

ESTABLISHING POSITION

Russians Build Number of Strong Fortresses in Vicinity of Anju.

MOBILIZATION OF MANCHURIAN ARMY IS FINALLY EFFECTED.

Navigation Begins to Open Up and Shipping Agents Notified of Departure of Vessels From Ports Along Coast of China.

Tokio, March 28.—A private telegram from Korea states that the Russians are establishing a strong position in the vicinity of Antung. They are said to have seven fortresses completed and to be engaged in erecting six additional ones. It is also reported that four batteries of artillery have been established at Changsyong. The Russians are reported to be holding the north bank and the Japanese the south bank of the Anju river, where the latter have thrown up intrenchments. The hostile forces are thus face to face and desultory shots have already been exchanged.

KUROPATKIN AT MUKDEN.

Mobilization of the Manchurian Army Complete.

St. Petersburg, March 28.—The mobilization of the Manchurian army is now complete. General Kuropatkin stopped at Harbin to visit the fortress there, reaching Mukden Saturday night.

The Russian authorities have been privately informed that the Egyptian government proposes to exercise surveillance over ships other than warships passing through the Suez canal in order to ascertain whether they carry contraband of war. If the report is officially confirmed Russia will immediately protest against it as a violation of the international agreements covering the canal. The statement telegraphed from Newchwang that all the Russian state property there will be confined to the care of M. Kreutter, the newly appointed French consular agent, is officially denied at the foreign office, where it is explained that Russia has no interest in the appointment, which probably was made solely with the view to the protection of French interests in case of Newchwang being attacked.

LIAO RIVER NAVIGABLE.

Russians Issue Orders Regulating Shipping at Newchwang.

Newchwang, March 28.—The Liao river became navigable Friday and shipping agents have received notices of the departure of vessels from ports along the entire coast of China for Newchwang.

The Russian military authorities have issued an order regulating shipping at this port. The order provides that all incoming vessels must anchor five and one-half miles below the fort and can proceed into the harbor only between the hours of 6 a. m. and 6 p. m., after undergoing an examination of papers and cargo. The merchants here are protesting against the order in the hope that ships will be permitted to anchor within two miles of the foreign settlement before submitting to an examination by the authorities. Although further compromising the rights of neutrals, the surveillance of ships passing by the fortifications is considered by the authorities to be a necessary military precaution.

RUSSIAN TRAITOR SENTENCED.

Gets Twenty-five Years in Prison for Selling Secrets to Japan.

St. Petersburg, March 28.—Captain Irkorff of the Manchurian commissariat service, who was arrested on the charge of having sold information in connection with the quartermaster's department to Lieutenant Colonel Asikashi, formerly military attache of the Japanese legation here, has been tried by court-martial and found guilty. He has been sentenced to twenty-five years penal servitude.

It transpires that Captain Irkorff had the most friendly relations with M. Kurino, the former Japanese minister to Russia, and with other members of the Japanese legation, where the negotiations for the sale of the information by the captain were conducted.

TURN THE RUSSIAN FLANK

SUPPOSED OBJECT OF CONCENTRATION OF JAPANESE SOLDIERS AT ANJU.

Liaoyang, Manchuria, March 28.—General Mischchenko has been informed that the Japanese have suspended their advance on the Pingyang-Anju line. Three thousand Japanese troops are stationed at Anju and 1,000 at Pakchieng, while forty Japanese warships and transports are anchored at Chinnampo.

According to Russian advices the object of the Japanese is to turn the Russian flank, for which they are awaiting the concentration of their army. A Cossack patrol encountered a Japanese post near Pakchieng March 24 and exchanged shots. While retiring the Cossacks met a Japanese patrol and opened fire with the result that one Japanese officer, one man and a horse were killed. The Russian force suffered no casualty.

RUSSIA'S AIMS ANNOUNCED.

War Will Assure Her Predominant Position on the Pacific.

St. Petersburg, March 28.—The text of the emperor's message to Viceroy Alexieff, notifying him of the appointment of General Kuropatkin to the command of the Russian troops in the Far East and of Vice Admiral Makaroff to command the fleet at Port Arthur, not only clearly defines the latter's position but specifically announces Russia's aims. The message follows:

"The importance of the impending struggle, which is intended to finally assure the predominant position of Russia on the shore of the Pacific ocean, and foreseeing that it will be necessary for you as a lieutenant to transfer your residence to a more central position, for instance Harbin or some other place of your choice, I have found it expedient to send to your assistance General Kuropatkin for the direction of the land forces, with the rights of army commander, and Vice Admiral Makaroff for the direction of the sea forces, with rights of fleet commander. I am convinced that the appointment of these independent, responsible commanders-in-chief will enable you, as my lieutenant, to discharge the difficult and historic task which has fallen to your lot."

APPEAL FOR REFUGEES.

Japanese on the Island of Sakhalin in Distress.

St. Petersburg, March 28.—The Japanese government, through the United States embassy, has requested Russia to permit the Japanese consul and consular staff at Turbess, Island of Sakhalin, with 600 refugees, to return to Japan. Many of the latter are represented to be suffering from lack of food. Russia has been asked to notify the Japanese authorities, through Richard T. Greener, the United States commercial agent at Vladivostok, when a ship can be sent to take the Japanese off.

At the request of Japan Ambassador McCormick will facilitate the journey of forty-eight refugees now at Chita, Siberia, to Berlin, in case they desire to go there. The expense of their transportation will be borne by Japan.

Czar Not Going to the Front.

St. Petersburg, March 28.—The report printed abroad that the emperor is going to the front in the summer, receives absolutely no credence in the highest official circles.
