

Weak Women Made Strong, Sick Women Made Well.

IN the above eight words is summed up the great work for women which is accomplished by Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription.

The record of cures effected by this remedy is without a parallel. Thousands of testimonials received from patients and from physicians who have tested it in the more aggravated and obstinate cases which had baffled their skill, prove it to be the most wonderful remedy ever devised for the relief and cure of suffering women.

It is composed wholly of medicinal principles extracted from the roots of native, American forest plants, pure triple-refined glycerine of proper strength, being used instead of harmful alcohol both in extracting and preserving these medicinal principles.

IT IS A POWERFUL INVIGORATING TONIC, imparting health and strength in particular to the organs distinctly feminine. For weak and sickly women, who are "worn-out," "run-down," or debilitated, especially for women who work in store, office, or school-room, who sit at the typewriter or sewing machine, or bear heavy household burdens, Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription will prove a priceless benefit because of its health-restoring and strength-giving power.

AS A SOOTHING AND STRENGTHENING NERVEINE,

"Favorite Prescription" is unequalled and is invaluable in allaying and subduing nervous excitability, irritability, nervous exhaustion, nervous prostration, neuralgia, hysteria, spasms, chorea, or St. Vitus's dance, and other distressing nervous symptoms commonly attendant upon functional and organic disease of the organs distinctly feminine. It induces refreshing sleep and relieves mental anxiety and despondency.

CURES OBSTINATE CASES.

"Favorite Prescription" is a positive cure for the most complicated and obstinate cases of leucorrhoea, excessive flowing, painful periods, unnatural suppressions and irregularities, prolapsus or falling of the pelvic organs, weak back, "female weakness," anteversion, retroversion, bearing-down sensations, chronic congestion, inflammation and ulceration of the uterus, inflammation, pain and tenderness over the ovaries and kindred ailments.

FREE CONSULTATION.

An invitation is extended by Dr. Pierce to every sick and ailing woman to consult him by letter. There is absolutely no charge or fee for this consultation. Every letter is carefully considered, fully answered, and its statements held as strictly private and sacredly confidential. Address Dr. R. V. Pierce, Buffalo, N. Y.

THE BADGE OF HONESTY.

Each bottle of the above medicine bears upon its wrapper a badge of honesty in the full list of ingredients composing it—printed in plain English. This frank and open publicity places this medicine in a class all by itself. It cannot be classed as a patent nor secret medicine for it is neither—being of known composition.

DR. PIERCE'S PLEASANT PELLETS

cure biliousness, sick and bilious headache, dizziness, costiveness, or constipation of the bowels, loss of appetite, coated tongue, sour stomach, windy belchings, "heart-burn," pain and distress after eating, and kindred derangements of the liver, stomach and bowels.

One little "Pellet" is a laxative, two are cathartic. They regulate, invigorate and cleanse the liver, stomach and bowels. As a "dinner pill," to promote digestion, take one each day. To relieve the distress arising from over-eating, nothing equals one of these little "Pellets." They're tiny, sugar-coated, antibilious granules, scarcely larger than mustard seeds.

HEALTH AND HAPPINESS.

How to live in health and happiness, is the general theme of Dr. Pierce's Common Sense Medical Adviser. This great work on medicine and hygiene, containing over 1000 pages and more than 700 illustrations, is sent free on receipt of stamps to pay expense of mailing only. Send 31 one-cent stamps for the cloth-bound volume, or only 21 stamps for the book in paper covers. Address Dr. R. V. Pierce, Buffalo, N. Y.

Bede Opens Up.

The following are a few of the hot shots J. Adam Bede let fly in the recent debate on the statehood bill:

"Mr. Payne refers with pride to New York, also to its senators; most of the people are trying to forget the senators just now."

"When you want to whip us of the west into line, you refer to Mr. Roosevelt as 'The Great President,' but when he favors a measure which the east does not want you call him 'The Broncho Statesman.'"

"As for New England, the Pilgrims would not have landed there at all only they were seasick."

J. Adam must have forgotten the text line of the sermon he always preached through the columns of his paper, "Love One Another."

Alfaro's Fifth.

The news that General Eloy Alfaro is at the head of the Ecuador revolution explains a good deal. General Alfaro is one of the few remaining representatives of a type of South Americans who were so common fifteen or twenty years ago that they came to be known as professional revolutionists. In his younger days he was the friend and associate of most of the famous revolutionists of other South American countries and this is at least his fifth revolution in Ecuador. The number may be somewhat greater, for historians are not very painstaking in keeping count of South American revolutions.

The most famous of Alfaro's revolutions occurred in 1895. At the time he had been living for some fifteen or sixteen years in Panama, whither he had been exiled after an unsuccessful insurrection. He kept up his association with the leading revolutionists of South America, while nominally living the life of a simple business man. He was, however, gathering funds and perfecting an organization. When the time came to strike he went to New York and bought a good supply of arms and ammunition, as all wise revolutionists do. His equipment proved to be so much better than that of the Government that he gained an easy victory. He had hardly made himself President when a counter-revolution was raised against him, but he put it down with great energy. After that he served his four years peacefully and was re-elected, so he did not go out of office till 1901. Then he turned the government over to General Plaza, who also served out his term in peace and last August turned the government over to President Garcia, accepting appointment as minister to the United States for himself.

Garcia, it appears, did not suit Alfaro, who perhaps had begun to pine for another revolution. At any rate, it was Alfaro who organized the present revolt and who has triumphed almost before people realized what he was about.

Alfaro is a Liberal and stands particularly as an opponent of church influence in politics. He was opposed bitterly by the church leaders in his insurrection of 1895, some priests and bishops even taking the field against him. After his triumph, there was a great exodus of members of religious orders and other clericals to Colombia and Peru.

Warning to Nelson.

The Preston Times sends out the following warning to the friends of Senator Knute Nelson in the state: "The Times has consistently and persistently opposed the entering of nationality into politics, but we have on several occasions been forcibly reminded that nationality does cut a big swath and it is not likely to be eliminated in the near future. Iverson, Jacobson, Nelson—three Norwegians for three of the best offices in the state. With the two former elected we can already hear the hue and cry against the hoggish propensities of the men from the North with the hope of defeating the reelection of Senator Nelson."

Russia Promises Sunlight.

One of the rays of sunlight in Russia is the summary retirement of nineteen generals because they are hostile to the proposed reforms. They are upholders of the old bureaucracy and the bad ways of the bureaucracy. And as it cannot be perceived that they have been useful in the council of war, they can well be spared.

Perhaps their going will put the army in closer sympathy with the reforms. But this is not the chief benefit of their removal. This wholesale head-rolling is a notice that the Government does intend to clean out its bureaus and try sincerely to establish the reforms. The retirement of nineteen useless generals does not do away with all the obstructions, but it indicates that the Government means to level or get around obstacles and establish better things in Russia.

Porto Ricans Complain.

There are eleven members of the executive council of Porto Rico. Five members are Porto Ricans, the other six are from this country. The five complain that the six Americans do not consult with them, nor even invite them to meetings of the council. It is no wonder that the native members feel aggrieved. If what they say is true, they can complain of bad manners on the part of their fellow members, as well as more serious things. The majority owed courtesy to the minority, even if it did not care for its advice.

If Porto Rico had been brought unwillingly under the American flag, the treatment of the islanders could be more easily justified. As a matter of fact the Porto Ricans welcomed the United States troops in 1898. But General Miles' proclamation of the good things to be enjoyed under American rule gave no hints of the slights which the islanders have since received. It is not surprising that the Porto Ricans favor the reorganization of the island government.

HOPEFUL OF RECOVERY.

General Wheeler's Condition Shows No Change for Worse.

New York, Jan. 24.—General Joseph Wheeler, who is ill with pneumonia at the home of his sister in Brooklyn, is holding his own, according to a statement made by Sterling Smith, General Wheeler's brother-in-law, on the authority of Dr. A. J. McCorkle. General Wheeler was a little weaker, but his relatives were made hopeful by the assurance of the doctor that the passing of each day improved the general's chance of recovery. All of General Wheeler's daughters are now with him.

RAFT CONTAINING TWENTY REFUGES PICKED UP BY A RELIEF VESSEL.

Victoria, B. C., Jan. 26.—Though there is faint hope that incoming vessels may bring a few survivors of the steamer Valencia, which went ashore late Monday night and which broke up on the rocks Wednesday, there are only thirty-five survivors of the 154 persons who were on board the Valencia when she struck near Klawna rocks, five miles from Cape Beale. The known saved are twenty persons who were picked up from a life raft by the steamer City of Topeka and the fifteen survivors who put off from the wreck in two boats and succeeded in reaching Vancouver Island.
