BIG ELEVENS TO MEET TOMORROW

Important Games on Football Calendar; Yale Meets Princeton; Penn-Mich.; Minnesota vs. Chicago.

By George E. Holmes.
(United Press Staff Correspondent)
New York, Nov. 12.—Tomorrow's football calendar is about as attractive as has been offered this season, headed by the Yale-Princeton, Pennsylvania-Michigan and Syracuse-Colgate games in the East, and the Minnesota-Chicago and Illinois-Wisconsin games in the West, which will have an important bearing on the championship of the Big Nine.

Yale Game Watched.
The Yale-Princeton game undoubtedly will attract a mammoth crowd. The supporters of the Blue will wander back to New Haven hoping against hope that Tom Shevlin has accomplished a miracle in the last two weeks and whipped a team in shape that will make a creditable showing against the Tigers. The Princeton partisans will drift back to cheer for what they believe is the best Tiger Eleven that has emerged from Old Nassau in years.

Shevlin Turns Trick?

Yale is hoping for a repetition of the 1910 feat. Yale faced Princeton in that year in much the same way—broken and shattered, with Tom Shevlin but two weeks at the helm, having been brought back by frantic calls for help. But the old Eli star upset the dope by pushing his demoralized charges to a 5 to 3 victory over the Tigers, and crowned the stunt a week later by playing Harvard to a scoreless tie when the odds were about 3 to 1 against him. Maybe Shevlin has turned the trick again this season.

Games Are Good.

Two elevens which have been finding the going rough meet at Philadelphia—Pennsy and Michigan. The result is not important, as both are weaker this year than for many seasons and long since out of the championship running. Up at Syracuse there promises to be a real battle. Colgate with one of the best elevens in her history and one of the best in the country faces a tough customer in Syracuse, who held Princeton 3-0. Colgate's hopes of remaining in the championship groove are on the game.

Maroons Lose Man.

Chicago's hope for a football championship were chilled to the freezing point when, as the University of Chicago squad started last night for Minneapolis, news was confirmed that Harry Flood, Coach Stagg's fullback and chief line plunger, would not take part in the game against Minnesota tomorrow. Failure to maintain the standing in his classes requisite for participating in athletics was given as the reason.

THANKSGIVING PROCLAMATION

St. Paul, Minn., Nov. 12.—Governor Hammond yesterday issued his proclamation designating Thursday, Nov. 25, as a day of Thanksgiving. The proclamation, in part, follows: "The people of Minnesota have special reason to give thanks to God for His blessings through and by which they have peace, contentment and the material things necessary for their welfare and wholesome enjoyment.

"Unfortunately some who possess more of the world's goods than they need give too little heed to others who through misfortune or other cause have less than actual necessities demand and so suffer. Will not the prosperous at this time look for those who are in want, relieve the distressed, help the fallen to rise and bring hope and cheer to the disconsolate for the sake of Him who has given us so bountifully?"

"There are no unusual disturbances; tranquility prevails; and there is little of the bitterness and strife leaving neighbor to suspect neighbor of evil designs or section to oppose section. But greatest of all, our nation is at peace.

"We pray that the terrible European conflict may end. We are thankful that we have been spared from the catastrophe that has come upon so many of the great nations of the world.

"So it is especially fitting that we should set apart a day for thanksgiving, and I do hereby, as governor of the state of Minnesota, proclaim Thursday, Nov. 25, 1915, as Thanksgiving day, and I do most earnestly call upon the people of our commonwealth on that day to meet at their usual places of worship in order that they may there better render thanks

Joe Orr Refuses To Sell

Sees Stoves Loaded in Front of Our Store and is Not Surprised at Buyers.

WANTS 25% MORE FOR HIS UNIVERSAL

As Joe Orr of Tenstrike passed our store the other day we were loading some Universal ranges for delivery about town and Joe was accosted with this remark:

"Want to buy a stove today?"
"Not today, Mr. Given. I bought one of those Universal ranges three years ago and you couldn't buy it back for 25 per cent more."

We just thought this would be a good news item for our friends to hear. Yes, we have more just like Joe who would not sell their Universal stoves if it could not be replaced with another.

THE CLOCK STOPPED.

Olaf Ongstad won the clock guessing contest, he having guessed nearest the time the clock stopped, which was 7:45 a. m., Tuesday, Nov. 9. The prize was a safety razor. Watch for the next offer.

Albert Nensen, one of the live, hustling farmers near Swenson lake, paid us a business visit Tuesday.

30 ROLLS OF ROOFING.

Father Thomas Bordinger of Red Lake paid us a visit Tuesday and by his order showed that he had lots of confidence in Certain-teed roofing paper and Universal stoves. We are shipping him 30 rolls of Certain-teed and two Universal heaters. We are sure he will not be disappointed.

Olaf Opsahl has been reading about our sales of Certain-teed roofing and building paper and concluded that goods which sold like these must have some merit. Olaf is laying our roofing this week.

WASHING MACHINE OUTFIT.

Champy Petrie, the Puposky thresher and farmer, paid us another visit this week. He wanted to know if we had washing machines of the same quality as Universal stoves. He is the proud owner of a Universal. We showed him a BIG 3 Washer that looked so good that we got his order for a washer, wringer and boiler. We feel sure he will be satisfied.

George Foley & Son bought a Herald stove at this store and had it shipped to St. Paul. We merely recite this to show it pays to buy in Bemidji even though you live in St. Paul.

GOODS OUT AND IN.

Yes, we were out of flash lights for just a day, but a new shipment has again been received. Come in, we have what you want.

These pocket knives are selling right along. Some days we sell a dozen, some days more and some less. Everybody seems to know that they can get better knives here.

SLAUGHTER BIG GAME.

We have the bullets here. Every kind for every make of rifle. The kind that surely kill. Our stock is complete. Telephone or come.

BUYS NEW UNIVERSAL HEATER.

B. H. Anderson, East Bemidji, who moved here from McIntosh and wanted the best kind of heater he could find. He finally decided upon a Universal. Keep in mind that this is the Universal store in Bemidji.

BUYS THRESHING MACHINE.

Carl Jurkovski, who lives near the power dam on the Mississippi, was in last week and bought a threshing machine in order to handle the grain raised in his community. Carl will be on the job for all the farmers whenever wanted.

BANNER STOVE DAY.

Tuesday was this week's banner stove day, six sales having been made at a total cost of nearly $200. One Universal stove sells another.

PEERLESS BASE BURNERS.

Big Day Tuesday Appeared as If Everybody Had Found Out About Them.

Tuesday was "Peerless Day" with us and the way we were making deliveries of these fine base burners indicated that nearly everybody in town knew about them.

WANT BETTER ROADS.

Farmers Hanson and Brockway of the Turtle River district paid us a visit this week. They tell us that they have the best land that lies out of doors.

And with the opening of lands near them for settlement that their sentiment is bound to come to the front. They want better roads and are entitled to them.

BUY FOOT WARMERS HERE.

This is the time of year when foot warmers are most needed. You will be surprised at the comfort they give and how little they cost. We have them from $1.50 and up. Let us warm your feet. No need to have cold ones.

SHINE 'EM UP—PHONE 57.

Our boys are the handy chaps at blackening stoves and replacing mica. When you have that kind of work to do, just call 57. It will be well done.

HOOT CINDERS FROM THE RANGE.

Good morning again.

It is the man and not the plan that brings success.

We don't suppose anybody ever prays for the Turks.

Our roasting pans are now waiting for them.

Insist to your wife that she is perfect and your own stock will go up a thousand per cent.

It's good for all of us.

Just glue your eyes to the good news in the ads in this paper and you will not even think of going anywhere else to do your Christmas shopping.

Even if we are a nation of money grubbers, there is some consolation in knowing that we have the money. It's the same way in the hardware business. Investigate.

Among those for whom we set up stoves were Earl Hazen, who bought a No. 700, and John Willis found a No. 600 to suit his needs. Both men used the best of stove judgment.
