THIS DATE IN HISTORY.

- September 13. 1742—Faneuil Hall completed and presented to the town of Boston. 1750—Quebec taken by the British after a battle memorable for the death of General Wolfe in the moment of victory.

Governors now in session in New Jersey declare that our present divorce laws are inadequate.

Members of the boarding house crowd will please rise and sing, "Shouting the Battle Cry of Freedom."

That windstorm in Michigan, southern Minnesota and Nebraska was so violent Monday that some folks thought a Bryan campaign must be on again.

In Fargo the other day a man got a shave for the first time in 60 years.

Because his wife hit him over the head with a skillet, William Grubb of Petersburg, Indiana, had his 75 year old wife arrested.

THE COUNTY FAIR.

If you never have attended a fair in Bemidji before, do so this year, and if you always have attended be sure to keep up the practice.

From time immemorial, sage and sulphur have been used for the hair and scalp.

In olden times the only way to get a hair tonic of this sort was to brew it in the home fireplace.

Just about the time folks were beginning to forget Whittier and the Red Wing school of torture—the fickle public's memory is short—the investigation is resumed and Ralph Wheelock goes on the stand and gives some manly, if not particularly important, testimony.

This preparation is offered to the public at fifty cents a bottle, and is recommended and sold by all druggists.

been about nine months since former State Senator Stephens asserted that cruelties existed at Red Wing. Since then legislative investigators discovered that the senator's assertions were founded on fact, the governor became convinced that Whittier was the wrong man to have at the head of a training school and the public has shuddered over stories of barbarisms of practices at Red Wing, and Whittier still sticks. There are times when it takes more than evidence to remove a man.

WHAT'S THE ANSWER?

After 65 years of Prohibition, Maine has voted in favor of the return of licensed saloons.

It would seem that Prohibition as a remedy for the evils growing out of the use of liquor is not a success.

Perhaps Maine now can advance some solution for the problem that certainly needs solving.

Or must the misery of the over indulgence of intoxicants continue? Blasted homes, ruined reputations, starving children, abused wives and grinding poverty are too dark pictures to cause much rejoicing over the failure of prohibition in Maine.

The Skeleton at the Wedding.

A. G. C. Liddell was once best man at a wedding at which one of the presents was, to say the least, unconventional. This is his story in "Notes From the Life of an Ordinary Gentleman."

"Considerable excitement was raised among the spectators when it was rumored that a tall oak box placed against the wall contained a skeleton, and all sorts of rumors were rife as to the significance of such a curious wedding gift.

The explanation was simple. An eccentric old gentleman had, once found the bride, who was fond of drawing, making a study from a skull and had vowed that he would give her a whole skeleton when she was married.

The result was that after protracted negotiation he secured the framework of an Austrian grenadier, which, I believe, it was found most difficult to import. This was not the sole trouble connected with the gift, as when the young couple set up house the servants shied at this strange inmate of the establishment, and he had to be presented to a hospital."

Yarmouth's Herring Feast.

The bloater is not generally considered to be the acme of style where a dinner is concerned, and as an article of diet it is generally believed to be almost exclusively used by the lower classes of society, yet Yarmouth, "the home of the herring," has its annual herring dinner, when the whole menu from hors d'oeuvres to cheese consists of herrings and sprats—the latter herrings in their infantile stage—served up in various ways.

Thus for once the herring is honored in accordance with its true value, for the dinner is presided over by the mayor of the borough and is attended by all the leading men of the town.

New Kind of Flute.

A large musician with a larger violinello hailed a hansom. "Drive me to King's Hall," he said. When, after a hard tussle, he had wedged himself and his instrument into the limited area of the cab, the driver cracked his whip and drove off.

"What's this?" demanded the driver. "Your legal fare," said the musician. "Yes, I know it's my legal fare for carrying you," retorted the Jehu, with a diabolical glance at the bulky instrument. "but what about that there flute?"—London Answers.

An Ironclad of 1855. It is generally supposed that the first use of armor for battleships was during the Crimean war. As a matter of fact, the Dutch claim to have been the pioneers of ironclad building more than 200 years ago.

TO AILING WOMEN

A Little Sound Advice Will Help Many a Sufferer in Bemidji

No woman can be healthy and well if the kidneys are sick. Poisons that pass off in the secretions when the kidneys are well, are retained in the body when the kidneys are sick.

Kidneys and bladder become inflamed and swollen and worse troubles quickly follow. This is often the true cause of bearing down pains, lameness, backache, sideache, etc.

When suffering so, try Doan's Kidney Pills, a remedy that cures sick kidneys. You will get better as the kidneys get better, and health will return when the kidneys are well.

Mrs. Thomas Wilson, 111 Park Ave., Bemidji, Minn., says: "I was troubled by disordered kidneys for three or four years and at times it was difficult for me to do my work. Having my attention called to Doan's Kidney Pills, I decided to try them and procured a supply. They gave me such great relief that I take pleasure in recommending them to other kidney sufferers."

For sale by all dealers. Price 50 cents. Foster-Milburn Co., Buffalo, New York, sole agents for the United States.
