

TAKES SHOT AT NEIGHBOR

Farmer in Town of Port Hope Thinks He Owns Road And Trouble Ensues.

PLANTED CLOVER ON HIS HALF OF THE ROAD.

And When Neighbor Tried To Travel on Highway He Drives Him Away.

The town of Port Hope, which has been replete with stories of trouble of road building, has just had another experience in the same line and as a result one of the citizens of the town was brought to Bemidji this morning and appeared before Judge Pendergast on a charge of assault with a dangerous weapon. He was dismissed, however, upon promising that his actions in the future should be that of a peace loving citizen, and those who swore out the warrant against him helped to pay the costs.

The trouble arose over a road which runs between the lands of the two farmers who live near Buena Vista. Each of the neighbors contributed one-half of the road from the land which they owned and everything went along smoothly until this spring, when one sowed clover on the half which he had contributed, thinking that this half of the road belonged to him because the land had formerly been his.

He warned all those who attempted to travel upon the road that the land belonged to him and that all transgressors would be punished to the full extent of the law. Yesterday afternoon his neighbor attempted to drive along the road when he was stopped and requested to turn back, as he was transgressing upon the land of another. He replied that he did not see wherein this was true and continued on his journey. His neighbor did not give up, however, and went to his cabin, secured a revolver and came out near the road and fired upon the other man, who speedily made himself scarce in that vicinity.

A warrant was sworn out yesterday for the arrest of the man who had done the shooting and he was brought to the city this morning by Constable Cyr of Port Hope township. He pleaded not guilty to the charge of assault with a dangerous weapon, and his neighbor afterwards became lenient and withdrew the charge and helped to pay the costs.

WANTED TO DIE

Fosston Farmer Tired of Life Because He Did Not Make Money Enough.

Wanting to die because he does not get rich enough to please himself and having made several attempts to end his existence with a butcher knife, Tom Jensen, a well known Thirteen Towns farmer who lives near Fosston and has a valuable farm near that place, was yesterday committed to the Fergus Falls asylum.

Jensen has been a resident of the Thirteen Towns for sixteen years or more and has a wife and two children living with him upon his farm. The farm is a valuable one, but late years crops have not been what they ought to have been and Jensen from brooding over his fancied misfortunes, became morbid and later insane. His case was not serious and his insanity streaks were not frequent until a week ago when his mind departed entirely. He has attempted to kill himself several times.

STONER RETURNS

County Surveyor Returns From Buena Vista, Where He Has Completed Survey.

County Surveyor M. D. Stoner returned last night from Buena Vista, where he completed the final details of the railway survey from Bemidji to that town. Mr. Stoner also extended a line north from Buena Vista to connect with the survey made by the railway company, and reports that although the country north of Buena Vista is somewhat rougher than between there and Bemidji, the line is on the whole a very feasible route for the railway.

GETS PENSION

Mrs. Martha Sutliff Is Granted Relief By The Pension Department.

Mrs. Martha Sutliff, who lives a few miles south of the city, has received notice from the pension department of the government that her claim for a large amount of back pension and also for eight dollars per month had been allowed. Mrs. Sutliff has fought the case with the department for several years and it is highly gratifying to her to have her claims granted.

Lost Valuable Dogs.

Crookston Journal: Chas. Tedford, the well known Cass Lake business man and townsie promoter who spent last evening in the city with friends, is bemoaning the loss of two valuable bird dogs which wandered away from him while he was hunting near Thief River Falls. Mr. Tedford has spent several days at Thief River looking for the canines which were exceptionally good hunters but has found no trace whatever of them and has given them up for good.

Left This Morning.

Chas. Bungo, the clever third baseman who has been with the Bemidji team during the season now closed, left this morning for Ponsford, Minn., where he will visit for a short time before leaving for Flandreau. Mr. Bungo is one of the fastest ball players ever seen in this part of the country and will without a doubt make good in some of the leagues next season.

Red Lake Politics.

Things politically over in Red Lake county are extremely exciting this year and that the contests for nomination are in many cases bringing out a great deal of bitterness. There are a half dozen candidates approximately for every one of the positions in the court house and the candidates are all working tooth and nail for their own candidacy.

MORE OF LOGGING

Big Camps Will Be Closer to Bemidji This Year Than Ever Before.

CLEARWATER CAMPS WITHIN TEN MILES.

Season's Cut Will Be a Heavy One—Bemidji Headquarters For All.

Bemidji will this winter be more of a central point for the logging operations than ever before. A notable accession which Bemidji obtains is the camps of the Clearwater Logging company. The company will put in five camps, the work being even now under way, and some of these will be within ten miles of the city while none of them will be much farther away. All totaling for the season's work will probably be done from this city.

There will be extensive logging operations on the reservations this winter. Several camps will be put in east of Cass Lake, and while they will be nearer Cass Lake than to Bemidji, this city will nevertheless be the headquarters from which the men will largely be hired and from which the operations will be conducted.

There is at present a great scarcity of men but large number will be coming to Bemidji to secure work in the camps within a short time. Work in the harvest fields is not as profitable this year as some seasons and it is thought that the men will begin to drift back earlier than usual. The present outlook does not show that wages will be much higher than last season.

School supplies at Peterson's.

Trouble Over Closing.

A committee of the Retail Clerk's association called on the merchants of the city this morning and received assurances from nearly all of them that they would enter an agreement to close at eight o'clock. Some trouble was experienced among the grocers, however, and it is likely that considerable time may elapse before they can be induced to enter into the agreement. The early closing agreement between the clerks and merchants expired yesterday and last night nearly all the stores of the city were open until nine o'clock. A meeting of the clerks will be held some time next week and they will probably take some definite action regarding the matter.

Returned From Brookston.

S. McCamus returned this afternoon from Brookston, where he has spent the past two or three days in looking over his townsite interests. Mr. McCamus reports that the streets of the new town are being cleared and that a number of lots have already been sold. He is owner of about half the townsite.

WILL LECTURE

Dr. Egan Consents to Lecture For The Benefit of The Public Library.

Dr. Maurice Francis Egan, Professor of English and Comparative Literature in the Catholic University of Washington, will deliver a lecture on the "Place of the Novel in Literature" on Monday night, September 19. This lecture has been delivered with great success in New York, Philadelphia, Washington and Chicago. Dr. Egan's analysis of the various schools of modern novelists has received great attention from critics both in this country and in Europe.

Dr. Egan handles the French realists without gloves and pays some attention, not altogether complimentary, to Marie Corelli and the novel that is boomed to two hundred thousand circulation by purely commercial methods. He has kindly consented to give this lecture for the benefit of the Public Library Association and the Committee of ways and means are to be congratulated on their success in having secured such an important lecturer for this place.

WILL PAY

Wheat Crop Will Return Farmer More Money This Year Than Last Year.

W. B. Sheffield, superintendent of the St. Anthony & Dakota Elevator company for this district declares that this year's crop will pay the farmer better than that of last year and he gives out the following interview to the Crookston Times: "I am agreeably surprised at the present wheat crop. It is yielding better and grading better than I expected. I believe the crop of the valley will average nearly 12 bushels to the acre. It will run from ten to twelve, which is not so much below normal. It is nearly all graded wheat. Very little of it will be rejected. It will return more money to the farmer than last year's crop. Taken together with the good yield of other crops and big prices, the valley will be much better off than last year."

CANVASSING

Names of Those Who Will Canvass Votes at Primary Election Given Out.

The canvassing board of Beltrami county at the primary election which was appointed by Judges Spooner and McClenahan at Brainerd Wednesday has been given out. The following compose the board: F. O. Sibley, F. W. Rhoda, J. L. Reynolds, P. J. O'Leary and L. G. Pendergast. The duties of the board will be to count all the votes after the election has taken place and in event of a close run will be a very important factor in the coming election.
