Do Themselves Discredit.

There are three or four well known Minnesota newspapers which are doing themselves a great deal of discredit by the offensive way in which they are accepting the nomination of Robert C. Dunn for governor. These papers supported Judge Collins and the smart of defeat is so great that they are now impugning their own republicanism. Speaking of Dunn's nomination one of them this week says:

Desperate methods were put into practice and vicious precedents were established to bring about this result.

Elsewhere in the same article it intimates that Mr. Dunn's nomination was not honorably and fairly secured.

Why a reputable newspaper will persist in such statements in the face of facts is unexplainable. The nomination of Mr. Dunn was made certain by the vote of the convention upon the question as to the adoption of the minority report of the committee on credentials. The vote was a fair and square test of the Dunn and Collins forces. On this ballot the Dunn men cast 622½ votes or 33½ more than a majority.

This vote was taken under the rules laid down by the state central committee, a Collins body, and the rules had been made as favorable to Judge Collins as the ingenuity of the committee could devise. The state central committee itself upset all precedent by the adoption of the rule that contesting delegations should be allowed seats and votes in the convention. Under this rule Anoka county cast ten votes for Dunn, Beltrami county ten votes for Collins and Cass and Roseau counties nine and eight votes respectively for both candidates. Suppose the usual rule had been followed; Dunn would have lost the votes of Anoka, Cass and Roseau counties, a total of twenty-seven and his vote would have been 595½ or six and one-half votes more than enough to nominate.

At all times in the convention Dunn had more than enough votes to nominate entirely outside of the contested counties. Had Collins been given every contested delegate Dunn would still have had votes to spare. The Collins and Eddy strength combined never had enough votes to nominate anybody.

The machinery of the party was entirely in the hands of the Collins men. Nobody but they had any opportunity to do anything that was dishonorable or unfair. All Bob Dunn had was the votes. The only thing that the Collins people did not have was the votes.

The nomination of Robert C. Dunn was made as fairly and squarely as was ever any nomination made under the sun. The Collins newspapers should quit their intimations to the contrary or get out of the party. If they don't do one of the other pretty soon they will be read out.

The socialists in Polk and Ottertail counties plan to put a full ticket in the field this fall. The socialists have slowly gained strength during the past ten years but the greatest peril in the existence of the party now confronts it. With the dissolution of the populist party in northern Minnesota numerous well known characters who have served their time in every other party are now edging their way into leadership with the socialists. The socialist party may never amount to a great deal but it will never amount to anything if it does not rid itself of these parasites.

IT SEEMS that David B. Hill got everything he wanted after all. His man was named for the presidency and though the convention omitted to sanction the gold standard in its platform it was forced to tell Mr. Parker that the gold standard was perfectly satisfactory.

Night Was Her Terror.

"I would cough nearly all night long," writes Mrs. Chas. Applegate, of Alexandria, Ind., "and could hardly get any sleep. I had consumption so bad that if I walked a block I would cough frightfully and spit blood, but, when all other medicines failed, three $1.00 bottles of Dr. King's New Discovery wholly me and I gained fifty-eight pounds." It's absolutely guaranteed to cure coughs, colds, la grippe, bronchitis and all throat and lung troubles. Price 50c and $1.00. Trial bottles free at all druggists.

POLITICS

Judge Parker may not be able to talk but he can write telegrams alright.

The Union's office towel took a bath to celebrate the victory and the office force has given it ten days leave of absence on full pay. —Princeton Union.

Mr. Hays announces that he is going to retire from office every county officer. What—just like he carried Beltrami county for Dunn?

One of the hits of the republican state convention was made by a speaker who declared that "the democratic party maligns republican leaders as vigorously while they are living as it canonizes them after they are dead."

The contest for the legislature between Ashur Murray and County Treasurer Win. Dower, of Wadena county, is keeping things at the usual political boiling point in Wadena county. Mr. Murray appears to have considerably the best of it in Wadena county and the Pioneer Journal declares that he will carry Todd county despite that county's recent endorsement of Dower.

A few newspapers keep on harping upon the theme of Dunn's opposition to Clapp. Mr. Dunn has publically declared that if elected governor he will in no way attempt to influence the appointment of a United States senator. Mr. Dunn kept his word in every instance with the people of Minnesota during the eight years he was a public official and there can be no reason for doubting that he will keep it now.

One of the remarkable things in Minnesota politics this year was the clean sweep made by Dunn in Clearwater county. The county was claimed for Collins from the first and Dunn gave it absolutely no attention. Yet Dunn carried every precinct in the county but one. In reality the people of the county were inclined to Dunn although nearly all the leaders were Collins men. The carrying of the county for Dunn in the face of these facts was as pretty a piece of political maneuvering as one often sees.

L. H. Bailey, who says that he can vote Bemidji any old way he pleases any old time, is out of town—in St. Paul—where he is said to be industriously whispering this fact in the ear of Senator Clapp, chairman of the recent republican state convention, as a reason why he should be appointed state committeeman for this district. If Mr. Bailey is really a candidate for the place his eminent services on behalf of Mr. Dunn and his friends at the state convention will doubtless recommend him highly for the place.
