

Come Without Mother

School boys who are big enough to go to school without mother are big enough to come to this store the same way and pick out a suit of clothes. Generally the boy is given what he prefers in clothes and parents may feel just as safe in sending the children here alone as if they came with them.

Boys may take home

—as many suits as they wish so that the parents can select for them right in the home, or better still telephone us and we will send the suits. If you like one and wish to buy, alright, if not you are obligated in no way. That's fair, isn't it?

A TABLET FREE

—with every purchase large or small. Boys' suits, by the way, can be had here either up or down from
