Ike Black left Sunday night for Duluth to meet with the representatives of the Kelly-ow-H Thomson company today. Mr. Black is traveling representative for Kelly-How-Thomson in this territory.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Kinkele of Walker were Christmas visitors in Bemidji. They had as their guests, at the Markham hotel, their son, Thomas J. Kinkele of Eyebrow, Can., and M. G. McNeal of Winnipeg.

Hockey games and races every day at the ice rink during the holidays.

Dr. and Mrs. D. L. Stanton entertained Sunday at a family Christmas dinner. They had as their guests Mr. and Mrs. G. H. French, Mr. and Mrs. F. LaFavar and two children, Bonnie and Bert LaFavar.

The Baptist Ladies Aid society will meet at the home of Mrs. Hulet, 1008 Mississippi avenue, tomorrow afternoon at 3 o'clock. There will be election of officers and all members of the aid are urged to be present.

Miss Stewart and S. T. Stewart entertained at "500" last evening at their home on Dewey avenue. The guests were Mr. and Mrs. George French, Mr. and Mrs. F. LaFavar and Dr. and Mrs. D. L. Stanton.

Charles Plummer returned last night to his home in Duluth after enjoying Christmas at the home of his wife's parents, Mr. and Mrs. T. W. Bell. Mrs. Plummer, who is also in the city, will return to her home in a few days.

Mrs. M. A. Spooner was a Christmas Eve hostess at a well appointed dinner. Following dinner two tables of bridge were played. The guests were Mr. and Mrs. W. L. Brooks, Mr. and Mrs. Graham Torrance and Dr. and Mrs. E. H. Marcum.

Holiday special, all this week, box of fancy bonbons 20c. The Model.

Mrs. J. E. Black was given a complete surprise last night by the arrival of twenty-five friends with baskets, who proceeded to make themselves at home. Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Black have but recently moved into their new bungalow home on Bemidji avenue, and the affair last night was in the nature of a housewarming. The baskets were unwrapped and a delicious lunch was served. The party included Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Richards, Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Vye, Dr. and Mrs. E. H. Smith, Mr. and Mrs. W. N. Bowser, Mr. and Mrs. John Gibbons, Mr. and Mrs. George Anderson, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Reynolds, Mr. and Mrs. John Parker, Mesdames P. J. Entertaining Royalty.
 Nothing puts a bigger feather in the cap of a society hostess, says the London Saturday Journal, or at the same time causes her more anxious cares and thought than mere expenditure than the presence at one of her dinners or dances in the huge Mayfair mansion of a member of the royal family—most of all the king and queen. The entertaining of royalty is one of the most delicate triumphs the society woman, whether she be a duchess or merely a millionairess, can achieve. It has a code of etiquette all to itself—a code which must be rigidly observed or no hope is there of ever securing another visit from a royal guest of the reigning house. The number of titled and untitled guests bidden to meet the sovereign at, say, a dinner party is strictly limited and of course highly select. On one occasion $20,000 was spent by a hostess in entertaining a crowned head for a week end, while another example is that of a certain baronet who had a marble staircase put in his house solely because of an approaching visit from the late king.

Precautionary.
 The Millionaire—Doctor, is it absolutely necessary to remove my appendix?
 "Not absolutely, but it is safer to begin with some simple operation like that."—Life.

MR. RENTER

Have you ever stopped to think that every few years you practically pay for the house you live in and yet do not own it? Figure it up for yourself. Theodore Roosevelt says: "No Investment on earth is so safe, so sure, so certain to enrich its owners as undeveloped realty."

We will be glad to tell you about the City of Bemidji, and quote you prices with easy terms of payment if desired on some of the best residence and business property in that rapidly growing City.

A letter addressed to us will bring you full particulars or if you prefer to see the property, call on H. A. Simons, at Bemidji.
