

SEASON WILL SOON OPEN

Time for Killing Big Game Near at Hand and Hunters are Preparing.

MANY SOUTHERN MINNESOTA HUNTERS ARRIVING.

Season Opens November 10 And Remains Open Until November 30.

The big game season opens next Thursday, November 10, and already active preparations are under way by the hundreds of hunters who will seek the moose and deer in northern Minnesota during the twenty days of the open season. At the county auditor's office this afternoon sixty-nine licenses had been issued, the major portion of them being to local sportsmen, but parties from southern Minnesota, Iowa and North Dakota are arriving daily.

A large number of the hunters will spend the season in the vicinity of Kelliher and Northome, while others will hunt even farther north.

Reports from the Big Fork country and throughout northern Beltrami county indicate that big game is very plentiful this year and all that is necessary to secure either deer or moose is to know where to go for them.

The season for deer is open from November 10 to 30, while moose may be killed from November 20 to 25. The state law provides that only three deer and one moose may be killed by one person in one season.

CALLED POLICE

Seven Year Old Daughter of J. Peterson, Jr., Lands Drunken Woodsmen in Jail.

Grace, the seven year old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. Peterson, Jr., who lives on Lake Boulevard, yesterday afternoon was the cause of a drunken woodsman's appearance this morning in police court and subsequently his incarceration in the county jail. The little girl was returning from school and upon coming home found a woodsman much the worse for liquor acting in a riotous manner near the front gate of the fence. She was frightened for a moment, but speedily gathered her wits together and ran around to the back door. She found the door locked, as Mrs. Peterson had gone shopping, but she found the key in the place it is usually kept when the house is vacated, and quickly opened the door and telephoned to the police. Officer Kline and Chief Bailey appeared upon the scene and speedily subdued the drunken woodsman.

A party of gentlemen from Renville, composed of J. F. Smith, W. Symes, J. W. Powers, Dr. E. M. Clay, H. N. Stabeck and W. L. Pennell passed through the city last night enroute to Northome, near which town they will spend the big game hunting season. The party is captained by Mr. Smith, who is a veteran deer hunter, and there is little doubt that they will secure much game. They will look the woods over in the vicinity of Northome for a few days before the season opens, build camps and generally prepare for a 20 day's hunt. The gentlemen who compose the party are representative business men of Renville, and Mr. Smith is father of Mrs. R. E. Miller of this city.

An extra car was attached to the regular M. & I. passenger last night and confined in the car were fifty woodsmen who were hired by Minneapolis employment offices for the Crookston Lumber company and will be employed at the camps near that place. The car doors were locked and it was impossible for any of the men to escape before reaching their destination. The scarcity of men in northern Minnesota at the present season necessitated the hiring of men from the Twin Cities and until men become more plentiful the practice will be kept up until all the camps are supplied.

BEMIDJI IS BOOMING

Property Owners of City Unusually Active in Building at Present Time.

DEMAND FOR DWELLING HOUSES IS GOOD.

Many Dwellings Are Being Erected and Rentors Realize Good Profits.

Property owners of the city are just beginning to add to their holdings in the city by the erection of a large number of houses for rental purposes. The early portion of the season was not characterized by a phenomenally large amount of building, although the number of new homes and residences erected was very satisfactory from all points of view, but now at the very tail end of the season, when winter is about to cover the earth with her snowy mantle an unusual activity in building matters is apparent in all portions of the city and many are the handsome homes which will be completed during the winter months. The reason for the rush of work now is obvious in that at the present time money matters are loosing up, the result of the coming election will, it is almost unanimously believed, place the country upon a plane of prosperity which has not been in evidence for many years, and as a result interest in city property investments increases.

A prominent property owner stated yesterday that the demand for rented houses in all portions of the city was very good and that lot owners who were erecting dwellings were making no mistake, despite the lateness of the season. Structural work will not go forward as rapidly upon the exterior of new homes as in the summer months, but the interior can be done up in better shape. Workmen are not so busy in the winter season and skilled labor is easier to obtain at reasonable wages. Ground for several new houses was broken in the city yesterday and the builders confidently believe they will have plenty of time to get the exterior work about completed before winter sets in for good.

From South Africa.—New Way of Using Chamberlain's Cough Remedy.

Mr. Arthur Chapman writing from Durban, Natal, South Africa, says: "As a proof that Chamberlain's Cough Remedy is a cure suitable for old and young, I pen you the following: A neighbor of mine had a child just over two months old. It had a very bad cough and the parents did not know what to give it. I suggested that if they would get a bottle of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy and put some upon the dummy teat the baby was sucking it would no doubt cure the child. This they did and brought about a quick relief and cured the baby." This remedy is for sale by Barker's Drug store.

Will Do Much Logging.

Mel Barnard, the senior member of the logging firm of Barnard & Gorder, was in the city today. The firm will do a large amount of logging near Mallard the coming winter and already a number of camps which will be used have been built. Others are in course of construction. Mr. Barnard says that men are scarce but thinks that before operations start in earnest there will be plenty to supply the demand.

Looking for Men.

John Parker, manager of the Clearwater Lumber company, is in the city today and left an order at one of the local employment offices for men for the woods. The five camps which the company will use this winter are under construction and work on making roads has commenced. The camps are located near Wilton and all the toting will be done from that town and Bemidji.

Out of Hospital.

John McCuaig, who was injured in an accident at the Crookston Lumber company's mill about two months ago, was released from St. Anthony's hospital yesterday. Mr. McCuaig feels very grateful to the sisters of the institution who cared for him and says that they made the time he spent there very pleasant.

Joseph Hayton, who has been employed in the offices of the Crookston Lumber company for the past summer, has resigned his position and will go to New Mexico to take charge of a logging business. During his absence his family will reside with relatives at Red Lake Falls.

Clothes to Fit the Man, Rather than the Man to Fit the Clothes

Many custom tailors (perhaps yours) seem to put the blame for misfits on your kinks rather than on their clumsiness. Our STEIN-BLOCH Smart Clothes are "custom-tailored to fit any size." That, and the fact they are considerably better than most of the custom-tailored clothes one sees on men these days, are the chief points of difference between them and ordinary clothes. You had better try on a suit or an overcoat before you consult your tailor this Fall. It will mean money in your pocket and satisfaction in your mind. Ask to see this label:
