Hibbing Ore: George H. Crosby, the founder of the town of Crosby, on the Cuyuna iron range, is offering to furnish seed potatoes free to everybody in the village of Crosby that will plant them in the ground within the village limits. He has also hung up a prize of fifty dollars for the best garden in the village. Mr. Crosby leaves no stone unturned that will tend to make Crosby the ideal home spot of the state, and that he is succeeding in making it such is evident from the rapid growth of community.

The shrewd investor does not put his money into every scheme presented which promises large returns; rather he is satisfied with the absolute security and liberal interest which is guaranteed on the Certificates of Deposit of the Northern National bank.—Adv.

Mrs. A. P. Ritchie planned a pleasant surprise for her husband last evening the occasion being his birth anniversary. When Mr. Ritchie returned from a trip to town he found a number of friends gathered at his home to help him celebrate. The evening was spent in playing cards. Those present were: Messrs and Mesdames Charles Schroeder, Clayton Winter, August Jarchow, and F. M. Pendergast. Lunch was served at 11 o'clock. Mrs. Ritchie was assisted in serving by Mrs. Jarchow. Mrs. Pendergast and Mr. Ritchie received the highest score.

Brinkman theatre. A double program tonight, and Wednesday. Shortman and his Pickannies, a happytime in Coon Town. The Eakes, Jovial mind readers. Xylophone Phinds, musical novelty. The Return of Lady Linda, a romantic costume drama in two parts. A magnificent and wonderful production.—Adv.

A fishing party composed of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Warfield, Evangelist I. E. Honeywell, Prof. and Mrs. L. A. Wegner, and son, Rev. and Mrs. W. S. Colegrove, Rev. and Mrs. Charles H. Fleisher and their guest, Mrs. Bertha Charlson of Fergus Falls, and Mr. and Mrs. A. A. Warfield went across the lake and down the Mississippi river fishing yesterday. They fished until noon and then went to the Warfield cottage where they had dinner. After dinner they went on to the Warfield dam. A number of large pickerel, pike, rock bass and perch were caught. Mrs. Wegner caught the largest fish of anyone in the party, it being a 30 inch pickerel, and it also was the first fish she ever caught. The party went out in the Warfield launch.

KIDNEY TROUBLE Is a deceptive disease—thousands have it and don't know it. If you want good results you can make no mistake by using Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root, the great kidney remedy. At druggists in fifty cent and dollar sample bottles. By mail free, also pamphlet telling you how to find out if you have kidney trouble. Address, Dr. Kilmer & Co., Binghamton, N. Y.

OBITUARY.

Rev. S. E. P. White received a message last evening that his oldest brother, Dr. R. P. White of Fort Wayne, Indiana has passed away. He had been sick for about two months. The funeral will be held Thursday. Rev. White returned a week ago from Indiana, having been called there by the illness of his brother. He was thought a little better at the time he left, although his heart was very weak.

CARD OF THANKS

We wish to extend our heartfelt thanks to the friends and neighbors who so kindly assisted us during the illness and death of our husband, son and brother, Clyde Peck. And we also wish to thank our friends for the many floral tributes.

MRS. CLYDE PECK,
MR. AND MRS. J. W. PECK,
GLEN PECK,
LUELLA PECK. —Adv.

Rheumatism Quickly Cured.

"My sister's husband had an attack of rheumatism in his arm," writes a well known resident of Newton, Iowa. "I gave him a bottle of Chamberlain's Liniment which he applied to his arm and on the next morning the rheumatism was gone." For chronic muscular rheumatism you will find nothing better than Chamberlain's Liniment. Sold by Barker's Drug Store.—Adv.

Bullock Ran Amuck.

Some excitement was caused in Wexford (Ireland) the other day, by the vagaries of a bullock, which ran amuck. The animal took refuge in the house of a man named Murphy and climbed the stairs and entered a bedroom. It demolished a large bed and other articles, and then took a "head on" into the street twelve or fourteen feet below, bringing with it the window frame and sashes. It escaped into the harbor, and swam about for a considerable time before it was captured by means of boats.

The Eternal Why.

"Papa," said an inquisitive boy "don't fishes have legs?" "They do not," answered papa. "Why don't they, papa?" "Because fishes swim and don't require legs." Then he asked, "Papa, ducks have legs, don't they?" "Why, yes, ducks have legs." "Well, ducks swim, don't they?" "Yes," "Then why don't fishes have legs, if ducks do? Or why don't ducks not have any legs if fishes don't?" Papa gave up.

Health a Factor in Success

The largest factor contributing to a man's success is undoubtedly health. It has been observed that a man is seldom sick when his bowels are regular—he is never well when they are constipated. For constipation you will find nothing quite so good as Chamberlain's Tablets. They not only move the bowels but improve the appetite and strengthen the digestion. They are sold by Barker's Drug Store.—Adv.

No Chance for Him.

A certain minister having noticed a new attendant for several consecutive Sundays, engaged her in conversation after service. Cordially shaking the young blond by the hand, the reverend gentleman asked her name, address, etc., and concluded by asking if he might call upon her. In a rather broken English and very Swedish intonation came this response: "No, tank you, I have a reglar feller."

Simply Couldn't Come.

The Judge—"Unless you have a most satisfactory excuse I shall have to fine you for contempt of court for failing to respond to the jury summons." The Taleswoman—"I meant no disrespect, judge, but I hadn't a thing suitable to wear, and I couldn't find a ready-made jury costume any place."

Generous.

For pure usefulness the hen should bear the palm, for she clucks joyously over the egg that is to furnish some one else with an omelette.

When Greek Meets Greek.

In these days of cautious avoidance of "sure things" can stock market gamblers survive the competition of "soetrack investment?"

Work for Men and Women.
After all, you know, there is room for both men and women in this world. Men have their work to do and women have theirs. It is the woman's work to provide for the inner man and it is the man's to provide for the outer woman.

At Least Nest Excuse.
On behalf of a man charged at West London with stealing milk bottles from doorways, it was suggested that he had become obsessed with the idea that milk baths would cure locomotor ataxia, from which disease he was suffering.

Apt Description.
Little Robert, who was just learning to talk, was never timid in thunder showers. During a heavy storm when the thunder and lightning were simultaneous he said: "Oh, mamma, see the pretty sunshine go bang!"

Happiness.
Happiness is peace after strife, the overcoming of difficulties, the feeling of security and well-being. The only really happy folk are married women and single men.—Smart Set.

Truth by Accident.
The best definition of a demagogue will always remain with the little girl of seven who said, "A demagogue is a vessel containing beer and other liquids."

Cure for Stomach Disorders.
Disorders of the stomach may be avoided by the use of Chamberlain's Tablets. Many very remarkable cures have been effected by these tablets. Sold by Barker's Drug Store.—Adv.
