Grand Forks Herald: The Bemidji Daily Pioneer celebrates its first birthday anniversary by issuing an elaborate number descriptive of the country in which it circulates, with numerous illustrations. The Pioneer is an excellent paper, and a credit to northern Minnesota.

The Plague of Politics.

There can be no doubt in the mind of any observant person that this country is cursed with too much politics. The newspapers are much to blame in that they cater to the demand of the reading public for political news, or in want of news, political gossip. But the newspapers will forever continue to print what the people want to read and it is in other directions that we must look for relief from the plague of politics.

There are few of us who are not convinced that elections are too numerous, but the American people fear the danger that lies in infrequent elections and thus far they have preferred to suffer the enormous losses which frequent elections have entailed rather than assume the risk of putting the nation in jeopardy by giving any man or set of men too long a lease of power.

BUT something must be done. The campaign before election year by year pushes its business disturbing force further and further forward until there is scarce time for business to rally from the shock of one election before the campaign for the next is upon us.

Sentiment in favor of longer terms of office is steadily growing and the next quarter of a century will see many changes in this direction.

THE possibilities of northern Minnesota as a great summer resort are almost infinite. Where the states of the east have one small spot in which the city man may rest and refresh himself from the toil and heat of the office and counting room Minnesota has a million. Northern Minnesota is dotted thickly with beautiful lakes and wooded shores. Just at present we are each so busy establishing the fame of our own particular lake and woodland that we utterly refuse to recognize any other, but the time will come when northern Minnesota will offer its hundreds of summer resorts and attract its hundreds of thousands of summer resorters.

THE Pioneer prints all the news of north central Minnesota. No other newspaper attempts it. By means of its Associated Press service it gives to Bemidji and numerous north central Minnesota towns in concise form all the news of the world twelve hours in advance of any other daily paper while there are few towns in this growing portion of the state that it does not reach as soon as any other daily paper. These facts account for its rapidly increasing circulation throughout north central Minnesota, a section of the state destined to become one of the most thriving and one of the most influential in the Empire State of the Northwest.

WE HAD thought that Minnesota was doing pretty well, but it appears to be several laps politically behind Illinois and Wisconsin.

BITS FROM THE NORTH COUNTRY

Crookston's dog catcher leads a busy life.

Where there's a veteran there is a Memorial Day.

Fertile stiffens up and demands a starch factory.

That spelling contest is all off and Crookston claims that Wadena didn't dare.

'Twill not be many years before the apple orchards of Blackduck begin to blossom.

There is food for thought in 250 acres of macaroni wheat planted by a Polk county farmer.

The Red River Valley Miller's Club, which denies that it exists for the purpose of throwing dust in the eyes of the people, holds its annual at Fargo.

In view of all that has been said during the past two weeks it is impossible to understand how three of the northern league teams could have lost the opening games.

The result of the timber trespass suit against the Commonwealth Lumber company will compel the company to make some $18,000 of their wealth more common.

According to the Journal the mosquito has presented his first bill at Olberg, and it may confidently be added that he will be in the field for collection from this time on.

The Bagley Independent doubles its local service and if the people of Clearwater county know a good thing when they see it the Independent will shortly double its subscription list.

The north country will sound its amen to this bit of wisdom from Mary McFadden, "Don't forget that good roads are the arteries of commerce. If transportation facilities are slow and cumbersome, the circulation will suffer."

Campbells Are Coming.

The committee of arrangements of the Liquor Dealers of the city have closed a deal for the appearance of the Campbell Bros. circus here on June 13, a day before the convention of the State Liquor Dealers. Campbell Bros. appeared here on July 4 last year and put up a very fine show and will no doubt be well patronized at this, their second show in Bemidji.

THE CHURCHES

The morning subject at the Baptist church for tomorrow will be, "The Fifth Commandment." All parents and children interested should attend this sermon. The subject for the evening discourse will be, "Abraham, the Originator of the True Israel."

Whooping Cough.

"In the spring of 1901 my child had a whooping cough," says Mrs. D. W. Capps, of Capps, Ala. "I used Chamberlain's Cough Remedy with the most satisfactory results. I think this is the best remedy I have ever seen for whooping cough." This remedy keeps the cough loose, lessens the severity and frequency of the coughing spells and counteracts any tendency toward pneumonia. For sale by BARKERS Drug Store.

F. O. E.

Fratern Order of Eagles, Bemidji Aerie No. 351. Meets every Wednesday at 8 p. m., Gilmour's Hall.

A. T. Wheelock, W. President; H. Leffler, W. Secretary. Visiting Eagles cordially invited.

For the Knights of Pythias conclave at Minneapolis May 21, the Great Northern will make a rate of one and one third fares for the round trip, $8.80. Tickets will be on sale May 20 and 21 and returning are good until May 23.

When the Sap Rises

Weak lungs should be careful. Cough and colds are dangerous when One Minute Cough Cure cures coughs and colds and gives strength to the lungs. Mrs. G. E. Fenner, of Marion, Ind., says, "I suffered with a cough until I ran down in weight from 148 to 92 lbs. I tried a number of remedies to no avail until I used One Minute Cough Cure. Four bottles of this wonderful remedy cured me entirely of the cough, strengthened my lungs and restored me to my normal weight, health and strength." Sold at E. A. Barker's drug store.

Cured His Mother of Rheumatism "My mother has been a sufferer for many years with rheumatism," says W. H. Howard, of Husband, Pa. At times she was unable to move at all, while at all times walking was painful. I presented her with a bottle of Chamberlain's Pain Balm and after a few applications she decided it was the most wonderful pain reliever she had ever tried, in fact, she is never without it now and is at all times able to walk. An occasional application of Pain Balm keeps away the pain that she was formerly troubled with." For sale by BARKERS Drug Store.
