Bad Man in Toils.

The "Liverpool Kid" a local tough who acquired a reputation short time ago by "shooting up" the Lakeside saloon and who has recently completed a ninety day term at the county jail ran amuck again this morning. He made himself promiscuously obnoxious on lower Minnesota avenue while intoxicated and went to jail. He will have a hearing before Judge Reynolds at 5 o'clock. He resisted arrest and gave Deputy Sheriff Bailey and his assistants quite a tussle this morning.

100 Men to Shovel Snow.

A party of 100 laboring men went west to Carman on one of the delayed Great Northern trains this morning. They were taken out from Duluth to clear the railroad yards at Carman, which are blocked and impassable as a result of the storm of Saturday evening.

BUCKED SNOW

M. & I. Passenger Reached Bemidji Hour Late This Morning as Result of Snow.

The M. & I. passenger reached Bemidji over an hour late this morning after quite a battle with the snow drifts between Northome and Blackduck. The train was stalled several times a short distance from Dexterville and compelled to take three runs for drifts near that station. After Blackduck was reached no further difficulty was experienced as several logging trains were run over the line yesterday.

Keilm. The ceremony will occur at the residence of the bride's parents, Wednesday evening at 8 o'clock.
