STATE GEOGRAPHICAL NAMES AND THEIR HISTORICAL SIGNIFICANCE

(Prepared by the Minnesota Historical Society for the United Press.)

KOOCHICHING COUNTY

The name of this county was applied by the Chippewas to Rainy Lake and also to Rainy river and the rapids at International Falls. It is said to be a word derived from the language of the Grees who lived in Canada and has been translated as Neighbors. The county which bears the name was established in 1906.

SEA SERPENTS.

On the arrival of a British liner in New York the other day, it was announced that two German submarines had been seen at sea 1,200 miles out from Bordeaux.

Interest was added to the story by the statement that the submarines were headed this way. Evidently they were U-boats of a new and powerful type, capable of making the trans-Atlantic passage. Their purpose, it was assumed, was to cross the ocean and prey on munition ships sailing from American ports.

And in case of war between Germany and the United States, those fearsome craft would be on hand to attack the American navy. Or perhaps they would start an indiscriminate campaign of frightfulness against American shipping.

It developed that those submarines were mere products of excited imagination. Now that the thing is started, however, there will be no end to it. Sea serpents have gone out of style lately, but here is a good substitute. We may expect to hear every week or two during the spring and summer that U-boats have been seen headed for the United States or cruising off our coast.

Bathers at Coney Island, Revere Beach and Atlantic City are sure to see them with as much frequency as they used to see crested sea monsters in the offing.

WORK IN GARDEN.

Do you want to develop your muscles, and stimulate your appetite, and aid your digestion, and put more color in your face, and make yourself feel better all over generally and inside in particular?

Thirty minutes exercise a day will do it. Go out into the garden. Use a hoe, or a spade, or any of the tools necessary to produce something to satisfy the appetite you will be creating. Use your tools and your brains at the same time, and in the end you will be better physically and brighter mentally and your table will be well supplied with edibles that have cost you nothing but the exercise every normal constitution demands.

CLEAN UP YARD.

Take a look at your neighbor's yard. It may look better than yours. Your neighbor may even be cleaning it up while you are looking, when as a matter of fact you ought to be cleaning up yourself in order to make your yard look better than his. That's a way to make strangers look twice at a city they pass through.

History may resurrect it, but the rest of us have completely forgotten that Irish rebellion.

With the women in the British Isles outnumbering the men by 2,100,000, what would you consider a fair market price for a husband?

Pigs are everlastingly and eternally growing. And who wants to be a pig?

Read the ads yet? You can't afford to miss that bargain.
