LOCAL HAPPENINGS

The Continued Story of Current Events.

Those desiring work done at cemetery, please call on C. B. Howe, sexton, Irv. ave. and 14th street.

The Ladies' Aid society of the Baptist church will meet at the home of Mrs. McKee Wednesday afternoon at 3 o'clock.

Allan Underwood, the Kelliher refreshment dealer, returned to his home last evening, after spending yesterday in this city on business. Mr. and Mrs. O. S. Kilborn of Bagley moved to Bemidji yesterday to make their future home. Mr. Kilborn expects to enter the employ of the Bemidji Lumber company.

D. D. Miller, the local manager of the T. J. Miller Insurance agency, went to Blackduck last evening and spent the night there looking after some business matters in connection with the agency, returning to Bemidji this morning.

T. J. McManus of Kelliher, clerk for the Crookston Lumber company's hoisting crew at Kelliher, came to the city yesterday for the purpose of looking up an engine to replace the one used at Kelliher, which was damaged. Mr. McManus returned to Kelliher last evening.

A. A. Richardson, the view photographer, went to Kelliher last evening. From Kelliher, Mr. Richardson will make a trip to the different log drives on the Battle, Blackduck and Cormant rivers, where he will take views of the operations that are now being conducted in getting the logs cut in that vicinity last winter to Red lake.

Judge Pendergast has gone out to his Lake Plantagnet "farmstead," where he will prepare the place for the reception of his associates at St. Paul, who purchased the place with him. The judge will spend the summer vacation there, and when the Capital City folks came up to visit he will have a string of yarns and other hospitality that will make them wish they could live forever in this north-central portion of the state.

J. A. McAvoy, he who conducted a dray line in Bemidji and later was proprietor of the livery stable now owned by K. McIver, came to the city yesterday afternoon from Duluth, where he had gone to meet his wife, who had visited there for several days. Mrs. McAvoy went on through to Fosston for a stay with friends there until "Jack" left last night, joining him at Fosston and going home to Moose Jaw, Canada, where the McAvoy's now make their home.

V. C. Peterson, the printer who recently turned homesteader and is now located on Moose creek, on the north shore of upper Red Lake, returned to Bemidji yesterday from a trip to Warren and Thief River Falls. He was accompanied by Ole G. Miller, postmaster at Domaas, near Moose Creek. They returned home last evening, going to Kelliher via the M. & L. railway and "hoofing it" from Kelliher to the Tamarac river and thence around upper Red lake to Moose creek.

"Mort" Pendergast was good to look at, yesterday, as he strode the streets of Bemidji, in the pride of his robust manhood, clad in "homespun" and overalls. "Mort" is now living on the John Thompson farm, two miles west of the city, where he is simply beating everyone a mile, in the farming line. He and his good wife will make their home on the Thompson place for some time to come, and any of their city friends who happen out that way should stop and visit, as "Mort" asserts that the latch-string will always be on the outside and easy of access.

OFFICE OVER POSTOFFICE

The Episcopal Guild will meet with Mrs. F. S. Arnold Thursday afternoon at 2:30.

Remember the waffle supper which will be given in the Odd Fellows hall tomorrow night by the Norwegian Lutheran Ladies.

E. R. Jefferson of Duluth, father of Mrs. A. A. Warfield, departed this morning for his summer home, near Brainerd, after a visit at the home of Mr. and Mrs. A. A. Warfield.

A. C. McLean, the logger, went to Kelliher last evening, after having spent Sunday in this city with his family. Mr. McLean is now in the employ of Ross & Ross, at Kelliher. William Gallagher, the Turtle River farmer whom every one knows as "Billie," was a Bemidji visitor yesterday. He returned to his home, via the village of Turtle River, last evening.

Mrs. P. A. Welch, wife of the late Sheriff Welch of International Falls, passed through Bemidji Sunday night on her way to Oklahoma, where she has important personal business to look after.

R. J. Poupore, the logger, spent yesterday in the city, coming down from Kelliher in the morning, and returning home on the evening M. & L. north-bound passenger train, via the Funkley-Kelliher accommodation express.

A. P. Christenson, who is in the employ of the Crookston Lumber company at Fowlds, went to Kelliher last evening on a business trip for the company. He will return to Bemidji tomorrow morning and go to Fowlds to resume his labors at that place.

Inui, the famous Japanese orator, will deliver a lecture at the Methodist church next Tuesday evening, under the auspices of the Women's Study Club, on the subject "East vs. West." Inui is from Ann Arbor and speaks fluently on the subject of the "For East."

J. P. Signal, formerly local agent for the Duluth Brewing company, but who is now a resident of Grand Rapids, came to the city last night on a business trip. Mr. Signal is now agent for John Costello of Grand Rapids, who operates a soft-drink establishment at that place.

W. C. Church, head of the W. C. Church Lumber company of Des Moines, Iowa, departed this morning for Laporte to look after some cedar interests which his company has at that place. He will return to Bemidji this evening. Mr. Church expects to spend several days in Bemidji before returning to his Des Moines home.

Mr. and Mrs. T. J. Nary and their daughter came to the city last evening and were guests at the Markham hotel. Mr. Nary departed this afternoon for Deer River to look after some timber business for the Pillsbury company, for which concern he is the general manager for this district. Mrs. Nary and her daughter remained here for the day.

Bunn T. Wilson and wife, Dr. Osborn, J. M. Reed and J. E. Dade of Blackduck returned to the "Duck" last evening after having spent most of their time during the past two weeks in attendance at the Koch trial as witnesses. They were all pleased to be released from further attendance at court. Several other Blackduck people remained in the city for the purpose of hearing the verdict of the jury in the Koch case, when they, also, planned to return home.

George Reynolds went to Walker this morning to look after the launching of his two gasoline boats for use on Leech lake this summer. Mr. Reynolds has operated his boats on Leech lake for the last five years, with both pleasure and profit. Mr. Reynolds last night completed the building of a fine new gasoline boat for A. A. Warfield, which will ply the waters of Bemidji lake and adjoining tributaries during the present season. The boat is 38 feet long, and is a "beaute."

Sam Cone, the commercial traveler who sells the stuff that both cheers and inebriates for the L. S. Loeb company of Duluth, was in the city today. Sam asserts that he has a serious intention of pooling interests with Theodore Gullickson, believing that the products which they both sell, if combined, would surely prove a winner. He has a new oration on "Diagonese's Last Words to the Philistines." This, Sam says, is appropriate for a 17 de Mai celebration or a Fourth of July spell-binder.

Don't forget the sale in the Odd Fellows hall tomorrow night.

Mrs. J. L. Barton of Johnstown, N. D., was a guest at the Hotel Markham last night.

County Attorney Chester McKusick left last night, on the M. & L., south-bound train, for St. Paul, on a professional trip.

Mrs. J. H. Orr, wife of Dr. Orr of this city, departed last night, over the M. & L., for Minneapolis, on a visit with friends.

A business meeting of the Presbyterian Ladies Aid will be held in the church parlors Thursday at 2:30 p. m. All members are requested to be present.

Raymond Bruner, who owns a farm near Lake George, but who has been spending the past week in Bemidji, went to Laporte this morning on business. He will return to the city this evening.

A. B. Peterson of Northome was registered as a guest at the Hotel Markham last night and this morning, having come to the city last night on the south-bound M. & L. passenger train.

Andrew Johnson of Cass Lake came over from the "Lake" yesterday afternoon and spent several hours in a live town, on business. He returned to Cass Lake on the G. N. night passenger train.

Mrs. Fenton, mother of the late Joe Fenton, returned last evening from Stillwater, whither she went several days ago to bury the body of her son beside that of another member of the family whose remains were interred at Stillwater some years ago.

T. J. Miller, senior member of the firm of T. J. Miller & Co., arrived in the city last night from St. Paul, where he has spent the last two weeks. Mr. Miller was in attendance at the annual meeting of the K. P. grand lodge of the state and says he greatly enjoyed the session.

J. W. Boeing, a druggist who lives at Minto, N. D., came to the city last night and will remain here for several days. Mr. Boeing is a member of the summer colony from the "Flickertail State" who have interests at Lavinia. He was accompanied by G. M. Carrick and D. Longowski of Minto, carpenters, who will erect a new summer cottage at Lavinia for Mr. Boeing.

FATHER AND SON KILLED

Fatal Quarrel Over Line Fence in Indiana.

Richmond, Ind., May 18.—A controversy over a line fence between two farms resulted in the death of Alexander Meek and Raymond Meek, father and son, and serious injury to Frank Rallsback, Sr., and his son, Frank Rallsback, Jr.

The differences between the two families before the fight had existed for some weeks, but had not reached a serious stage until now, when the Rallsbacks began chopping away posts. The Meeks, with a revolver and a shotgun, fired on the Rallsbacks. Frank Rallsback, Jr., fell with a wound in his knee. The elder Rallsback was wounded in the abdomen. Thereupon Joel Rallsback, another son, appeared and, with a double barreled shotgun, fired point blank at the Meeks, killing both, shooting both of them in the head. Joel Rallsback surrendered to the sheriff.

PIERCE PRESENT IN COURT

Trial of Oil Man Postponed Until Fall Term.

Austin, Tex., May 18.—The original case of H. Clay Pierce, president of the Waters-Pierce Oil company, charged with making a false affidavit that his company was not a trust nor connected with a trust, was dismissed in the district court here and his bondsman released. The case under the second indictment, which recites the same charge of false swearing and merely perfects errors in the first indictment, was postponed by common consent until the fall term of the court. Oct. 11 is the date fixed for the trial. Mr. Pierce, who was present in court, immediately gave bonds in the sum of $20,000.

Husband Objected to Skim Milk.

Portland, Ore., May 18.—Because, it is alleged, his girl wife gave him skim milk instead of cream John D. Roselair is stated to have cleaved her head open with a heavy knife used for cutting salmon. Roselair surrendered to Sheriff Hancock at Hillsboro. The tragedy occurred at the lonely mountain home of the couple, twenty-nine miles from Hillsboro.

Five More Turks Executed.

Constantinople, May 18.—Five more men were hanged in front of the buildings of parliament, opposite the Mosque of St. Sophia, in Stamboul. They had been found guilty by court-martial of complicity in the murder of their officers in the revolutionary outbreak of April 13.

Made a Titular Archbishop.

Peoria, Ill., May 18.—Right Rev. John Lancaster Spalding, whose resignation as bishop of the Peoria diocese was respectfully accepted last fall, is created titular archbishop of Scythopolis by a decree of the Vatican at Rome.

GIRL CHARGED WITH MURDER

Arrest in Arbogast Case at St. Paul.

DAUGHTER HELD FOR CRIME

Twenty-three-Year-Old Child of Dead Man Accused of Committing Brutal Crime—Girl Has Been Considered Mentally Unbalanced for Some Time and Insanity Undoubtedly Will Be Her Defense.

St. Paul, May 18.—Louise Arbogast, fearless but pitifully protesting her innocence, is in the hospital ward of the county jail, held for further hearing in police court, charged with the murder of her father, Louis Arbogast, the butcher, whose head was crushed with an axe as he lay in bed at his home in this city last Thursday morning. The girl, who is twenty-three years of age, when arraigned in police court dramatically declared her innocence and said, when told she need not plead to the charge until she had consulted an attorney, that "God will be my attorney." A plea of not guilty was entered as a matter of form and the hearing was continued until Thursday morning.

The police assert the girl is insane. She has been suffering from nervousness and mental hallucinations for some time and had returned from a sanatorium but a few days prior to her father's death. Insanity undoubtedly will be her defense.

The arrest of Louise Arbogast was the result of constant and searching police inquiry, which included the third degree for Mrs. Arbogast, who had been defending her daughter by obstinate silence. Their statements as to the main facts of the murder were so totally at variance that it was at first the police theory that both the wife and daughter had a hand in the murder. Louise directed the inquiry toward herself by a bungling attempt to cover up the fact that there had been a crime. When her father's store manager called, when her physician was summoned and again when a neighbor came in in an effort to lend assistance she said:

"Father is dead and there is something wrong with the gas."

OLD WAGES TO BE RESTORED

Steel Company Employees to Be Paid Former Scale.

Youngstown, O., May 1.—Employees of the Republic Iron and Steel company have received notice that a readjustment of wages will be made June 1. While the terms of the readjustment are not given it is believed the men will be again placed on the scale in force prior to the 10 per cent reduction of April 1. About 4,000 men are affected locally. It is thought here the readjustment will be general in the Pennsylvania plants.

There is more Catarrh in this section of the country than all other diseases put together, and until the last few years was supposed to be incurable. For a great many years doctors pronounced it a local disease and prescribed local remedies, and by constantly failing to cure with local treatment, pronounced it incurable. Science has proven catarrh to be a constitutional disease and therefore requires constitutional treatment. Hall's Catarrh Cure, manufactured by F. J. Cheney & Co., Toledo, Ohio, is the only constitutional cure in the market. It is taken internally in doses from 10 drops to a teaspoonful. It acts directly on the blood and mucous surfaces of the system. They offer one hundred dollars for any case it fails to cure. Send for circulars and testimonials. Address: F. J. CHENEY & Co., Toledo, Ohio. Sold by Druggists Everywhere. Take Hall's Family Pills for constipation.

Why Not Try an Hour's Walk Over Town?
It is wholesome exercise. When on this trip just note the condition of the buildings you pass as regards the paint.
Can't you observe where a few gallons of paint here and there would enhance the beauty of the city a hundred per cent and at the same time make the buildings more proof against the elements?
Now, when you get back home look at your buildings and let us furnish the material to put them in a presentable condition. Other people will notice your buildings just as you have noticed those during your trip over the city.
