RULES FOR OLYMPIC

Chairman of Committee Receives List of Regulations.

Amateur Is Defined and Description of Suits That May Be Worn is Given—No Attendants Allowed in Arena.

The rules which will govern the Olympic games at Stockholm, Sweden, next summer have been received in this country. They were sent to James E. Sullivan, chairman of the American Olympic committee, by Kristian Hellstrom of the Swedish Olympic committee. The executive committee of the American Olympic committee, which will go over them carefully, and such parts as require further explanation or interpretation will be taken up with the Swedish committee so that every one of them will be clearly understood here before the American team leaves for Sweden.

Under the general regulations the committee defines an amateur and also describes what kind of suits the athletes shall wear when in competition. Each contestant must wear a jersey with short sleeves and drawers to the knees and shall also have on back and front during competition a distinctive number corresponding to the number on the program. To prevent a repetition of the Dorando Basco of the London games no attendant will be allowed with a competitor during a race. The rule on this subject says:

"No attendant shall accompany any competitor in the arena or during any race; nor shall any competitor be allowed except with permission of judges to receive assistance or refreshment from any one during a race."

It is said an athlete who takes so-called drugs will become disqualified. Differing from the other Olympic races, the running will be against the sun, as it is in this country. In the hurdle races the hurdles will not be collapsible, such as are in use in this country. The rules state that the top rail or the hurdles shall be fixed fast to the upright supports.

In the relay races a round baton of wood about four inches in circumference will be used and must be passed from one athlete to another within 20 meters, 10 meters on either side of the starting place marked out for each competitor. This is different from the American rules, which merely require a "touch off."

The cross-country run will be held in diversified country over a course unknown to the competitors. The contestants will be forced to follow a marked course. It will start and finish in the stadium.

The rule pertaining to the standing high jump is somewhat different from the American rule. According to it a competitor may rock back and forward, tilting heels and toes alternately from the ground, but he may not move more than once his either foot clear from the ground nor more than once slide it along the ground.

The rules governing all the other jumps are similar to the rules in universal use, with the exception of a clause which says:

"If any competitor swerves aside at the taking off line or crosses the taking off line and touches the ground in front of it with any part of his foot such jumps shall not be measured, and it shall count against the competitor as one jump."

Jap Wins Football Honors.

A Japanese, H. Hirasawa, is among twenty freshmen at Stanford university awarded the block "11" for Rugby football. He is the first member of his race to obtain the coveted Stanford block numeral. He learned the English game while a student at an American high school.

Looking Up in Billiard World. Matters in the billiard world, which have been very quiet for a long time, are bound to liven up this winter. Several of the cracks will be seen in competition.

Three Good Indians. Each Wheat's an "Indian." Bender's an Indian and Thayer's an Indian too.

OLD-TIME REMEDY DARKENS THE HAIR

Gives Color, Lustre to Faded and Gray Hair—Dandruff Quickly Removed.

From time immemorial, sage and sulphur have been used for the hair and scalp. Almost everyone knows of the value of such a combination for darkening the hair, for curing dandruff and falling hair, and for making the hair grow.

In olden times the only way to get a hair tonic of this sort was to brew it in the home fireplace, a method which was troublesome and not always satisfactory. Nowadays almost every up-to-date druggist can supply his patrons with a ready-to-use product, skillfully compounded in perfectly equipped laboratories. The Wyeth Chemical Company of New York put up an ideal remedy of this sort, called Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Hair Remedy, and authorize druggists to sell it under guarantee that the money will be refunded if it fails to do exactly as represented.

If you have dandruff, or if your hair is turning gray or coming out, don't delay, but get a bottle of this remedy today, and see what a few days' treatment will do for you.

This preparation is offered to the public at fifty cents a bottle, and is recommended and sold by all druggists.
