LOCAL HAPPENINGS

The Continued Story of Current Events.

For rent two furnished rooms single or connected, and bath. 320 Minn. avenue.

Wanted—Good girl for general house work. Inquire Mrs. M. D. Stoner 415 Bemidji avenue.

Henry Olson, a well known resident of Farley, returned home last evening after transacting business in this city during the day.

Ed. Tabor, the young hustler for Melges Brothers of this city, returned this morning from International Falls where he secured orders for his company.

Mrs. J. C. Koch, wife of Dr. Koch of Blackduck, went up to the "Duck" last evening on a brief trip to her home, returning to Bemidji on the 10:30 train.

The Missionary Society of the Baptist church will meet in the church Friday evening. There will be a program and a lunch will be served. All are cordially invited.

W. A. Currie, one of the traveling salesmen for the Northern Grocery company of this city, went to Kelliher last evening on a short business trip in the interests of his company.

Peter Larkin, president of the village council of Turtle River, accompanied by his wife and family, visited yesterday in Bemidji and returned to their home last evening after making several purchases from the local stores.

A. M. McIntosh of this city returned last evening from Hackensack where he has spent the last four weeks with his mother-in-law, who was very sick. Mr. McIntosh reports that his wife's mother is much improved in health.

Harry Koors of this city, a genial commercial traveler who makes his headquarters in Bemidji, left last evening for Blackduck and other north-country towns to take orders for the Thomas Thomson Fruit company of Duluth.

Fred Eberlein, the general manager of the Bemidji Brewery, departed last evening for Tenstrike to attend to some business there in the interest of his local establishment. He returned on the south-bound night passenger train.

Frank Bracelin of Crookston, the district manager for the Northwestern Telephone Exchange company, arrived in the city yesterday noon for a short visit in Bemidji while inspecting the local exchange and consulting Manager Harris.

A. G. Wedge, Jr., who superintends the north-country financial institutions in which F. P. Sheldon of Minneapolis is interested, left his vice presidential chair in the First National Bank in this city last evening and went to Kelliher to audit the accounts of the First National Bank in that village.

E. L. Oberg, editor of the Blackduck American, attended court in this city yesterday and returned to Blackduck on the evening train. Mr. Oberg is a witness in the damage suit against Dr. Koch, which is being tried before Judge Stanton in the district court. He will return to the city tonight and give his testimony tomorrow.

CHAS. L. CUMMER
JEWELER
Postoffice Corner BEMIDJI

Charles Allen of Warren arrived in the city yesterday noon for a few days' business visit in Bemidji.

Charles Hayden, a "cedar merchant" of Blackduck, transacted business in Bemidji yesterday and returned home last evening.

Mrs. and Mrs. A. A. Smith, who own a popular hotel at Kelliher, came down this morning as Mr. Smith was ill and needed medical attention.

J. E. Dade, a prominent resident of Blackduck, spent yesterday attending to some business matters in Bemidji and returning home on the evening train.

Mr. and Mrs. W. L. Mathews, who live at Riverside across Lake Bemidji from this city, came over this morning and visited during the day with friends in Bemidji.

R. J. Poupore, who logs for the Mississippi Lumber company, came in this morning from his camps to look after some business in Bemidji and visit at his old home south of this city.

A. Jones, who owns a "liquid emporium" at Nymore, went down to Laporte this morning to visit at his old home. He was accompanied by T. R. Symons, the local agent for the Minneapolis Brewing company.

Mrs. E. N. French and little son, Norman, and Mrs. J. C. Thompson visited yesterday with friends in this city as guests at the home of Mrs. George T. Baker. They returned to Blackduck last evening.

J. L. LaBarge and C. M. Foster, two well known residents of Blackduck, arrived in Bemidji, last evening and spent today attending to some local business matters and visiting at the court house to "see what was doing."

Mrs. Elmer Shaw, accompanied by her son and daughter, who live a few miles west of this city, returned last evening from an extended trip to Long Beach, California. They were gone between four and five weeks.

M. L. Griffiths of Crookston, general agent for the Germania Life Insurance company, has been in the city today, interviewing his old friends. "Griff" is a good fellow, and one of the very best life insurance solicitors in the state.

J. Evan Carson, who is now employed as foreman of the Akeley Tribune-Herald, came up from Akeley last evening and spent the night in the city. Evan is a member of Company K and he was here for the purpose of attending the regular drill of the soldier boys.

J. R. Kolar, an energetic and prominent resident of Moose Creek township, northeast of Kelliher, departed last evening for Kelliher on his way home after transacting business in Bemidji. Mr. Kolar is a hustler and is doing much to bring settlers into this part of the country.

Joseph Koelme (just plain "Joe" is better) of Crookston was a guest at the Hotel Markham yesterday and last evening, being here as the traveling representative of a wholesale concern. "Joe" was for many years the owner of a refreshment parlor in the "Queen City," and he has hosts of friends, over Crookston way.

Reverend F. E. Higgins, the Presbyterian missionary who is well known throughout this part of the country as the "Lumberjack Sky Pilot," spent yesterday in Bemidji and departed this morning for Brainerd on his way to Duluth, where he will speak next Sunday. Mr. Higgins will not be back in Bemidji until next June.

Charles T. Kelley (better known as "Dad" Kelley), the owner and publisher of the LaPorte News, found it incumbent upon himself to visit Bemidji last evening for a few hours, on a business mission. "Dad" was the guest of Otto Peterson, the local representative of the L. K. Deal Lumber company, concerning some certain poles. (And, by the way, we are at a loss to know what a newspaper man wants with poles, although we are told that "Dad" has been known to use an elm club, when, in the course of human events, it became necessary.) Mr. Kelley appreciates the new night trains which the M. & I. has put on and which are a matter of great convenience for residents living south of Bemidji, who can come to this city on the 6 o'clock train in the evening and return home the same night, leaving here for the south at 10:30.

For Sale.—At half cost; finest material for 18 foot launch partly built; 2nd hand store front; and some furniture. Call, Boyer, 320 Minn. ave.

Mrs. C. J. Winter of this city departed this morning for Minneapolis, on her way to Earlville, N. Y., where she will visit with a sister. Mrs. Winter expects to be gone several months.

Fred Simmons ("Ike"), manager of the Bijou and Lyceum theaters of Crookston, arrived in Bemidji this noon for a brief business consultation with Manager Brinkman, of the Brinkman Family Theater of this city.

George Newton, village recorder of the village of Funkley, came to the city this morning for the purpose of looking over business matters which demanded his presence here. Mr. Newton is doing well at Funkley; and he is one of the best of the good fellows "up the line."

A. P. White, president of the Lumbermen National Bank of this city, left last night (or rather this morning) for International Falls, where he is interested financially, being a stockholder in the International State Bank. Mr. White expects to return to the city tomorrow evening.

J. G. Johnston, auditor of the Great Northern Express company, and D. B. Newcomb, auditor for the Northern Express company, made a joint official visit to the city last evening, in the interest of their companies. They found everything moving along very nicely, under the management of G. E. Lloyd, local in charge of the "fast freight."

GREAT DAY IN MILWAUKEE

"German Athens of America" Entertains the Kaiser's Envoy.

Milwaukee, May 6.—This city, which has a larger proportion of citizens of German birth or descent than any other in the United States, is outdoing itself today in its welcome to COUNT VON BERNSTORFF.

Count Johann Heinrich von Bernstorff, the German ambassador to this country.

Count von Bernstorff will remain here two days. He was welcomed to the city by Mayor Rose and other officials and will be the guest of honor at a banquet to be given by the Citizens' Business league. At the banquet he will speak on "Social Reforms in Germany."

FOUND DYING IN A BUGGY

Double Tragedy Result of Disappointment in Love.

Indianapolis, May 6.—Arthur Stitt and Miss Luceta Stroud were found dying in a buggy in Central avenue. Stitt, it is believed, had given the woman carbolic acid with whisky and then taken a dose of the poison himself. Both died a short time after they were found.

The tragedy is believed to have been the result of Stitt's being spurned by the girl.

Despondency Cause of Act.

St. Paul, May 6.—Sitting on a box in a shed in the rear of his boarding house, calmly waiting for death to relieve him of his misery, John Huesler, an aged bridge carpenter, was found by Mrs. John Ran, in whose home he is a boarder. Blood spurted from a bullet hole in his temple and another in his forehead. He was removed in the police ambulance to a private hospital, where he died a few hours later. Huesler, who was seventy-five years of age, had undergone much hard luck within the last two years and had grown despondent.

Former Queen of Turf Dead.

Philadelphia, May 6.—Sunol, 2:08 1/2, former queen of the trotting turf, died at Newtown Square, Pa., where she was being kept for breeding purposes. Sunol was foaled in 1886 at the Palo Alto (Cal.) stock farm of Senator Leland Stanford, her sire being the famous Electioneer.

There is more Catarrh in this section of the country than all other diseases put together, and until the last few years was supposed to be incurable. For a great many years doctors pronounced it a local disease and prescribed local remedies, and by constantly falling to cure with local treatment, pronounced it incurable. Science has proved Catarrh to be a constitutional disease and therefore requires constitutional treatment. Hall's Catarrh Cure, manufactured by F. J. Cheney & Co., Toledo, Ohio, is the only constitutional cure in the market. It is taken internally in doses from 10 drops to a tea-spoonful, and acts directly on the mucous surfaces of the system. They offer one hundred dollars for any case it fails to cure. Send for circulars and testimonials. Address: F. J. CHENEY & Co., Toledo, Ohio. Sold by Druggists, etc. Take Hall's Family Pills for constipation.

SEVEN PERSONS SENT TO PRISON

Judgment Day in Pittsburg Graft Cases.

RAMSEY ASKS LENIENCY

Former Bank President Personally Pleads With Court, but Is Sent Up for a Year and a Half—Half Dozen Convicted Councillmen and Others Get From Eighteen to Forty-two Months.

Pittsburg, May 6.—Sentences were imposed in criminal court by Judge Robert S. Frazer on seven persons convicted within the last few weeks in the municipal graft cases. The sentences follow:

W. W. Ramsey, former national bank president, convicted of bribery, one year and six months' imprisonment and a fine of $1,000; Captain John F. Klein, townclimber, two years and a fine of $1,000 on the bribery conviction and one year and six months on the conspiracy conviction; Joseph C. Wasson and William Brand, former councilmen, each one year and six months and a fine of $500 for conspiracy; H. M. Bolger, hotelkeeper, two years and a fine of $500 for bribery; Charles Colbert and John Colbert, convicted of attempting to bribe a juror in the Ramsey bribery case, two years and a fine of $500 each. Former Bank Cashier A. A. Vilsack was not sentenced and it is said will not be till after he has testified in several other cases which are likely to come up soon.

W. W. Ramsey made a plea for the clemency of the court or at least postponement of sentence. He talked to the court for fifteen minutes and presented a petition containing the names of 1,500 prominent men of the city.

Judge Frazer said he had strong personal feeling in this case, but that he could not see why the law should be overlooked. He said also that Ramsey had been given the benefit of every doubt.

Three Children Killed in Fire.

Sackville, N. B., May 6.—Three children of Charles Crossman, a painter, were suffocated by smoke from a fire which badly damaged their home. A short time before the fire a young daughter of Fred Allen died from burns sustained when playing about a grass fire.

Session May Extend to July 1.

Washington, May 6.—President Taft has come to the conclusion as a result of talks with senators and members of the house of representatives during the past two days that there is little or no chance for an adjournment of congress before June 15 or July 1.

Getting Your Money's Worth

Is as easy as falling off the proverbial log when you buy your lumber and building material here.

Every dollar you spend here means a hundred cents worth of satisfaction. With us it isn't simply a question of "keeping up with the procession." It's a matter of "going ahead of it," and keeping ahead from one year's end to the other.

No matter what you want—a few rough boards or a complete house bill, you always get "your money's worth" here.

Give us a chance to prove it.

Short Sermon to Mechanics

If you are now drawing good wages for your labor you will doubtless testify to the fact that the use of good tools has materially aided you to attain this goal. Good tools require less of your employers time to keep them in running order, no time wasted, good work possible, of course you are worth more money than the fellow with inferior tools filing and whetting his time away.

Your tool business is solicited entirely on the merits of the line we handle, every article fully warranted, you take no chances, the factory does that, the tools are made for work, not display, and as to the prices, we court comparison, and know that when you get started with us your tool purchases will be confined to our line.

It is a pleasure to show goods whether you are now in the market or not, come in and look them over.
