STATE GEOGRAPHICAL NAMES AND THEIR HISTORICAL SIGNIFICANCE

(Prepared by the Minnesota Historical Society for the United Press.)

CARVER COUNTY

Minnesota would have been very remiss had she failed to make a county for Jonathan Carver, the first Englishman to visit the region. Carver was a Connecticut Yankee who undertook to explore the Northwest after its acquisition from France in 1783 and spent the winter of 1766-67 with the Sioux on the Minnesota river. Later he published an account of his "Travels," the reliability of which is still a bone of contention among historians.

After Carver's death a deed was produced purporting to be a grant to him by the Indians of a large tract of land including most of St. Paul and part of Minneapolis. Although invalid in English law and rejected by congress, claims under this deed have been advanced again and only a few months ago certain property owners in Minneapolis were embarrassed by the filing of a mortgage said to be based on this deed.

ON DIVIDING THE STATE

Mankato Review: The ancient proposition for the division of the state of Minnesota by the creation of a new state out of the northern portion of this commonwealth is again to be urged, but it fails as before to meet with much popular response. There is really but very little reason for burdening the people of the area now included within the bounds of Minnesota with the support of two state governments. This might not actually double the expense of state government but it would certainly greatly increase its cost.

The principal thing that those who favor the proposition have in view is that there would be practically twice as many state offices as there now are to furnish jobs for aspiring statesmen. Not only would there be two governors where now there is but one and a duplication of all the other elective state offices, but there would also be four United States senators where there now are but two.

Poets and philosophers have invoked blessings on the man who makes two blades of grass to grow where only one blade grew before, but no sane philosopher is going to bless the man who duplicates official jobs in order to make more salaries for the taxpayers to provide for. Rather would his blessings be invoked on the one that devises means for simplifying government and making the list of salaried officials less numerous.

The proposition for state division will not be realized in Minnesota while the people retain their good judgment.

SEWER NECESSARY

The city of Bemidji is planning several public improvements this year, including paving and the construction of sanitary sewers.

Sanitary sewers are a necessity and we believe that this improvement should be taken up first. We believe that it is more of a necessity at this time than is the paving of a few blocks of street.

It is estimated that the cost of the construction of a sanitary sewer on America avenue, from Ninth to Thirtieth streets on Minnesota avenue, from Twelfth to Fourteenth streets on Beltrami and from America to Beltrami avenue on Thirteenth street would be $8,410.40.

The people on these streets and in this neighborhood should have this much needed improvement.

SCANDAL TRAVELS FAST

Sound travels 400 yards per second, but scandal travels twice as fast, according to Professor Benjamin Snow of the University of Wisconsin. He is an international authority on matters pertaining to physics. "Plattery also travels much faster than sound," says Professor

Snow, "but old truth lags way behind. The slowest sound to reach its destination, is the one emanating from a student's alarm clock."

RICHARD HARDING DAVIS

Richard Harding Davis is dead. He was one of the most popular of American writers, a playwright also, and a veteran correspondent of five wars, including the present. Among his well known novels were "Soldiers of Fortune," "Gallagher and Other Stories," "A Year From a Correspondent's Notebook," "The King's Jackal," "Captain Macklin," "Ransom's Folly," "The Bar Sinister," and "Vera, the Medium."

TROUT SATURDAY

The trout season will open in Minnesota next Saturday. The outlook for early trout fishing is good, according to reports, except where streams are frozen or inaccessible.

ARBOR DAY

Arbor day will be celebrated April 28. Special observance of the day should be held in the Bemidji schools.

EXERCISE AND GRECIAN BEAUTY

WHAT IT MEANS.

Many thousands of women are now-a-days paying attention to physical culture and the proper exercise of their body muscles, where, thirty years ago or fifty years ago there was no thought expended on this science which is quite necessary to physical beauty. The reason the Greeks, both men and women, excelled in beautiful and symmetrical forms was because of the attention they paid to the proper exercise. Then, too, they were untrammelled by corsets, shoes and the inconveniences of clothing. To the minds of some women the idea of physical exercise conveys only the idea of hard, fatiguing work. Mild exercise continued day after day is best for the body and spirits and health. Without proper exercise there can be no health, and without health there can be no real beauty.

There is no stronger proof of the sound remedial value of Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription than that it restores the wasted form to its wonted roundness.

The mighty restorative power of Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription speedily causes all womanly troubles to disappear—compels the organs to properly perform their natural functions, corrects displacements, overcomes irregularities, removes pain and misery at certain times and brings back health and strength to nervous, irritable and exhausted women.

It is a wonderful prescription prepared only from Nature's roots with glycerine, with no alcohol to falsely stimulate. It banishes pain, headache, backache, low spirits, hot flashes, dragging-down sensations, worry and sleeplessness surely and without loss of time. Sick women are invited to consult Dr. Pierce, by letter, free. Address Dr. Pierce, Invalids' Hotel, Buffalo, N. Y.

ave. n., and Miss Susie Rieschel, 2225 4th ave. n., send five-pound box of candy to soldiers in Mexico.
