

OUR XMAS FRUIT CAKE

contains twenty-two different ingredients of

PURE SELECTED MATERIALS.

put together by skilled workmen. We will decorate them to your taste FREE of charge.

See our window display.

THE MODEL

315 Minnesota Ave. Phone 125

THE CITY.

Read the Daily Pioneer.

Toys at cost at Peterson's.

H. C. Calvert went to Tenstrike last evening, on business.

Dolls and Xmas books at the Palace of Sweets.

Two days before Xmas. For jewelry see Geo. T. Baker & Co.

Bemidji Elevator Co., jobbers for Glod Medal flour.

Dr. Rea, the Minneapolis specialist, arrived in the city last evening and was quartered at the Markham today.

If you want fresh eggs and creamery butter, call up at Roe & Markusen's. Phone 27.

Fragrant noods the flower, beside the garden path; white are daisies, laughing in morning's dewy bath. But purer than the daisies, more sweet than heliotrope, are the M. & M. cigar, Stevens makes to smoke.

Attention, Samaritans.

All Samaritans are requested to be present at the meeting to be held Thursday evening. Election of officers, and other important business.

HARRY REYNOLDS.

Low Rates to the Southeast.

Commencing December 18 and on the first and third Tuesdays of each month thereafter until March, 1907, the Chicago Great Western Railway will sell one-way colonist tickets at nearly half fare to points in Arkansas, Louisiana, and Mississippi. For further information apply to H. L. Wyand, T. P. A., 364 Robert street, St. Paul, Minn.

Christmas and New Years Holiday Rates.

The Great Northern Railway company will sell tickets for the above occasions from December 22 to January 1, inclusive, return limit January 7, 1907. Continuous passage each direction. Rate one fare plus two dollars except when fare and third makes less. Minimum fare 50c, to all points in Minnesota North and South Dakota.

KEEP YOUR TIES!

Martin Bros., of Duluth, Minn., will buy ties along the lines of the M. & I. and G. N. Railway. A. C. McLean, of Bemidji, will call on you. If you have ties for sale write to him at Bemidji.

MARTIN BROTHERS.

Read the Daily Pioneer.

The Model for candy and cake. Reed's studio for colored work. N. Nelson came over from Bagley this morning.

Dolls and toys at cost at Peterson's.

J. C. Covington is confined to his home with a severe attack of lagrippe.

A nice assortment of fountain pens at the Pioneer office.

Del Burgess, the "Del Marca" cigar man, was a visitor at Cass Lake yesterday.

Hand engraving done while you wait at Geo. T. Baker & Co.

Beautiful Christmas shipping tags can be had at the Pioneer office.

Attorney P. J. Russell was at Cass Lake yesterday, where he had some legal business at the U. S. land office.

Toy books and gift books, largest supply ever, at Peterson's.

James A. Murray returned to his home at Blackduck last evening.

Fresh eggs and creamery butter at Roe & Markusen's, phone 207.

If you intend using a new day book or ledger, remember the Pioneer has the best assortment of all kinds of blank books and an early order will insure you just the book you want.

T. L. McMurray, the traveling representative for the St. Paul Dispatch, left last evening for Blackduck, where he will circulate among patrons of the Dispatch.

If I were Santa Claus I would know exactly what to give every boy and girl. I would give them Hollister's Rocky Mountain Tea. It's the greatest medicine in the world; a never-ceasing wonder. 35 cents. Barker's drug store.

Horses for Sale.

I have for sale four heavy logging horses, and two light work teams.

J. P. POGUE.

Low Rates to the West and Southwest.

On the first and third Tuesdays of each month until March, 1907, inclusive, the Chicago Great Western railway will sell one-way Colonist tickets at nearly half fare to points in Arkansas, Colorado, Indian Territory, Kansas, Louisiana, Mexico, Missouri, Nebraska, New Mexico, Oklahoma, South Dakota, Texas and Wyoming. For further information apply to H. L. Wyand, T. P. A., 364 Robert street, St. Paul, Minn.

Holiday Rates.

For Christmas and New Years holidays the Minnesota & International and Northern Pacific Railways will sell tickets between all stations on their lines in the states of Wisconsin, Minnesota and North Dakota at the following rates: One regular first class fare plus $2.00, except where rate of fare and one third makes less. No ticket to be sold for less than 50 cents. Dates of sale December 22, 1906 to January 1, 1907, inclusive. Final return limit January 7, 1907.

Half of above rates for children of half fare age. G. A. Walker, agent.

For Sale

Seasoned Cord wood in half or full carload lots Inquire at the Red Lake Depot

Fresh Canned Goods

WE have just received a large shipment of Fresh Canned Goods.

The Easter Brand

We have choice Peaches, Pears, Muscat Grapes, Apricots, and Egg Plums put up from this year's crop.

Our Echo Brand

Of canned Tomatoes, Peas, Corn, Pumpkin, Lima Beans, Red Kidney Beans, String Beans and Refugee Beans are the best in the market. Call at the store or phone 207.

ROE & MARKUSEN

HOT DRINKS!

We have installed at our place of business, "soda fountain hot drinks."

THIS IS OUR MENU:

Hot Chocolate with Macarons 15c
Hot Ciam Bouillon 10c
Hot Chicken Bouillon 10c
Hot Tomato Bouillon 10c
Hot Conc. Ext. of Coffee 10c

Lakeside Bakery.

Read the Daily Pioneer.

Two days before Xmas. For jewelry see Geo. T. Baker & Co.

Handsome boxes of Christmas candies at the Palace of Sweets.

Fred Hawkins, of the logging firm of Blake & Hawkins, spent last night in the city.

Souvenir Christmas post cards at Peterson's.

Small calendar pads can be had at the Pioneer office.

"Dick" Porter is down today from Blakeley's logging camps at Farley, where he is employed this winter.

See Bijou ad elsewhere in this issue for change of program, etc.

Lowney's chocolate bon bons are the best. Only at Peterson's.

E. D. Beeson went to Laporte this morning to look after some poles and ties which he is getting out there for his company.

For Christmas get one of those late copyright books at the Palace of Sweets.

M. E. Smith: "Nothing new today. Am taking stock and that is all that is doing for me."

If you want fresh eggs and creamery butter, call up at Roe & Markusen's. Phone 207.

J. H. Dodge of Mankato was among the transient visitors who arrived in the city last evening from the south.

1907 diaries make good presents. A good assortment can be had at the Pioneer office.

Some dandy glove and necktie boxes filled with choice chocolates for Xmas boxes at The Model.

Arthur Brannon, who is now village recorder of the village of Northome, left last evening for that place, after having visited in the city.

Wanted: Sewing by the day. Hattie Henderson, at T. A. Tronson's, 521 Second street. Phone 313.

The H. O. B. O. club was pleasantly entertained last evening at the home of Mr. and Mrs. L. Crothers.

Want to buy a typewriter? Latest make Remington, light use for six months, good as new, for sale. Inquire at Pioneer office.

You are not experimenting when you try Hunt's Perfect Baking Powder. Its quality is proven—more in use today than ever.

S. D. Works, the Mankato land man who has many interests in this part of the state, came in yesterday from Mankato and will remain here for a week or ten days.

J. Bislar left yesterday evening for Kelliher in the interest of Bislar, Vanderlip & company, who are doing a nice business along the north line of the M. & I. railway.

The best is the cheapest. If you believe this, buy your holiday supplies of fruit, confectionery and other delicacies at Peterson's.

Attorney Henry Funkley went to Funkley last evening to look after some legal matters and incidentally to see how the town bearing his name is being conducted.

Cosmetics will ruin the complexion. There's no beauty practice equal to the effects of Hollister's Rocky Mountain Tea. It keeps the entire body in perfect health. Tea or Tablets, 35 cents. Barker's drug store.

Eugene Berman, son of Mrs. L. L. Berman, arrived in the city yesterday afternoon from St. Paul and will visit with relatives in Bemidji until after the holidays. Eugene is now traveling representative for the Clement-Dranger company of St. Paul, a wholesale lace and embroidery firm.

Phone 57—Fleming Bros. hardware.

Hand engraving done while you wait at Geo. T. Baker & Co.

Xmas candies at the Palace of Sweets.

Mr. and Mrs. William Helin and their two children departed this morning for Minneapolis, where they will visit with relatives for two weeks.

Fresh butter and eggs at Peterson's.

Second hand coal stoves cheap at Fleming Bros.

Geo. T. Baker & Co. have secured the services of C. D. Travis of Minneapolis, a jeweler of wide experience, to assist them through the holiday rush.

Shelled and mixed nuts at the Palace of Sweets.

A nice assortment of pipes at the Palace of Sweets.

C. W. Speelman, the Northome merchant, came down from his home this morning and spent the day in the city looking after some business affairs.

See Fleming Bros. for Christmas goods. Phone 57.

Half a pound of candy in a nice Xmas package for 5 cents, at The Model.

Henry Miller, who has a valuable homestead near Kelliher, was in the city this forenoon. He left this noon for Cass Lake, where he made final proof on his claim this afternoon.

Fresh eggs and creamery butter at Roe & Markusen's, phone 207.

W. T. Blakeley, the Farley logger, returned this morning from a business trip to Crookston and Grand Forks, and went to Farley on the M. & I. freight this forenoon.

Fleming Bros. have on display a large and well assorted stock of Christmas goods.

Phillip Guerin, who has been bartender at Miles' "Golden Club" for several months, left today in the city looking after some business matters for the railway company.

Mrs. Reynolds' burned work can be seen at McCaig's store. Lots of small things for the holidays.

Mrs. Rowland Gilmore and little daughter left yesterday afternoon for Fosston, where they will visit with relatives until after Christmas.

Our pretty little work baskets filled with choice fresh chocolates make very pleasing gifts for your lady friends. The Model.

Anton Erickson left yesterday afternoon for Crookston, and may possibly extend his trip to the twin cities before returning to Bemidji.

E. R. Dampier of Akeley, the county attorney of Hubbard county, came up from his home last evening and spent last night in the city. He returned to Akeley this morning.

She worried and she fretted, and grew as homely as she could be, but now she is a famous beauty, which came by taking Hollister's Rocky Mountain Tea Barker's drug store.

D. D. Horton, who has been in the city for some time past, and was at one time connected with the Bijou opera house, left today for his home in Crookston. He intends to go to Cloquet in a few days and open a vaudeville show there.

Andrew Johnson, N. P. Nelson, Peter Nelson and Albert Munro, all homesteaders near Foy post office, were in the city yesterday and went to Cass Lake, where they proved up on their claims at the U. S. land office. They returned from the "Lake" in the afternoon and went to their homes last evening.

FOLEY'S HONEY AND TAR

The original LAXATIVE cough remedy.

For coughs, colds, throat and lung troubles. No opiates. Non-alcoholic. Good for every body. Sold everywhere.

The genuine FOLEY'S HONEY AND TAR is in a yellow package. Refuse substitutes. Prepared only by Foleys & Company, Chicago. Barker's Drug Store.

Holiday Announcement OF THE OWL DRUG STORE

BEMIDJI, MINN.

The rush is now on. Follow the crowds and come early and often. Our stock of Xmas gifts and novelties is large yet we would advise early buying as the best things go first. It will be easy to find what you want here as we have the latest novelties all new and up to date in Japanese Goods and Curios. Purses. Card Cases, Baskets, Vases, Lacquered Trays, Boxes, Writing Desks, Hand Painted China, Etc. Genuine Stag and Ebony Toilet Manicure Sets from $1 to $10. Aestrian Court Jewel, Glove and Handkerchief Boxes. Something new and of rich design. Stationery in fancy boxes, Ladies' Hand Bags, Music Rolls, Albums. Smoking and Shaving Sets. Fancy Pipes in Cases, Perfume in Bulk and Fancy Xmas Packages. Try Yolande, the Queen of Perfumes, Fragrant and Lasting.

DRUGS

Our stock is complete, new and of the highest quality and purity. When you need anything in the Drug Line or have Prescriptions to be filled, come to us. We can please you.

F. A. MAYO, PROPRIETOR.

A large assortment of bracelets received today at Geo. T. Baker & Co.

W. H. Strachan, superintendent of the M. & I., came down from Big Falls this morning in his private car, "50," and spent today in the city looking after some business matters for the railway company.

Mrs. A. Gilmour returned last evening to Blackduck. Mr. and Mrs. Gilmour are now living at the "Duck" and will remain there all winter. Mr. Gilmour is pharmacist for A. O'Kellier in the latter's drugstore.

J. E. Wilkin, the general agent for the Fitzer Brewing company of Duluth, came over yesterday from his home at Cass Lake and left last evening for Tenstrike to look after some business matters there for his company.

E. J. Swedback returned last evening from a business trip to the twin cities. He was accompanied on the trip down by Mrs. Swedback and their daughter, Mrs. Stewart, who returned home one day in advance of Mr. Swedback.

George P. Watson, the Big Falls dominie and U. S. commissioner, was a passenger on the south-bound M. & I. train this morning, enroute to Duluth, to look after some matters before the U. S. land office in the "Zenith city." He reports Editor Greeley and the rest of the good folks at the "Falls" as getting along nicely.

Read the Daily Pioneer.

A large assortment of bracelets received today at Geo. T. Baker & Co.

A. H. Pitkin came down from Kelliher this morning and went on to the twin cities on business. He will go from there to Crookston and spend Christmas with his family before returning to Kelliher.

W. P. Welch is able to be about his accustomed labors again, after having been practically laid up for a week with an exceedingly sore eye. The orb is not yet well, by any means, but W. P. can get about.

John Morrison came in this morning from White Earth, where he has been visiting for several days with relatives and friends, and spent today in the city. He will return to his home at Red Lake tomorrow morning.

Bert Getchell, the cruiser, went to Houghton last evening to do some work in the woods near that place. He took an immense pair of snowshoes with him, and proposes to make his way through the woods, even if he is compelled to walk over the tops of the trees.

ORCHESTRA MUSIC

furnished for all occasions. Also Piano tuned. Satisfaction guaranteed. Box 233, Bemidji, Minn. T. SYMINGTON

BIJOU

Automatic Drama—Vaudeville—Popular Concerts

302 THIRD ST.

Every Evening 7:30 to 10:00. Saturday Afternoon 2:30 to 3:30.

TONIGHT.

EXTRA SPECIALS

THE CAMERAGRAPH
THEALPSEEN THROUGH A TELESCOPE
The Great Waterfalls
The Rustic Bridge
Climbing the Alps
On the Needle
On the Glacier
The Fall Into the Crevice
Rescued by Rope
The Man Without a Scruple

Illustrated Song
WHEN THE MOCKING BIRDS WERE SINGING IN THE WILLOW

THE CAMERAGRAPH
A QUIET DAY IN THE COUNTRY
The Trip
The Old Country Train
The Arrival
Work On the Farm
The Garden
Wood Cutting
The Chicken House
Return to the City

TRAVELS OF A BARREL

Down the Hill
Into the River
Over the Great Falls
Down the Stairs
Caught by Officers
Contents Taken Out

DON'T MISS IT! PROGRAMME CHANGES WITHOUT NOTICE. WATCH THIS AD DAILY.

TICKETS 5c-10c

J. J. ELLIS & SON MANAGERS

The Great Northern west-bound passenger train was on time yesterday, the first time for nearly a week. Delayed connections with trains at Duluth have been the cause of all the late arrivals.

Carl Radi, the Frohn agriculturist, left yesterday afternoon for McIntosh, where he will visit with old friends until after Christmas. Mrs. Radi has been at McIntosh for a week past, and will return with her husband.

FRIEND TO FRIEND

The personal recommendations of people who have been cured of coughs and colds by Chamberlain's Cough Remedy have done more than all else to make it a staple article of trade and commerce over a large part of the civilized world.

Boyer's Cash Grocery

I have just completed the arrangement of my new stock of groceries and the store is open to the public. I shall at all times endeavor to carry a complete line of staple and fancy groceries, cigars and confectionery. The stock is a new stock and the very best brands of canned goods, teas and coffees, and everything that is carried to make up a first class store will be found here. You are invited to call at the store.

I. S. BOYER.

320 Minnesota Avenue.