SILENT ON PEACE QUESTION. St. Petersburg Newspapers Apparently

Warned. St. Petersburg, April 1.-The day's newspapers are so significantly silent about the peace reports from abroad that it leads to the inference that they have been warned by the gov ernment of the inadvisability of air ing their views at this time. Those papers which have been favoring peace say nothing, while the small section of the press which has been insisting on a continuation of the war contents itself with the reproduction of articles from foreign newspapers showing that peace now means the abandonment forever of Russia's position on the Pacific.

TERRORIST ACTIVITY. Russian Police Fear Another Tragedy Any Moment.

PRAIRIE FIRES RAGING

FLAMES REPORTED SWEEPING ACROSS THE ROSEBUD IN-DIAN RESERVATION.

COUNTRY EXTREMELY DRY JUST NOW

BERIOUS RESULTS FEARED UN-LESS CONFLAGRATION IS PROMPTLY CHECKED.

Omaha, April 1.-Reports re ceived from Bonesteel, S. D., and tion tell of serious prairie fires that are sweeping across the reservation.

The country is extremely dry and serious results are feared unless the flames are checked. A dispatch from Norfolk, Neb.

says: Many homes and thousands of dollars' worth of hay were destroyed by the prairie fire. Peter Yerly, caught in the flames, rushed into a pond to extinguish his burning clothing after his hair had been burned off.

In a home containing eight children one was fatally burned and the entire family narrowly escaped death. The cause of the fire is unknown, but many lives were endangered

THREE MEN INSTANTLY KILLED. Northern Pacific Freight Crashes Into Stock Train.

Medora, N. D., April 1.-While Northern Pacific stock train was standing on the bridge over the Little Missouri river here the rear end was Gang of Safeblowers Wreck Store at Tongtogany, O.

Cincinnati, April 1.-Four bur glars blew up the safe in the general store of S. G. Whitmore at Tongto gany and after terrorizing the inhabitants of the village escaped into the country. They were intercepted at Grand Rapids, as they attempted to cross the Maumee river in Louis county, and a battle between the marshal of Grand Rapids and posse and the burglars ensued, shots being fired by both sides. No one was hurt. Sheriff Reno of this city with a posse is believed to have the burglars surrounded in Fishers woods, near Grand Rapids, and is slowly closing in on them. It is not known how much money they got. The store was wrecked and the goods damaged.
