Recent Speech Was- Most Notable Delivered on the Floor of the Senate.

By Congressman Clyde H . Tavenner. Washington, May 26 .- There is a new, commanding figure in the United States senate—a man unafraid a man who cannot be intimidated or browbeaten. He is Ollie M. James, the new senator from Kentucky. Massive of physique, but as tremendous mentally and courageous as he is big of bulk, Ollie James, in his recent Beach. tariff speech, achieved a great personal triumph over odds that would have dismayed a man of less bravery.

It has not been customary for a senator as new as Ollie M. James to make an extended speech.' Consequently, some of the Republicans attempted to "haze" Senator James by booing one of his ringing utterances. The hazers received very much of the worst of the encounter.

"I expected to hear some hoo-rahs from that side," James flung back in his booming voice. "The people last fall gave you enough to hold you silent for awhile."

For an instant there was consternation at the vigor of the thrust. Beach: Then the galleries burst into loud applause, further shattering the sen- geles. ate's dignity. Red with anger, Senator Gallinger rose and demanded go. Cal. had done its work. The hazers wilted, and not one attempted a reply.

Senator James showed that he is a master of oratory. The following were some of his utterances, and the reader can imagine their fire and ef-

"Mr. President, platforms are a bond of honor. This is a new age. dena-When we find our president, who was elected upon this platform, standing like a stone wall, demanding that it shall be carried out, it is no time for other men to falter.

"Our Republican friends passed a bill that in my judgment was a betrayal of their promises to the American people. If William H. Taft had had one-half the courage possessed by Woodrow Wilson, he would have vetoed that bill and bonfires would have burned in his honor upon every hilltop and in every valley in this republic. But he signed it, and the people called him to account.
