

LOST THE HOSE RACE

Hallock Wins a Scratch Victory Over the Bemidji Running Team.

DENNIS TRIED TWICE TO MAKE THE COUPLING.

Home Team Takes First Money In Coupling Contest and Second In Foot Race.

The Bemidji running team lost the banner hose race of the Northern Minnesota Firemen's Association to the Hallock running team yesterday afternoon by one and one fifth seconds after a hard run for victory over a slow track attended by unusual mistifurane.

The home team would have won handily but for the failure of Dennis to make the coupling until the second attempt. The time of local team was twenty-eight seconds and the Hallock team went to victory in twenty-six and four-fifths. The failure of the team to win the banner race was a simple matter of hard luck and it is undoubtedly the fastest all around team in attendance at the tournament.

Dennis won second money in the firemen's foot race in eleven seconds and Geil won first money in the coupling contest of four and four-fifths.

Hallock people are treating the boys royally and they are enjoying their visit there immensely. All the boys are in good spirits and they still expect to take a good share of the money.

Cantata Tomorrow Night.

The regular ceremonial of the temple preceded the social session. The following officers were elected: Most excellent chief, Mrs. H. H. Wheelock; ex senior, Mrs. Robert Clark; ex junior, Mrs. Georgia Walker; manager, Mrs. Patterson; mistress of records and correspondence, Mrs. Smith; mistress of finance, Mrs. Jinkinson; protector, Mrs. Irwin; outer guard, Mrs. Shepherd. Miss Ida Bailey was elected trustee for eighteen months, Mrs. Casler was elected grand representative and Mrs. Wheelock alternative. Resolutions of regret on the loss of Mrs. O. H. Bailey, past chief, who left for the west this week, were adopted. It was voted to donate $5 toward the Fraternal building fund at St. Louis. It was decided to give a midsummer social the fourth Saturday in July and to hold but one business session during July and August.

Mrs. McCall left this morning to visit the temple at Wadena. She has just returned from Aitkin, where next week she will form a temple, making the sixth this year.

Mrs. McCall complimented the Rathbone Sisters of Bemidji on the progress they had made. Although the new temple is but a little more than three months old it has nearly $50 in its treasury. There is some talk as to organizing a literary society in connection with the temple.

Mrs. McCall was entertained by Mrs. Laura Mayer, the maid of honor, Miss Anna Erwig, bridesmaid and Mr. Arthur Flatner, the best man, preceding the bride and groom. As soon as the bridal party had taken their places Mrs. R. B. Foster began the soft strains of the Venetian Love Song and Rev. Broomfield read the marriage service. The ceremony of the ring and a short prayer concluded the service and Mr. and Mrs. Erwig received the congratulations and best wishes of a host of friends.

A BRIDE OF JUNE

Pretty Wedding of Miss June Henderson to Mr. Oscar Erwig Last Evening.

OVER 100 GUESTS WERE IN ATTENDANCE.

Bride and Groom Among the Most Popular Young People of the City.

Last evening at the home of the bride's parents Dr. and Mrs. A. E. Henderson of this city occurred the marriage of Miss June Henderson to Mr. Oscar Erwig. Dr. and Mrs. Henderson are among the oldest and most respected residents of the city and both bride and groom are very popular. More than one hundred guests assembled shortly before 9 o'clock to witness the wedding and to bid the young people God speed as they entered upon their new life.

The home of the bride was beautifully decorated for the occasion in pink clover and trailing hemlock. Just at 9 o'clock Mesdames Foster and Roberts began to play Mendelssohn's thrilling wedding march and shortly after the bridal party entered. The flower girls, the Misses Marlen Whit and Margaret Hetherington, daintily robed in white, preceded the bridal party through the dining room and parlor to the front window where a wealth of vines and flowers made a bower of beauty above which hung a hugh wedding bell, green of vine, red of flower and glowing with a soft light. Following the flower girls came Miss Laura Mayer, the maid of honor, Miss Anna Erwig, bridesmaid and Mr. Arthur Flatner, the best man, preceding the bride and groom. As soon as the bridal party had taken their places Mrs. R. B. Foster began the soft strains of the Venetian Love Song and Rev. Broomfield read the marriage service. The ceremony of the ring and a short prayer concluded the service and Mr. and Mrs. Erwig received the congratulations and best wishes of a host of friends.

The bride wore white crepe du chene with Irish point lace, a beautiful creation, and carried a shower bouquet of white wisteria. The maid of honor, Miss Laura Mayer, wore a dress of blue silk tissue and carried bride's roses. Miss Anna Erwig, bridesmaid, was gowned in silk crepe du chene with point lace yoke.

The groom is one of the popular young men of the city, occupies the responsible position of jeweler at E. A. Barker's establishment and has the respect and confidence of the business men of the city generally. A wedding supper was served at which the bridal party, relatives and assembled guests made most merry and after which Mr. and Mrs. Erwig left on the midnight train for a two week's trip to Eau Claire Wisconsin, and Delano, Minn. They will be at home in Bemidji after July 20.

The bride was the recipient of numerous and costly wedding gifts which testified not only to her popularity and that of the groom but to the worth and esteem in which the bride's parents, Dr. and Mrs. Henderson are held by the community at large.

Among those who were present from out of town were Mrs. C. R. Ward, and son Nevin, of Alexandria, Mrs. Clarence Spelman, of Northome, the Misses Lulu Saunders and Anna Post and Mr. William McFarland, of Parker's Prairie, Miss Anna Erwig and Mr. Martin Erwig, of Minneapolis, and Mrs. Nealy and daughter Margaret, of Delano, Minn.

The fact that he has been gone for over a month and has not communicated with his wife and family is not explained, however.
