a grocery store, runs his fingers into the sugar barrel and laps up a few ounces, takes a handful of nuts, then goes to the cheese and lops off a slice just to taste, then as a matter of course, must have a few crackers, perhaps by the time he has made up his mind to purchase a quarter of a pound of tea, he has eaten up the profits on two dollars' worth of groceries. To wind it up, after getting trusted for the tea, on which the merchant realizes a few cents' profit, he leaves the store munching two apples. This is no picture of imagination, but reality, except that sometimes the nibbler does not purchase any tea.—Exchange.
