"Miss Minnie Ness," says the Clearbrook Journal, "15 years old, daughter of Charles Ness, Clearbrook agent of the Standard Oil company, has put all the boys for miles around in the shade. A few days ago she laid a trap for a wolf, and captured it."

The home of Charles S. Carter, the cedar man, at Hines caught fire on Tuesday and for a time threatened the destruction of the building but by hard work the flames were extinguished. The fire started in the basement. Mr. Hines was slightly injured in his fight with the flames.

While working in Crookston camp No. 2, near Blackduck, John Anderson was struck by the branch of a tree he had been sawing, and was crushed to the ground, death being instantaneous. An effort is being made to locate relatives and if this can not be done the body will be interred at Blackduck.

John Ruesten, attempted to drink all the liquor in town last Tuesday, and was succeeding fairly well when he became so noisy that Chief of Police Harrington took him to the city jail and Wednesday in municipal court he paid a fine of $5 and costs. Edward McBarney paid a fine of $1 and costs, on a similar charge.

Last evening Merle Methven entertained a few of her friends at her home with a card-party. The evening was spent in playing Bunco and Pit, at which Minnie Huntosh won the highest score. The guests were Maude Slater, Hazel Hullett, Minnie Huntosh, Delbert Ellstrom, Lester Achenbach, Leslie Slater and Hiram Simons, Jr.

A HARMLESS WAY TO DARKEN THE HAIR

A Little Sage and Sulphur Makes Gray Hair Vanish—A Remedy for All Hair Troubles.

Who does not know the value of sage and sulphur for keeping the hair dark, soft, glossy and in good condition? As a matter of fact, sulphur is a natural element of hair, and a deficiency of it in the hair is held by many scalp specialists to be connected with loss of color and vitality of the hair.

If you have dandruff, or if your hair is thin or turning gray, get a bottle of this remedy from your druggist today, and see what it will do for you.
