
ABOUT THE CITY.

Dances and informal parties planned for next few weeks; band to give masquerade Jan. 21; skating taking its place, no longer a sport, but a fashion.

The next few weeks are planned to be of much gaiety in the social affairs of Bemidji. Several large dances have been planned and several informal and bridge parties will be given.

The Bemidji band will give a masquerade dance at the city hall Jan. 21. This dance is being advertised as the biggest masquerade ever given in Bemidji and we feel sure that it will be as good as the press notices announce, as the band boys are making elaborate preparations. An excellent music program will be given at the dance.

Other dances are being planned for the next two weeks, among them being a dance by several young men of the city who have formed the Question club.

Many skating and sleigh parties are being held. Ice skating and roller skating in Bemidji is no longer merely a sport but has become a fashion and requires fitting costumes. Skating is superseding dancing as the pastime of the hour. Very smart are the skating suits of several Bemidji skaters.
