SOCIAL AND PERSONAL

K. P. will meet in the Eagles Hall this evening. Come to lodge. A. Larson C. C.

A Studebaker pony cart and harness for sale. For particulars see the Bemidji Shoe House.

Dr. and Mrs. A. E. Henderson entertained Mr. and Mrs. A. P. White at dinner last evening.

Mrs. J. Sweigart, who has been visiting her cousin Mrs. Walter Nichols left this morning for her home at Park Rapids.

Mrs. Charles Trondson spent several hours in Bemidji yesterday en route to Thief River Falls, where she will visit with relatives and friends for a month or more.

A manuscript containing a list of subscribers to the fund for remodeling the First Baptist church has been lost and Rev. McKee requests the finder to leave the paper at the Pioneer office.

Can any one furnish me with the address of Cash Townsend, a lumberjack who was last seen at Wilton, Minnesota in the spring of 1909. He had a broken arm at this time. Liberal reward for information. Write to C. D. Brower, Kimball, Minn.

Sergeant George Baker and C. C. Crippen, members of Company K, M. N. G., who have been on duty in the Baudette-Spooner fire district returned to Bemidji today. They tell of having worked long hours but were glad to give what assistance they could. Mr. Crippen's last work was a two-day's trip far out into the country with supplies. Charles Baker, who also assisted in the relief, has returned.

H. W. Alsop, who was a candidate for auditor, was in Tenstrike Tuesday evening on his way to Bemidji where he is acting as deputy clerk of court during this fall term of court. Mr. Alsop, although defeated by a small margin, has no faults to find, and says that he will stand by the Republican nominee like every true republican should. He does not approve of Mr. Hayner's "sticker" campaign.—Tenstrike Tribune.

Notice is hereby given that the co-partnership heretofore existing between John Moberg and C. W. Jewett, under the firm name and style of Northern Automobile company, with its principal place of business at Bemidji, Minnesota, is this day dissolved by mutual consent. Mr. Moberg retires from co-partnership and the business will be carried on and conducted by Mr. Jewett. All outstanding claims due said firm shall be divided equally between the parties hereto.

Signed: John Moberg.
 C. W. Jewett.

Checking accounts, Savings accounts, Certificates of Deposit. Which will you place your money in at the Northern National Bank?

Dean McDonald, representing the new Era Business college of Superior, Wis., spent Monday in Bemidji.

Victor Olson cashier of the First National Bank of Alexandria Minn. is visiting friends in this city for a few days.

The Baptist Ladies Aid Society will meet at the home of Mrs. Dr. Smith Wednesday afternoon at 3 o'clock. Lunch will be served from 5 to 6 o'clock.

Mrs. G. E. Krenz returned this morning from Minneapolis where she has spent the past week. Her mother, Mrs. Keesling, who was dangerously ill is much improved.

Norwegian Lutheran Ladies Aid will meet Thursday afternoon at 2 o'clock at the home of Mrs. A. R. Erickson 1115 Beltrami Ave. Everybody cordially invited.

Mr. and Mrs. Fawcett went to Buena Vista this morning for a few days' outing. They will be joined on Saturday by Mr. and Mrs. Torrance who will enjoy a short hunting trip.

The Samaritan lodge will give a card party in the Odd Fellows hall Thursday night. Refreshments will be served. Over seventy five tickets have already been sold and a large crowd is expected.

Mr. and Mrs. W. L. Brooks and Dr. and Mrs. E. H. Marcum motored to Grand Forks, N. D. and remained until Monday night when they heard Melba sing. They will return this evening.

Mrs. G. M. Torrance returned from Minneapolis Saturday night where she has visited relatives and friends for the past two weeks. She was accompanied home by Mr. and Mrs. Fawcett who will visit here for several days.

The Ladies Aid of the First Scandinavian Lutheran church will meet at the home of Mrs. Thorsness, 208 Mississippi avenue, Wednesday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock. All are cordially invited to be present.

Mrs. J. J. Conger will leave this evening for Minneapolis, where she will meet her mother, Mrs. C. Minor who is now visiting in South Dakota. They will return to Bemidji Thursday evening, and Mrs. Minor will spend the winter at the Conger home.

Mason's Uncle Tom's Cabin, which appeared in the Bemidji Opera House Saturday night left yesterday for the south. The company is one which pleases the public and it proved great magnet here, the largest audience of the season attending its performance, which was well received. Practically every seat in the theatre was filled.

G. M. Torrance, a prominent Bemidji attorney, passed through Crookston this morning enroute home after a flying trip to St. Paul, where he went last Saturday. He says a very deep interest is displayed in the cities over the unfortunate fire and that substantial assistance has not only been forwarded, but can be depended on later through the legislature.—Crookston Times.

Mr. and Mrs. Hugo Scharf entertained at bridge last evening at the home of Mrs. L. H. Bailey. Four tables were played during the evening and refreshments were served. The guests were Mr. and Mrs. George Hanson, Mr. and Mrs. R. L. Given, Mr. and Mrs. David Gill, Dr. and Mrs. C. R. Sanborn, Mr. and Mrs. E. H. Winter, Misses Florence Smith and Ida Bailey and Messrs. Thayer Bailey and J. G. McCullough.

Rev. Geo. E. Barrett, public ownership candidate for governor, spoke in Roseau Wednesday evening to an attentive audience. Mr. Barrett is not an extreme radical in his views, and presents the arguments favoring his cause in a definite way that carries conviction to those who are inclined to look upon public and economic questions in the light he does. The socialists of Roseau county need not apologize for bringing Mr. Barrett in to address the people, as he is a scholar and a gentleman.—Roseau Region.

It is in time of sudden mishap or accident that Chamberlain's Liniment can be relied upon to take the place of the family doctor, who cannot always be found at the moment. Then it is that Chamberlain's Liniment is never found wanting. In cases of sprains, cuts, wounds and bruises Chamberlain's Liniment takes out "soreness" and drives away the pain. Sold by Barker Drug Co.

Nebish Island Lake.
 Knute Hagen went to Duluth Monday where he took the Civil Service examinations. He returned Friday and will leave in a few days for his old home in Otter Tail county.

Miss Ida Billette of Ten Mile Lake spent a few days in Nebish visiting friends.

Supt. W. B. Stewart visited the Nebish school Friday morning. He also visited the Watson and Austin schools the same day and returned to Bemidji Saturday.

Friday was moving day in Island Lake. Chas. Dickinson and family moved into the Sibley house. Wyman Hickerson moved into his new house.

The Alert Man.
 "Calmness is a fine trait," said Mr. Bliffy, "but does it always get there? You take the case of two men standing up in a car holding on to straps, both the same age, but one of them quiet and the other quick, and now let the man they are standing in front of get up to leave the car at a station, and suppose these two men are both at exactly the same distance from the seat, each with the same chance as the other for seizing it, which would get that seat? Would it be the calm, cool man who moved deliberately and always with some thought for others, or would it be the ever alert man, quick to move and always on the lookout, not caring a continental for what anybody thinks and always ready to jump in any seat he can nab? Why, while the calm man is thinking it over about what he shall do and beginning to turn that way the alert man is in the seat. I certainly do admire the calm, tranquil man and his good manners, but it is the man ever on the alert that gets the seat in the car—and other things."—New York Sun.

The Back of a Glove.
 The meaning of the three marks on the back of a glove and the clocks on a stocking were two of the little mysteries of dress explained at a lecture on clothes in London. The lecturer said that the three marks on the back of a glove correspond to the fourchette pieces between the fingers, and in olden days these pieces were continued along the back of the hand, braid being used to conceal the seams. A somewhat similar origin was assigned to the ornamental clock on the stocking. In the days when stockings were made of cloth the seams came where the clocks do now, the ornamentation then being used to hide the seams. The useless little bow in the leather band lining a man's hat is a survival of the time when a hat was made by taking a piece of leather, boring two holes through it and drawing it up with a piece of string.

Fashions in Borneo.
 According to the rules of Bornean fashion it is deemed necessary to mold one's limbs into a more shapely form than that bestowed by nature. This is done really effectively by winding strong brass wire round the ankles, the wrists, under the knees and above the elbows of children. Growth at these points is, in consequence, greatly hampered, with the result that the limbs come to be deformed or, according to Dyak ideas, brought into proper shape. The headdress consists of a curious headwork cap, and around his neck a bridegroom to be wears bangles of plaited fiber and strings of cowrie shells. These shells, by the way, as in other parts of the world, are used as currency. A yard of fiber or twenty to thirty cowrie shells represent the value of a penny. The white armlets are made of another species of shells.—Wide World Magazine.

What a Toad Enjoys.
 There are few things more amusing than to watch a toad submitting to the operations of a back scratching. He will at first look somewhat suspiciously at the twig which you are advancing toward him, but after two or three passes down his back his manner undergoes a marked change, his eyes close with an expression of infinite rapture, he plants his feet wider apart, and his body swells out to nearly double its ordinary size, as if to obtain by these means more room for enjoyment. Thus he will remain until you make some sudden movement which startles him or until he has had as much petting as he wants, when, with a puff of regretful delight, he will retrace himself to his usual dimensions and hop away, bent once more on the pleasures of the chase.

Getting Acquainted.
 "We hesitated about renting this place," said the woman who had just moved in, "until we learned that the families on both sides of us owned their homes. It is so unpleasant to live where the people next door are always changing and you never know what kind of neighbors you are going to have."
 "Yes," responded the woman on the other side of the fence. "That's one reason why we're trying to sell our house."—Chicago Tribune.

A Banquet For Horses.
 Banquets prepared exclusively for animals are not altogether unknown in England. The aged inmates of the Home of Rest for Horses, Westcroft farm, Cricklewood, celebrate each New Year's day with a sumptuous repast. The menu for the last banquet consisted of lumps of sugar, chopped carrots, apples, brown and white bread and biscuits. These were mixed together in a wooden box and placed outside each stable door.—London Family Herald.

The Convenient Excuse.
 Hard luck is generally the name people give to the thing that happens when they have been acting foolishly.—Chicago Record Herald.
