HIS PAPER REPRODUCED FOR FOREIGN ADVERTISING BY THE

AMERICAN PRESS ASSOCIATION

GENERAL OFFICES

NEW YORK AND CHICAGO

ADOLPH O. EBERHART HAS BEEN

retired to private life, but in leaving the duties of the state's executive officer he has the satisfaction and distinction of having piloted Minnesota's affairs through a stage of development and prosperity never equaled, and he may justly feel proud of his record.

Walter J. Smith, state treasurer,

Monday received $31,725, six months' interest on Virginia bonds held by Minnesota, and $39,525 as interest on Massachusetts bonds. The total amount of bonds of these states held by Minnesota is $2,145,000 of Virginia, and $3,025,000 of Massachusetts.

The "sub-standard" freshman is making good at the state university, if one may judge from a statement issued yesterday by the president's office. Nearly 90 per cent of those "twilight zone" freshmen admitted to the academic college last fall by virtue of the new entrance regulations have stood the test of artillery fire in class and quiz room, and are back at the front with the re-opening of the institution, following the holiday vacation. Only about 10 per cent of them were mowed down in battle.

EDITORIAL EXPLOSIONS

Any kind of a fool proposition can always find some supporters. An association in the southern part of the state is advocating the amendment of the Dunn road law so that all money raised in any locality shall be spent there, and the surprising thing is that the idea is approved by the farmers there.—Kerkhoven Banner.

The attorney general's proposal that bench warrants be made to run to all parts of the federal territory appears reasonable in view of the fact that at this time it is easier to extradite a fugitive from another country than it is to bring a man under federal indictment from one state to another.—Little Falls Transcript.

During the hard times of 1895 nature favoured us with the best crop that we ever had in northern Minnesota, although the price was very low. The prospects are that all kinds of farm produce will bring high prices next year, and the only way for the farmers to prosper is to raise the produce to sell. Prepare to put in a good big crop, instead of depending on getting an additional loan on your farm.—Sunbeam Sunbeam.

It seems certain that the legislature will re-enact a bill providing for a constitutional amendment permitting the creation of a revolving fund, the same as was embodied in the third amendment just voted on. The amendment lacked a few thousand votes of carrying and with a little more publicity would have pulled through. The crying need everywhere is for cheaper interest rates and if this northern country is to develop as it should, the tillers of the soil and the home-maker must be given a show. Railroads, manufacturers and city merchants can borrow money for about half what the farmer pays and still the success of the others depend on the farmer. He is the backbone of the country and if he fails the country suffers as a consequence.—Badger Herald-Rustler.

BULLETIN ANNOUNCEMENT

The notice in the university bulletin announcing the course is as follows: "Studies in general journalism will be offered. The first aim will be to give instruction in the art of writing for the press to the student who contemplates entering the profession of journalism or who wishes to familiarize himself with the demands of the art as a possible aid in other professions or in business."

To Write for Papers.

Agricultural publications will furnish a medium for the publication of the best of the students' productions. The students will write for the University Farm News, a bi-weekly news service publication to the papers of the state, the Extension Press Service, and the Minnesota Farm Review, the agricultural college alumni organ. The Minnesota Daily is also expected to profit by the output of the members of the new class. Practically the entire staff of the Daily is contemplating enrolling in the journalism course.

Prof. Kirkwood has had eighteen years of experience in journalism, covering work on daily papers and magazine writing, dealing especially with agricultural subjects.

NEWS ODDITIES

London—A letter written by Stoker Joseph MacDermott to his wife, was hurled into the sea when the Pathfinder was blown up by a submarine. A fortnight later the letter was found afloat by a traveler, mailed by a member of the crew and reached the wife. MacDermott was saved.

Copenhagen—Instead of playing hopkotch, as they used to do, the street gamblers of Berlin now play "Going to Paris." It's the same game with the name changed.

Paris—Petit Parisien says almost all the Algerian troops at the front are now dressed in velvet breeches.

Copenhagen—A German forger, compelled to serve in the army, carried great quantities of "queer" money into Russia when the Germans were in Poland and passed it with ease, thereby realizing a small fortune.

Milwaukee—A human pulmotor saved the life of Stella Cries, 17. Mrs. A. L. Anderson, a neighbor, found the girl and breathed into her lungs.

Chicago—"We were happy until my wife induced me to take out a life insurance policy for $2,000," said Valentine Dolas. "After that she told me constantly that I was worth more dead than alive." Delas was suing for a divorce.

French soldiers have renamed a village in France "Shrapnel Village" because there the Germans shelled the place for twenty-four hours and killed one chicken.

Germany has the only woman pilot of a military airship in the world.

BEMIDJI FOLKS

ASTONISH DRUGGIST

We sell many good medicines, but we are told the mixture of buckhorn bark, glycerine, etc., known as Adler-I-ka, is the best we ever sold. Bemidji folks astonish us daily by telling how QUICKLY Adler-I-ka relieves sour stomach, gas-on, the stomach and constipation. Many report that a SINGLE DOSE relieves these troubles almost IMMEDIATELY. We are glad we are Bemidji agents for Adler-I-ka. French & Co., druggists.—Adv.

His Stomach Troubles Over.

Mr. Dyspeptic, would you not like to feel that your stomach troubles were over, that you could eat any kind of food you desired without injury? That may seem so unlikely to you that you do not even hope for an ending of your trouble, but permit us to assure you that it is not altogether impossible. If others can be cured permanently, why not you? John R. Barker, of Battle Creek, Mich., is one of them. He says, "I was troubled with heartburn, indigestion and liver complaint until I used Chamberlain's Tablets, then my trouble was over." Sold by All Dealers.

AN OLD RECIPE

TO DARKEN HAIR

Common garden Sage and Sulphur makes streaked, faded or gray hair dark and glossy at once.

Almost everyone knows that Sage Tea and Sulphur, properly compounded, rings back the natural color and lustre of the hair when faded, streaked or gray; also ends dandruff, itching scalp and dopes falling hair. Years ago the only way to get this mixture was to make it at home, which is messy and troublesome.

Nowadays we simply ask at any drug store for "Wyneth's Sage and Sulphur Hair Remedy." You will get a large bottle for about 50 cents. Everybody who has used this old, famous recipe, because we can possibly tell that you darkened your hair, as it does it so naturally and evenly. You dampen a sponge or soft brush with it and draw this through your hair, taking one small strand at a time; by morning the gray hair disappears, and after another application or two, your hair becomes beautifully dark, wick and glossy and you look years younger.

Tell your druggist you want a small bottle of Ely's Cream Balm. Apply a little of this fragrant, antiseptic cream in your nostrils, let it penetrate through every air passage of the head; soothe and heal the swollen, inflamed mucous membrane, and relief comes instantly. It is just what every cold and catarrh sufferer needs. Don't stay stuffed up and miserable.
