Was Wasting Away.

"I had been troubled with kidney disease for the last five years," writes Robert E. Watts, of Salem, Mo. "I lost flesh and never felt well and doctored with leading physicians and tried all remedies suggested without relief. Finally I tried Foley's Kidney Cure and less than two bottles completely cured me and I am now sound and well. During the summer kidney irregularities are often caused by excessive drinking or being overheated.
Attend to the kidneys at once by

L. W. Bills Here.

Attorney L. W. Bills of Park Rapids was a visitor in the city last night, having come up from his home on the evening train to transact some legal business.

Mr. Bills was recently appointed postmaster at Park Rapids and assumed the duties of his new office on May 1st. He was a member of the late legislature and did good work in the house for his district.

The New Pure Food and Drug Law.

We are pleased to announce that Foley's Honey and Tar for coughs, colds and lung troubles is not affected by the National Pure Food and Drug law as it contains no opiates or other harmful drugs, and we recommend it as a safe remedy for

IN SEARCH OF EDUCATION

Kuroki Says Japan Sends Many Children to United States.

Seattle, Wash., May 4.—"Japan sends her children, many of them, to the United States to learn. We hope and believe that the United States in the future will receive them and teach them in the same spirit in which they are sent," said General Baron Kuroki, who has arrived here, in discussing the Japanese school question. He made this statement with a smiling face, but spoke earnestly, and his interpreter repeated the statement in English with convincing force.

"We are glad to think that you are here in Seattle think the children we send over are good and hard working," added General Kuroki. "You are unlike some others. This attitude means that many Japanese children in the future will come to the United States by way of Seattle. When you praise them you praise us, for they are our children."

"I feel sure that they will be well treated by the United States. I do not think that the feeling against them is widespread. I think that feeling is dying out."

For Defense of Manchuria.

Peking, May 4.—Twenty new battalions of troops will be raised by conscription to form a special army corps for the defense of Manchuria. The emperor has ordered the viceroys, Hsu Shin Chang, and the governors of Manchuria to co-operate with Yuan Shi Kai, the commander-in-chief of the military and naval forces of China, in reorganizing the provincial administrations.

Missing Boy Murdered.

Cleveland, May 4.—The mystery surrounding the disappearance of three-year-old Alexander Hoenig, who it was believed had been kidnapped, was cleared up by the discovery of the badly decomposed body of the boy in a large barrel near the home of his parents. The body was concealed beneath a lot of rubbish. The police have decided the child was murdered.

Many Longshoremen Out.

New York, May 4.—Strikes of longshoremen along the water front of both New York and Brooklyn have become epidemic. It is estimated that nearly 3,000 men have gone out. All demand an increase of at least 5 cents an hour for day work and 15 cents more for overtime or night work.

Much shipping is held up pending a settlement of the difficulty.

SEARCH FOR REV. COOKE.

Eloping Pastor May Be Charged With Abduction.

New York, May 4.—Every effort will be made to locate Jere K. Cooke, late rector of St. George's Episcopal church at Hempstead, L. I., who eloped with Miss Floretta Whaley on Tuesday, although married, and who has been untraced at his own request by letter by Bishop Burgess of the diocese of Long Island. As Miss Whaley is under eighteen years of age a charge of abduction may be brought against the eloped clergyman. It is believed that the pair are hiding somewhere in the city until search for them is relaxed and they will then leave the country.

It is announced that the police and private detectives here and in other places are looking for them. The private detectives are employed by August Belmont, a warden of the church, which is one of the wealthiest on Long Island. A picture of the girl and two letters she wrote were turned over to Mr. Belmont and by him given to the detectives in the hope of tracing the couple.

The district attorney of Nassau county is quoted as saying that he will do his utmost to bring Cooke back to that county to have him punished.
He was asked by Mrs. Henry Wood of East Rockaway, an aunt of Miss Wha-ley, to give the matter of Cooke's apprehension his personal attention.
Mrs. Wood is well to do and she says that she will spare no expense to have Cooke arrested.

Extensive Terminal Planned.

Milwaukee, May 3.—The Grand Trunk railway system has acquired twenty-four and one-half acres of land in Milwaukee, between Lake Michigan and the Kinnickinnic river, on the south side of the city, which will be used as an extensive terminal. The property is skirted by the lines of the Chicago, Milwaukee and St. Paul and the Chicago and Northwestern railroads.

To Revise State Constitution.

Madison, Wis., May 3.—The assembly, by a vote of 60 to 32, adopted a resolution favoring a convention for revising the state constitution. The senate passed a bill requiring the vacation of school children in case there is an epidemic of smallpox. Governor Davidson appointed E. M. Tracy of Milwaukee state oil inspector to succeed F. F. Mills of Burlington.
