weather has kept many from coming up to the present time. We will frame your pictures while you wait at Naylor's. R. E. Miller was at Blackduck on business last night. Nothing can be better than the best—Mark's Lung Balm is the best. C. S. Carter, the Tenstrike real estate man, is in the city today. Great bargains in men's shoes at Gill Bros. Mr. and Mrs. G. A. Crocker, of this city, are the parents of a son born today. Oranges, oranges, at the Lakeside Bakery. C. H. Olson and A. P. Bloom, of Spaulding postoffice, are Bemidji visitors today. Assortment of cakes and cookies served free of charge with Ives' ice cream at the Lakeside Bakery. George Heath, the well known Duluth traveling salesman, is shaking hands with his Bemidji friends today. Caesar dead and turned to clay might stop a hole to keep the wind away. Take Mark's Lung Balm, and avoid this fate. Miss Bertha Remshardt, who has been visiting at her home at Crookston for several days, returned to Bemidji today. John Larson, well known in Bemidji and one of the Pioneer residents of the Big Fork country is in the city on business today. Go to the Princess for strictly fresh eggs. Walter Harris, a brother of Jim Harris, accompanied the latter gentleman to Bemidji on a visit today. Mr. Harris is here on a visit. Oranges, oranges, at the Lakeside Bakery. Fred Kelp, who is well known in Bemidji, arrived in the city today from the Sandy River. There he has been in the employ of the Crookston Lumber company. Strawberries at $2.25 a case at the Princess. Dick Brewer an old resident of Bemidji is in the city renewing acquaintances today. Mr. Brewer was here several years ago but is now one of the advance agents for Campbell Bros. circus. Rev. Frank Higgins, well known in Bemidji, is quite ill at his home at Buffalo. Mr. Higgins was to have taken Rev. McLeod's place during the latter's vacation, but was prevented from carrying out his intentions by sudden and serious indisposition. He may be able to come to Bemidji next Sunday.

Triumphs of Surgery.
 Wonderful things are done for the human body by surgery. Organs are taken out and scraped and polished and put back, or they may be removed entirely; bones are spiced; pipes take the place of diseased sections of veins; antiseptic dressings are applied to wounds, bruises, burns and like injuries before inflammation sets in, which causes them to heal without maturation and in one third the time required by the old treatment. Chamberlain's Pain Balm acts on this same principle. It is an antiseptic and when applied to such injuries, causes them to heal very quickly. It also allays the pain and soreness. Keep a bottle of Pain Balm in your home and it will save you time and money, not to mention the inconvenience and suffering which such injuries entail. For sale by Barker's Drug store.

"Lucky Curve."
 Parker's Lucky Curve fountain pen, written guarantee with each one. A. E. Winter, the jeweler.
 M. D. Stoner left this afternoon for Bandette. Mr. Stoner expects to be absent about two weeks and while absent will survey the new townsite of Spooner in which several Bemidji gentlemen are interested.
That Throbbing Headache.
 Would quickly leave you, if you used Dr. King's New Life Pills. Thousands of sufferers have proved their matchless merit for Sick and Nervous Headaches. They make pure blood and build up your health. Only 25c, money back if not cured. Sold by all druggists.
 Men $15 suits for $10 at Gill Bros.
 F. F. Price, a prominent Grand Rapids attorney, was in the city yesterday to argue a motion before Judge Spooner at the special term of the Beltrami county district court.
 Watch the Grill windows for good things to eat.
 Miss Grace Spencer, who is teaching school at Niawa, is in the city today for a visit with her sisters, Mrs. Ross Miller and Miss Fern Spencer.
 See the bargain counter of ten cent canned vegetables and fruits at the Princess.
 L. Blooston, manager of the Opera Buffet is making considerable improvements to his place this week. The Buffet is being refitted throughout and is now one of the neatest places in the city.
 Watch the Grill windows for good things to eat.
 Miss Fern Spencer, who was the winner of the Pioneer Popularity contest, expects to go to St. Louis about August 20 to see the Exposition in accordance with the provisions made by the paper.
 Go to Hakkerup for photos.
 The offices of Walker & Akeley, which have been maintained in this city for some time, are to be removed to Akeley and the office fixtures and supplies are being shipped today. The new location will be more convenient than Bemidji and is nearer the territory in which Walker & Akeley are interested.

Thrown From a Wagon.
 Mr. George K. Babcock was thrown from his wagon and severely bruised. He applied Chamberlain's Pain Balm freely and says it is the best liniment he ever used. Mr. Babcock is a well known citizen of North Plain, Conn. There is nothing equal to Pain Balm for sprains and bruises. It will effect a cure in one third the time required by any other treatment. For sale by Barker's Drug store.

Startling Evidence.
 Fresh testimony in great quantity is constantly coming in, declaring Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption, Coughs and Colds to be unequalled. A recent expression from T. J. McFarland, Bentorville, Va., serves as example. He writes: "I had Bronchitis for three years and doctor-ed all the time without being benefited. Then I began taking Dr. King's New Discovery, and a few bottles wholly cured me." Equally effective in curing all Lung and Throat troubles, Consumption, Pneumonia and Grip. Guaranteed by all druggists. Trial bottles free, regular sizes 50c, and $1.

to forget for a moment his colossal dignity? Perhaps both. Anyhow, a sudden desire seized him to shake that animal into the river. Without pausing to dress himself, he clambered up the tree and shook the limb, which was serving as Mr. Porcupine's breakfast table. But the clumsy animal was too sharp of claws and too well ballasted with tail to be easily dethroned. He realized his danger, and crawled down the limb. Reaching there, it discovered that its enemy had retreated. Slowly it began ascending the tree trunk—never realizing, perhaps that Mr. Smith was above him. Patient reader, were you ever up a rough, ridgy tree that leaned over a rushing river, clothed only in your own righteousness, and expecting every moment to receive 40,000 loose porcupine quills in your shrinking corns? Neither was I. So we cannot appreciate the joy of Mr. Smith upon seeing Jean Wilcox saunter along with a gun. "For heaven's sake, shoot this pest," shrieked the banker. Jean threw down his gun and laughed. A second appeal sobered him but a little. Seeing an enemy beneath the porcupine, which had been hesitating, resumed, using its tail as a paddle, and sailed upward more hurriedly. Jean slowly loaded his pipe. "I believe you run a bank down in Slabtown?" he inquired. "Yes, but I haven't time to talk. Kill him! Kill him!" "Haven't time to talk, eh? Seems like I heard that afore. Do you mind that time I called on you at your skinning joint and asked for a loan?" "Yes, yes; but hurry, hurry." "You said you couldn't loan money on a stranger's note," resumed Jean with great deliberation. "And you were too busy to talk to me then. Seeing we ain't too busy, suppose we talk it over now. In the first place, I haint got no call to shoot porcupines for a total stranger, and—" "Kill him, and I'll cash a hundred notes," shrieked poor Smith as he crawled to a dangerously tapered perch. "Well, I still need that money, and as I get it I'll start shooting." "But I haven't my checkbook with me, you idiot." The ridiculousness of this statement started both men to laughing and Smith fell into the river. He escaped unharmed, but as he refused to honor Jean's note, his dignity has been totally ruined.

"Lucky Curve."
 Ladies will not find letter writing a task if they use a Parker pen. A. E. Winter, the jeweler.
 Ice cream and strawberries. Armstrong & Underwood.
Sued by His Doctor.
 "A doctor here sued me for $12.50, which I claimed was excessive for a case of cholera morbus," says R. White, of Coachella, Cal. "At the trial he praised his medical skill and medicine. I asked him if it was not Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy he used as I had good reason to believe it was, and he would not say under oath that it was not." No doctor could use a better remedy than this in a case of cholera morbus; it never fails. Sold by Barker's Drug store.
