMENTS TO TRADE IN ST. LOUIS!

An Undeviating One Price Cash System ESTABLISHED. TEN THOUSAND PACKAGES OF Seasonable Dry Goods OFFERED FOR SALE BY EDDY, JAMESON & CO., At Eastern Manufacturers' and Importers' prices, at least ten per cent. less than any Credit House in America can afford.

THE SUBSCRIBERS having removed to their new store on Main street, and for them by Col. Brant, at a cost of sixty thousand dollars, being the largest store devoted to the Dry Goods Jobbing Business in the United States, offer for sale by the piece or package, a stock of twenty-two different styles of American, English, French, German and Swiss Goods, direct from American and European manufacturers.

Our long experience in the Western Trade, and having a correct knowledge of the wants of the country, enables us to import such goods as are adapted to the wants of the people.

We believe we have facilities in buying which are not enjoyed by any other Western house, having resident partners and buyers constantly at the manufacturers and auctions in the East, and our agents on the continent. Purchasing our goods for cash and on short time, we are enabled to buy much lower than Eastern or Western Jobbers who buy on a long credit, and we are always able and prepared to take every advantage of a change in the market, favorable to our buyers, which merchants who buy on credit cannot enjoy.

We can afford to sell, for Cash, ten per cent. less than other houses, because we do not sustain heavy losses by crediting extravagant and injudicious merchants.

Merchants who have been in the habit of visiting Eastern cities, are assured that they will see as large stocks of goods in St. Louis, as can be seen in any of the Eastern cities.

We guarantee to exhibit a larger and better assortment and more elegant stock of Fancy and Staple Dry Goods and Notions than was ever seen in our house in America.

Our Dry Goods are mostly of styles designed by ourselves, and entirely confined to us in this market.

We are prepared to offer the same inducements to wholesale and retail buyers by best class houses in the East, who are only in this branch of the business.

The country merchant will save time and money by purchasing his goods in St. Louis, and avoid the risk of travelling—loss of time (which is valuable to good merchants)—expensive transportation—detention of his goods by low water—and mismanagement and loss of his goods by forwarding merchants, thereby subjecting himself to loss of sales and profits, and great inconvenience—a discount on money he receives from his customers.

It is a fact which is always in favor of the Eastern cities—the risk of goods not being adapted to his trade, which are sure to be depreciated and become unsalable, and being long absent from his business and home, for good reasons, for he is unable to make his purchases in a home market.

We respectfully suggest these facts to the merchants in the West, believing it to be in their interest in every respect to make their purchases in Saint Louis, and that the system we have outlined, guaranteeing to them cheaper goods and as large stocks as can be obtained in any of the Eastern cities, will bring to us many merchants and traders who have heretofore seen their way to St. Louis, and money and time by coming to a home market for their supplies.

Our motto shall be, in fact, LARGE BATES AND LOW PRICES. We are offering an undeviating one price cash system, at least ten per cent. less than any credit house in the East or West can afford.

EDDY, JAMESON & CO., St. Louis, July 21, 1853.

TO THE PUBLIC.

THE subscribers having sold their stock of Drugs, Medicines, Poisons, &c., to Messrs. TAYLOR & WHITE, would recommend the new firm to their patrons and the public generally.

Books, Stationery, Fancy Articles, &c. Together with every article usually found in a store, which we offer on the most favorable terms. We solicit a continuance of the custom of our predecessors, and ask a call from all who may want our services.

Physicians' prescriptions compounded at all hours. TAYLOR & WHITE, Glasgow, Aug. 15, 1853.
