

J. A. McConkey.

All those who have drawing books should finish them and bring them to our store by not later than July 9th. On the morning of July 11th they will be turned over to the judges to pass on and then the prizes will be awarded.

We are well pleased with the way our teas and coffees have taken with the people but with our experience of this line during the past four years, it is nothing more than we expected, for we consider that they are the finest line it is possible to get.

During the berry season we have all sizes of fruit jars: Mason, glass fruit cans, pints, 55c per dozen, quarts 65c per dozen, 2-quarts, 85c per dozen. In stone, fruit jars, quarts, $1.25 per dozen, 1-gallon size, 25c each. 2-gallon size, 40c each and 5-gallon size, $1.25 each. Extra fruit jar caps and rubbers. A large consignment of jelly glasses will be in this week, also another large shipment of crockery. Prices will be as low as they can be made and leave a small margin of profit.

Yours Very Truly,

J. A. McCONKEY.

Clapp's Big Hit.

If there has been any doubt as to whom the people of Minnesota want to succeed Senator Clapp the recent state convention has removed it. As presiding officer of the convention Senator Clapp made a big hit, and the man who could so successfully handle fifteen hundred partisans, keyed up to the highest pitch of excitement, and ready at the slightest word to fly at each other's throats, is certainly an eminently fit man to represent the state in the United States senate. It is only plain truth to say that Senator Clapp saved the republican party from disruption. But for his clear judgment, his prompt decision and his vigorous enforcement of the order there would probably be two republican tickets in Minnesota today. If Tom Reed was a better presiding officer than Senator Clapp, we congratulate the memory of the man from Maine.

Robert C. Dunn.

After the most spectacular, the most exciting and the most strenuous campaign ever fought in Minnesota Robert C. Dunn has been nominated for governor and will probably be elected in November by the largest majority ever given a candidate for governor in the history of the state of Minnesota. Being the first paper in Beltrami county and one of the first in the northern part of the state, to announce its support of Mr. Dunn the Pioneer cannot fail to be much gratified that he has been nominated. Mr. Dunn owes his nomination to his record for efficiency as an administrative officer and to his personal popularity. We are confident that three fourths of Beltrami county, irrespective of party, desired his nomination and that Beltrami county will give him more votes in November than it has ever yet given any candidate for any office.

SIDE LIGHTS ON THE CONVENTION

H. P. Hall, the veteran newspaper man, delighted the convention in a short speech during the tiresome wait for the report of the committee on credentials. After serving the democracy since the sixties Mr. Hall two years ago turned republican. He implored the convention not to disrupt the party at this time, but to stand firm and give him a chance now that he had entered the fold.

The convention by Friday night had been in session too long to be patient with speeches. About one o'clock Saturday morning a delegate nominated his favorite for railway and warehouse commissioner. He reeled off his eulogy in a sing song tone of voice for a minute or two when some stentorian lunged delegate from the rear of the stage roared, "Amen," and that particular speech ended right there.

As between Judges Jaggard, Douglass and Searle it was evident before the announcement of the vote that Judge Jaggard had been nominated. Barely had Yellow Medicine cast its vote when the Renville delegation struck up
Jaggard, Jaggard,
We are all for Jaggard
etc.

The republican state convention of last week was the most remarkable convention ever held in the history of the state. Never did so many delegates attend a state convention in Minnesota, never were so many seats contested; for three days fifteen hundred men stood on the tiptoe of expectancy; rumors of fraud, of trickery, of trades, of riot thickened the air; but on the surface never was there so much good humor, so much laughter, so many funny things in any convention. Wit and humor may be said to have saved the day.

The Dunn delegation and the Collins delegation from Beltrami county sat side by side throughout the convention their seats being on the stage and only about fifteen feet from the chairman's desk.

Senator Clapp was master of the convention at all times with one exception. When the cheering subsided after the memorable vote on the adoption of the minority report of the committee on credentials, an excited delegate in the rear of the auditorium gained the ear of the chair and moved the nomination of Dave Clough for governor by acclamation. For a few moments Senator Clapp had more than he could do to manage his sides, let alone the convention.

M. J. Dowling, the handless and footless ex-speaker of the house, headed the Renville county delegation. Just before the famous vote which settled the nomination for governor, the most tense moment of the convention, Mr. Dowling and his delegation cheerfully broke into song with
Moses, Moses,
We are all for Moses
Out they go
In he goes
On a bed of roses.
Moses, Moses,
We are all for Moses.

The convention roared its approval and Senator Moses E. Clapp did not seem much displeased.

Queer things will happen in politics. Testimony was introduced in the Ramsey county contest to show that the primary in one precinct was held in a room in a private residence with all doors locked and the only means of access to the room was a window the sill of which was seven feet from the ground. Those who wanted to vote approached the window and if they had the pass word a hand reached down from the window and took the ballot. There were two judges and one of them confessed that the Dunn ballots were cast on the floor and a solid Collins delegation was sent to the county convention.

During the Beltrami county contest the testimony of the Dunn men worked L. H. Bailey into a fury of indignation and he broke forth with a vigorous and picturesque presentation of the Collins side of the case. He ended very dramatically and was retiring when he was asked why, if the Collins people had so large a control of the county convention, they did not elect their delegates. Mr. Bailey shook his fist over the committee and shouted, "Why we've got a majority right here in the state convention and yet we can't do anything!" The committee gave itself over to smiles and the audience simply roared with laughter.

"Night Was Her Terror." "I would cough nearly all night long," writes Mrs. Chas. Applegate, of Alexandria, Ind., "and could hardly get any sleep. I had consumption so bad that if I walked a block I would cough frightfully and spit blood, but, when all other medicines failed, three $1.00 bottles of Dr. King's New Discovery wholly me and I gained fifty-eight pounds." It's absolutely guaranteed to cure coughs, colds, la grippe, bronchitis and all throat and lung troubles. Price 50c and $1.00. Trial bottles free at all druggists.

OFFICE HOURS: 10 a. m. to Noon, and 1 to 5:30 p. m.

I realize that it is sometimes very embarrassing for a lady to tell a physician about her troubles. For that reason I keep in attendance a lady at my office from 1 to 5:30 p. m. She assists (if desired) all ladies in getting ready for examinations; is present (if desired) while I am giving adjustments. The cause of all female diseases is in the spinal column (small of the back) and I find it unnecessary to adjust other than the cause; for the removal of the cause always allows the diseased organs to resume their natural positions and functions. Hence I never require local examination and never give local treatment, and even so, there is no line of diseases with which I have more complete success than those which afflict womankind.
