YOU'LL always be right if you tie to "Tux," because that's the right tobacco, all right! Get a tin right away. Then the week and fifty-two weeks in the year. A pipeful of "Tux" gives you that money-in-the-bank feeling, like finding a ten-dollar bill in the vest pocket of last season's suit.

Tuxedo The Perfect Tobacco for Pipe and Cigarette

The original "Tuxedo Process" brings out the unsurpassed mildness, delicate fragrance and mellow flavor of the leaf in a way that has never been successfully imitated. At the same time it refines the tobacco until every trace of harshness and "bite" disappears. You will find in Tuxedo a smoke that is wholesome and in every way beneficial to both mind and body. Tuxedo is a mild, temperate tobacco that soothes and comforts with every whiff. Smoke all you like of Tuxedo!

YOU CAN BUY TUXEDO EVERYWHERE Convenient, glassine wrap- Famous green tin, with gold ped, moisture-proof pouch 5c lettering, curved to fit pocket 10c In Tin Humidors, 40c and 80c. In Glass Humidors, 50c and 90c. THE AMERICAN TOBACCO COMPANY

R. L. GOLDBERG Famous Cartoonist—Creator "Foolish Questions"—"I'm the Guy," etc. "I find in Tuxedo a good tobacco. Its fragrance and flavor are fine. I use it regularly and endorse it highly to all my friends." R. L. Goldberg

C. Neff of Northern was in Bemidji Monday transacting business matters, while on his way to Cass Lake, where his business interests will demand his attention for the next few days. Swanson, accompanied her on the return trip and will visit at the Dobleau home the rest of the winter. Mr. and Mrs. Fred Brinkman, son Edward, and the latter's wife, of Bemidji, Minn., who are visiting relatives here, expect to go east this week to visit Mr. Brinkman's brothers in Detroit and St. Thomas. Mr. and Mrs. Edward Brinkman were married in December and they are on their honeymoon, being accompanied by Mr. Brinkman's parents. The young couple have been deaf since infancy, the affliction of each being the result of illness. They attended school together and the romance which sprang up there has culminated in their happy marriage. Mr. Brinkman and bride were guests, with his parents, at the Moose dancing party Saturday night, and but few realized that the young couple were deprived of their hearing so enthusiastically did they enter into the enjoyments of the evening. The fact is, they were among the most persistent when it came to applauding encores. Boyhood friends of Mr. Brinkman will be interested in the success he has made in the northwest. He owns a hotel and theater business, now leased at large rentals, and in addition has considerable farm lands.—News, Michigan City, Ind.
