BOY SCOUTS PASS TEST; WIN HONORS

Learn Respect to Flag, How to Tie Knots and Now Become "Tenderfoot" Members.

NEW UNIFORMS ORDERED TODAY

Will Be Composed of Khaki Outfit, Patterned After Suits Used By Regular Army.

TO MAKE TRIP IN WOODS

After Gaining Further Knowledge, Will Be in Line for Promotion—All Boys May Join.

Having completed a series of tests, members of the Bemidji patrol of Boy Scouts have become "tenderfoots" and today were measured for Scout uniforms, under the supervision of Scoutmaster S. E. P. White. The outfits are being obtained by Schneider Brothers.

The following nine boys go to make up this patrol:

Earl Cochran, Earl McIver, Harold White, Glenn Conger, Donald Smith, Herbert Warfield, Howard Palmer, Silo Achenback and John Stechman.

How They Will Look.

The uniform will consist of the regulation Boy Scout outfit, a brown outing shirt, Khaki coat and trousers, and Khaki leggings. The hat, a felt slouch affair, is the same style of the same material, as those worn by United States soldiers.

Having become members of the Tenderfoot class, the boys will now study up to become Second class scouts and ultimately, of the first class.

Must Know Many Things.

Much practical knowledge must be obtained by study of the Scout manual before the Tenderfoot or other honors can be had.

All boys in Bemidji are eligible to become Scouts and a rapid increase in the Tenderfoot class is expected. As soon as the new uniforms arrive, Scoutmaster White will arrange for a series of expeditions through the woods.

The Scout manual provides the following:

Tenderfoot.

To become a scout a boy must be at least twelve years of age and must pass a test in the following:

1. Know the scout law, sign, salute, and significance of the badge.
2. Know the composition and history of the national flag and the customary forms of respect due to it.
3. Tie four out of the following knots: square reef, sheet—bend, bowline, fisherman's, sheep's-shank halter, clove hitch, timber hitch, or two half hitches.

He then takes the scout oath, is enrolled as a tenderfoot, and is entitled to wear the tenderfoot badge.

Second-Class Scout.

To become a second-class scout, a tenderfoot must pass, to the satisfaction of the recognized local scout authorities, the following tests:

1. At least one month's service as a tenderfoot.
2. Elementary first aid and bandaging; know the general directions for the first aid for injuries; know treatment for fainting, shock, fractures, bruises, sprains, injuries in which the skin is broken, burns, and scalds; demonstrate how to carry injured, and the use of the triangular and roller bandages and tourniquet.
3. Elementary signalling: Know the semaphore, or Continental Morse, or American Morse, or Myer Alphabets.
4. Track half a mile in twenty-five minutes; or, if in town, describe satisfactorily the contents of one store window out of four observed for one minute each.
5. Go a mile in twelve minutes at scout's pace—about fifty steps run-

APPLAUD WOMAN TALKER

Large Crowd at Court House Hears Lena Morrow Lewis Severely Arraign Present Conditions.

MAYOR COMES IN FOR SCORING

Not only did the crowd which completely filled the court house Thursday evening hear Lena Morrow Lewis the Socialist lecturer, denounce present conditions of the laboring men in this country, but they heard E. W. Hannah, secretary of the Bemidji Socialist local, sharply criticize Mayor Parker and the city for refusing to permit the free use of the City Hall for the lecture.

"I want you tax payers to know," said Mr. Hannah, "just why you had to come up here. It was because our honorable mayor refused to permit this meeting to be held in your own property—the city hall."

It is understood the Socialists were informed that $7 rent would be charged for using the hall.

Mrs. Lewis, dwelt at length upon the unequal distribution of wealth; declared that it is not great men that make great movements, but that "great movements make great men," and enlarged upon the value of extending the right to vote to women.

FOREST FIRE DEATHS TOTAL 122

Northern Ontario Conflagration is Now Under Control.

Toronto, July 14.—Reports from northern Ontario points are to the effect that the forest fires, which for several days have swept over a section of the country extending 300 miles northward from North Bay and covering a wide section east and west, have either been extinguished or are under control. No further extensive damage or loss of life is expected.

The town of Cochrane, South Porcupine and Pottsville have been obliterated. The fire swept clean the townships of Langmuir, Eldorado, Shaw, Daloro, Ogdan, McArthur and Cripple Creek districts.

The known dead total 122, a majority of whom lost their lives at South Porcupine. There are believed to have been many other fatalities and estimates, based upon unverified reports, run as high as 400.

A relief train left North Bay yesterday afternoon for Porcupine with supplies. Plenty of funds have been subscribed in this city for immediate help. Refugees from the burned area say that it covers 10,000 square miles, comprising a district that housed 20,000 people. From every quarter have come refugees who escaped the flames, many of them badly burned. It will be some days before any accurate idea of the total number of dead is available.

Many of the terror stricken fled into the interior of the woodlands. They have not been heard from since. Others, who possibly survived the storm of fire, are believed to have died of exhaustion. Supplies going forward cannot possibly be sent to sufferers across the charred area.

DUMAS HERE TODAY; BUYS BLOODED DOG

Jokes With Chief Harrington on Report of Ormsby That There Were 100 Crooks Here.

THREATENS DULUTH PAPER

Will Go There Tomorrow and Call Evening Herald on Story Reflecting on His Past.

COMES ON FREIGHT; BACK NOON

Appears in Usual Spirits and Displays Favorable Clipping From Hibbing Sheet.

Dr. D. F. Dumas of Cass Lake was in Bemidji today.

Yes, he did see his attorney, Judge Marshall A. Spooner about his little controversy with the Pinkertons, Sam Fullerton and the remainder of the state of Minnesota, but the main object of his trip was to purchase a bull pup.

This is the second visit of the Cass Lake mayor to Bemidji since he was bound over to await the action of the grand jury.

Still Drinking Buttermilk.

As usual, when the doctor comes to Bemidji, he was drinking buttermilk. He came in on a freight train and had a light morning meal at Brown's restaurant.

The never fading Dumas smile was on the job.

Joshes Chief Harrington.

"Hello, Joe," he called to Chief of Police Harrington, "I see by the papers that you have a hundred crooks here—when I am in town."

"Don't believe everything you see in the papers," replied Joe. "Take it from me Ormsby's assertion that there were that many crooks here is a myth."

Pulls Out a Paper.

From the pocket, in which in times gone by he is supposed to have toted a toy cannon, Dr. Dumas pulled a Hibbing newspaper containing severe criticism for Fullerton, the Pinkertons and Postoffice Inspector Ormsby. This the doctor exhibited proudly.

Armed with a collar and chain Dr. Dumas went in search of his bull pup. The animal has been the property of Dr. C. D. Sanborn who sold him to the Cass Lake mayor.

At noon Dr. Dumas returned to Cass Lake.

Refuses to Talk.

He refused to talk for publication other than to say that he has no personal acquaintance with "Sandy" Young, who faces incendiary charges as the result of the burning of a building in Blackduck.

Dr. Dumas' parting shot was a hot one. Here it is:

Going to Duluth.

"I am going to Duluth tomorrow to see the publisher of the Duluth Herald about stuff that paper has printed regarding my past career. I am not certain yet as to whether I shall bring suit against the paper, but I am going to demand a square deal."

A few days ago the Herald quoted Detective Fielding as saying that Dr. Dumas was compelled to leave the University of Minnesota.

LOTS OF GAME IN SEPTEMBER

Executive Agent Rider Gets Reports From Around State.

Game of all sorts will be plentiful in Minnesota when the season opens next September, according to reports received from various parts of the state by H. A. Rider, executive agent of the game and fish commission.

The weather has been good enough to permit prairie chickens to hatch and raise broods, and at the same time there is enough water in the lakes and sloughs, at least in the northern part of the state, to make ducks plentiful.

Big game, especially deer, also will be plentiful, according to Mr. Rider.

ARTHUR WEDGE ENTERS CONTEST

Public announcement was made today by S. J. Harvey, retiring member of the board of education, that he would not be a candidate to succeed himself. At the same time it was announced that Thomas McCann will not enter the race.

It had been expected that Mr. Harvey would be a candidate but he decided, for reasons not given, to withdraw. Friends of Mr. McCann at one time succeeded in obtaining his consent to accept the position but he now positively refuses to run. Announcement is made today that Arthur G. Wedge, Jr., will be a candidate. Mr. Wedge authorizes this announcement to be made.

The election is to be held tomorrow evening, the polls being open at 7 o'clock.

Directors are to be chosen to succeed J. P. Lahr, S. J. Harvey and A. A. Warfield.

The candidates as they now line up are: A. G. Wedge, Knute Roe, J. M. Phillippi and J. P. Lahr.

St. Paul Paper Says There is Question as to Legality of Petition.

The following item appears in today's issue of the St. Paul Dispatch: "A representative of the Attorney General's department may be dispatched to Beltrami county to check over the charges preferred against Sheriff Hazen in order to ascertain whether they occurred within the official's present term or a former term. If they occurred during a former term the governor is without jurisdiction."

Leaving the High School building at 7 a. m. Saturday, all boys and others who wish to go, will be taken by Professor Otto Bergh, agricultural instructor, for a trip through the woods to the L. P. Anderson farm, and perhaps farther. A special invitation is extended the Boy Scouts to join this expedition which will be for the purpose of gaining knowledge of the farm and woods. WANTS A NEW NAME

Mr. Barker Discovers an Odor of Perfume for Which he Can Find No Name.

HAS A "DISTINCTIVE ODOR"

"We need a new word; one that can steer a safe course midway between psychology and human nature. Psychology is too likely to suggest to us something dry bookish; something that has absolutely nothing to do with our daily and especially our business life; human nature, on the other hand, is a term so commonly used to describe the peculiarities and idiosyncrasies of people, as well as their natural actions, that it has no definite or vital meaning for us."

When asked what he was talking about Mr. Barker declared that he had discovered a new odor of perfume, but could not find a word in his vocabulary that would do it justice.

In his advertisement on page 3 he calls it a "Distinctive Odor". One that is not too loud. Today the store room of the Barker Drug and Jewelry store was filled with a highly refined odor of perfume, and in order to get what you want you must ask for what you smell.

NEW 'BAD MAN' HELD IN ARSON CLEAN UP

Warrant Issued Here for Arrest "Sandy" Young for Burning Blackduck Building.

KNOWN AS DANGEROUS MAN

Implicated in Fullerton's Case By Confession of Behan, Puposky Robber.

IS SAID TO BE PAL LECLARE

Not Believed to Have Been at Cass Lake Fire or Shevlin Bank Robbery.

That the state fire marshal's office is beginning to close in on the dragnet that may convict Dr. Dumas for arson and the apprehension of others who are not now in the toils but who are closely connected with the different angles of the doctor's acts is evident by the latest move here, a warrant having been issued for the arrest of "Sandy" Young, credited with being a desperate criminal, who is charged jointly with Ed Leclare with having set fire to the building in Blackduck owned by E. Gerald of this city and which was destroyed by fire last spring. Sheriff Hazen, armed with a warrant for Young's arrest, left last night for Duluth, where Young is being held on a charge of pulling off a job on the iron range. If it is possible to get Young from the authorities of St. Louis county, he will be brought to Bemidji to answer to the charge of incendiarism.

Just Out of Penitentiary.

Young is said to live in Chicago, and he has a long criminal record. He was released from the Stillwater penitentiary four months ago, and no less than four desperate crimes are laid at his door since he got out. The confession of Behan, the wounded Puposky yegg who was released on bail, implicated Young and Dr. Dumas, the latter being charged with engineering deals in which Young was principal.

It is asserted that Young had nothing to do with the burning of Dr. Dumas' house at Cass Lake or the blowing of the safe of the Bank of Shevlin, but that he was close to Leclare and Mike Davis in their various operations in this section. A Bemidji man who is close to the work of the officers who are in charge of the case against Dumas is authority for the statement that there is every indication that Young has been convinced that he was thrown down by his "pals," and that he has "coughed up" some valuable evidence at Duluth.

Think Davis and Leclare Located.

This party also says that many yeggmen are at Superior and are conferring as to what to do to assist the "soup" men who have gotten into the toils of the officials. Although no one with authority will admit it, there is a general belief that the Pinkertons and the state fire marshal know the whereabouts of Mike Davis and Ed Leclare and will arrest them when the men are really necessary for the carrying out of the plans for prosecution of the cases.

HEFFRON WINS COURT DECISION

His Attorney, Judge Spooner, Advised $3,000 Option Point is Settled.

In the case of Carl Heffron vs. M. G. Foley, Judge McClenahan has given a decision in favor of the plaintiff. The point at issue was to enforce the specific performance of an option contract on 80 acres adjoining the Heffron tract on the west side of the city. Mr. Heffron values the court decision at between $2,000 and $3,000. Judge Marshall A. Spooner was attorney for Mr. Heffron.

William Collier has decided to name his new play "Take My Advice."
