

BEMIDJI BRIEFS

Editorial Telephone, "THREE-ONE"
 JAYNE STANTON, City News Reporter
 BOBA BARRETT, Society Reporter

Today is the fiftieth anniversary of the birth of John A. Johnson, late governor of Minnesota. Governor Johnson was born in St. Peter, July 28, 1861.

Have you tried the Gentilly cheese? State of Minnesota No. 193 stamped on every cheese, which assures you the best. Sold by Roe and Markuson, quality grocers.

John E. Flaherty, a bartender here has filed a bankruptcy petition in the United States court in this city, placing his assets at $1,500, all exempt, and his liabilities at $1,420.47.

MEN and WOMEN, sell guaranteed hose. 70 per cent profit. Make $10 daily. Full or part time. Beginners investigate. Wear Proof, 3038 Chestnut St., Philadelphia, Pa.

Official notice from the Bemidji creamery announces the following increases in prices paid for butterfat: Milk, 35 cents; first grade cream, 26 cents; second grade cream, 25 cents.

Yes, I can shoe your horses. I make a specialty of lame, strikers, drivers, etc., and warrant them. I have had 20 years experience along this line. A. H. McDougall, horse shoer.

J. P. Pogue has returned from the west where he went to buy horses. He has brought back a number of fine horses already broken to the saddle and harness which he will hold for sale.

John P. Pogue returned from Miles City, Montana, with a carload of fine horses. These animals can be seen at the Pogue livery barn. Those interested in buying horses should not overlook this splendid opportunity.

The regular weekly open air band concert will be given at the lake dock bandstand this evening. Director Harry Masten has prepared a program of seven pieces which will be played by the band of twenty players.

If you don't do your Kodak finishing take them to Barker's Kodak Shop.

City Contractor John Goodman has his cement sidewalk builders at work constructing a cement crossing on Beltrami avenue on the north side of Seventh street. There has been no crossing at this place and as it leads to the Catholic church, it was much needed.

EARN A FREE SCHOLARSHIP by sending the names of all young people who might be interested in taking a fine business or shorthand course in Brown's Business College which opens in Bemidji about Sept. 15th.—Address A. E. Brown, Prin., Amer. Nat. Bank, St. Paul.

Ceremonies incident to the organization of a Bemidji council of the United Commercial Travelers will take place in the Masonic Temple here tomorrow night. There are 30 charter members. Grand Deputy Gravel of Duluth will have charge of the initiatory degree team. Grand Secretary J. M. Dresser of St. Paul also will be present.

Excursions to the Dam on the Yankee Doodle, fast mail and passenger boat. Leaves Bemidji at 2:30, returning at 5:30.

Sooner or later you will use the De Laval Cream Separator. For sale by the Given Hardware Company.

Judging from the unusual demand at this time of the year for dwelling houses it is safe to say that at least a dozen new dwellings would be a profitable investment in Blackduck. Prices on real estate in the village has been stiffening up considerable of late and a number of transfers of property have been made.—Blackduck American.

Money to Loan, V. L. Ellis.

I have the Chapman blacksmith shop. I can do your work and warrant it. I am here to stay. A. H. McDougall, horse shoer.

Following showers yesterday afternoon which culminated in a wind-storm and deluge at midnight last night, the sky cleared and perfect weather today prevails all over Northern Minnesota. The weather forecast for tomorrow is, "fair and warmer." The recent rains, although not needed for grain, has been of much benefit to the pastures.

When you buy cheese why not buy the best. Gentilly Cheese is the best. Sold by Roe and Markuson, quality grocers.

10 yards calicoes for 39c to customers purchasing $1.00 or over at Hoppman Co.'s big remodeling sale. Mention this add.

Among our new advertisers in this issue is the Mankato Commercial College. We commend that school to our readers, and would suggest that those who are interested send for a catalogue. It is printed in colors, and is undoubtedly the finest catalog ever gotten out by any school. It will be sent to you free. The fall term begins September 4th.

See Hud Fisk, when in need of automobile, gas engine and motor boat repair work. Shop, lake front foot of Fourth street. Phone 381.

Just how far the state may go in contributing funds for highway work under the Elwell act will be discussed by Attorney General Geo. T. Simpson in a formal communication to the state highway commission. C. M. Babcock, Elk River, a member of the commission, says that it has asked Mr. Simpson for the opinion so that it will know what its powers and duty may be. Mr. Babcock expresses himself in hearty sympathy with the extensive plans of the Northern Minnesota Development association, but feels that a $10,000,000 road proposal is a big one as a starter.

A good steel rod umbrella will be sold for 39c at Hoppman Co.'s big remodeling sale. Mention add.

The Independent Order of Odd Fellows will meet in regular session at their hall this evening. Work in the initiatory degree will be conferred upon several candidates. Appointed officers who were not installed at the last meeting will be installed tonight and the lodge has prepared a special program for visiting brothers and its members after the regular session.

Sooner or later you will use the De Laval Cream Separator. For sale by the Given Hardware Company.

Dr. J. A. McClure and wife of Billings, Mont., have arrived in Bemidji and Dr. McClure is seriously considering the advisability of establishing an office here to carry on his profession as a veterinarian. The McClures are at present guests at the home of their daughter, Mrs. R. C. Hayner. Dr. McClure is enthusiastic over Northern Minnesota and admits that he is anxious to become a member of the Bemidji Boosting Brigade.

Graceful and unusual jewelry—distinctive and original goldsmithing. We take a great deal of pride in having our stock of jewelry represent all that is not only newest and best, but that also is different from the common run. Exclusive and distinctive designing forms a large part of our business and those desiring jewelry that has these qualities will find wide range for satisfactory selection here. Special order work. Correct engraving. Geo. T. Baker & Co., Third street, near the lake.

Judge C. W. Stanton will leave Tuesday for Grand Rapids, where he will preside at a short term of court for Itasca county. Judge Stanton says that the three judges of the fifteenth district, Judge W. S. McClenahan of Brainerd, Judge B. F. Wright of Park Rapids and Judge Stanton, have not decided which of the three will preside at the September term of court for Beltrami county. Considerable interest is being shown in regard to who will preside at this term as there will be two serious cases to come before it; namely, the Dumas case and that of John Carlton who is held on charges involving a smart girl. Carlton, it will be remembered, was tried a year ago on a robbery charge, being acquitted.

Don't ask your friend to give you a set of pictures that he took Sunday—get the films and let us finish a set for you. Barker's Kodak Shop.

Because of his youth and the fact that his reputation in the past has been good, Judge Stanton last evening sentenced Glen Melver, 17 years old, who resides near Walker, to one year in the Cass county jail, and then suspended sentence. Young Melver had stolen a rifle and a suit case together with its contents, while under the influence of liquor, the total amounting to more than $50. He pleaded guilty and was brought to Bemidji last evening by Deputy Sheriff Mack Kennedy of Cass Lake. As is necessary in all such cases the clerk of court of Cass county and the attorney of the same county were obliged to be here, necessitating the presence of Richard Funck, county attorney and N. J. Palmer, clerk of court.

Friends of Miss Blanche M. Boyer, niece of Mrs. M. A. Clark and formerly a resident of Bemidji, will read with interest the following announcement from the Burlington, Iowa Gazette, under date of July 13:

"One of the prettiest weddings of the summer season was celebrated last night at 8 o'clock at the home of the bride's brother, Mr. T. K. Boyer, 1415 Aetna street, when Miss Blanche M. Boyer of Minneapolis and Dr. Joseph T. Barrett of Houghton, Mich., were united in marriage, the Rev. Roy H. Barrett of the First Baptist church officiating at the ceremony. The attendants were Mr. T. K. Boyer, brother of the bride, and Mrs. T. K. Boyer, who assisted as matron of honor. The bride looked very lovely in a white marquisette gown trimmed with real cluny lace, and carried a shower bouquet of lilies of the valley, and the matron of honor was attired in a lingerie gown and carried bridesmaid roses. Miss Katherine Pilger acted as ring bearer and the Messrs. Edgar Bragdon Spetch and C. V. Boyer of Minneapolis were the ushers. The ceremony was read under a graceful canopy of greenery, the beautiful ring service being used. Miss Ettinger played very softly 'Sweetheart' before the ceremony and 'I Love You Truly' afterwards. The wedding colors were pink and white, the home being decorated with pink and white sweet peas and the refreshment tables in the same color scheme. The bride is a charming girl, reared in Minneapolis, where she has always lived until her recent residence in Burlington, and the bridegroom has been a practicing physician for the past five years of Houghton, Mich., a graduate of Ann Arbor. His wedding gift to his bride was a handsome brooch of sapphires and pearls. Dr. and Mrs. Berry will take a wedding jaunt east, and will be at home in Burlington to their friends after September 1. Many handsome wedding gifts were received by the happy couple."

AWAKE NIGHTS

Children were intended to sleep nights. When they are wakeful and fretful, it is time to worry. Kickapoo Worm Killer (the delicious candy tablets) is a great medicine for children. It cleans the system of poisonous substances which cause sleeplessness. It removes acids which impoverish the blood; it tones up all of the functions; it makes strong, healthy children. Price, 25c., sold by druggists everywhere.
