WOULD BOND FOR $10,000

Decided at Council Meeting Last Night to Hold Election to Bond City.

PROPOSITION WILL BE VOTED UPON DEC. 20.

Money Raised Will Be Used for Taking Up the Outstanding Indebtedness.

It was decided at the council meeting held last night to hold an election Dec. 20 for voting upon the proposition of issuing bonds of the village of Bemidji in the sum of $10,000 for the purpose of taking up the outstanding indebtedness.

The amount of orders with the interest they have drawn amount in all to this amount, and the council members are unitedly of the opinion that it is cheaper to issue bonds and pay a small per cent of interest instead of paying the regular rate which orders issued by the city are now drawing.

The matter of buying additional hose for the city fire department was not acted upon last night as had been expected owing to the absence of one member of the council, who was confined to

SPOONER IS IN DEMAND

Bemidji Judge Asked by Governor to Try Murder Case in LeSueur County.

Judge M. A. Spooner of this city received a telegram last night from Governor Van Sant requesting him to try a murder case which will come up for trial in LeSueur county Dec. 13, but owing to the term now being held at Grand Rapids by Mr. Spooner it was necessary to decline the invitation of the governor. Since his appointment to the bench Judge Spooner has gained a reputation second to none of the judges of Minnesota and he has gained recognition in the supreme court of the state as one of the most fair minded and well versed judges that ever sat in a Minnesota court room.

CASS LAKERS WANT REPEAL

Vigorous Measures Being Taken for Repeal of Forest Reserve Law.

RESOLUTIONS PASSED AT MASS MEETING LAST NIGHT.

Ask That 221,000 Acres Now Part of Forest Reserve Be Opened for Settlement.

At a mass meeting of the people of Cass Lake last night, at which George Stein was chairman and George Beckett was secretary, a resolution was unanimously adopted protesting against the forest reserve law which is now in force and which affects 221,000 acres of available timber and farming lands in northern Minnesota in the immediate vicinity of Cass Lake.

A. G. Bernard was appointed chairman of a committee which will take the matter up with interested Minneapolis men and the authorities at Washington, and they will make an effort to interest other cities in northern Minnesota in the matter, and expect that with co-operation enough influence can be brought to bear so that the repeal of the law will be accomplished.

A vigorous protest was instituted by the people of Cass Lake against the forest reserve bill at the time it was proposed but in spite of the opposition it passed both houses of congress and became a law. Since the measure has been in effect silent forces have been at work to bring about a condition of affairs under which a protest against the law would be successful in bringing about its repeal, hence the meeting last night.

BOYD PLANS BIG COMPANY

Manufacturer of Artificial Stone Would Engage in Business on Big Scale.

It is likely that within a short time another large industry will be located in Bemidji, providing the plans of Wm. Boyd, the senior member of the firm of Boyd & Erickson, materialize. Mr. Boyd is at present engaged in the manufacture of artificial stone in this city and has been very successful in the business. The firm has had ready sales for the entire output of the plant and Mr. Boyd feels confident that a much larger amount of the material could be disposed of. His plan is to organize a large stock company with a paid in capital of from $10,000 to $20,000, and he expects to begin selling stock as soon as the necessary arrangements are completed. He will confer with Bemidji business men regarding the project and providing sufficient interest can be aroused here the company will be controlled entirely by Bemidji capital.

Land Examiner Here.

W. J. Hillagoss, the veteran land examiner for the Great Northern, is spending a day or two in Bemidji looking over the company's lands in this vicinity. He will leave for a trip up the Mississippi river tomorrow to inspect company lands. Mr. Hillagoss is an enthusiastic hunter and he piloted a large party during the season to a point north of Grand Rapids where every man got all that the law allowed. Mr. Hillagoss has been land examiner for the Great Northern for years and has never lost a day unless it is in the hunting season when he combines business with pleasure.

The Biggest Ever.

The largest collections in the history of the state game and fish commission for big game licenses for any two months were turned into the state treasury yesterday, when S. F. Fullerton, executive agent of the state game and fish commission, gave a draft for $4,765 to the state auditor. The amount represented the license fees for non-resident big game licenses, whitefish licenses and fish house licenses, for October and November.
