STATE GEOGRAPHICAL NAMES AND THEIR HISTORICAL SIGNIFICANCE

(Prepared by the Minnesota Historical Society for the United Press.)

REDWOOD COUNTY The Dakota name for the Redwood river derived its significance from a straight slender bush with red bark which grows in abundance on the banks of the stream.

According to Featherstonebaugh, the geologist and explorer, the Indians dried the bark of this bush and mixed it with their tobacco, making what they called "Kinnee Kinnik." The county, established in 1862, and Redwood Falls the county seat, are named from the river.

PRIMARY ELECTION. Monday will be held a primary election at which candidates for state and county offices are to be nominated.

It is believed that there will be a small vote in all parts of the state. People appear to have little knowledge of what offices nominations are to be made for and of the qualifications of the candidates.

Surely the people of this state are capable of constructing more efficient election machinery than the primary election. A new system of elections or a change of the present system should be an important matter before the next session of the state legislature.

In the primary election next Monday, the race for the office of U. S. senator is perhaps the most important. Senator Moses E. Clapp, who has ably and efficiently represented the state in congress for several terms, is being opposed by Adolph O. Eberhart, former governor, Frank B. Kellogg and Charles A. Lindbergh, the present congressman for the Sixth district. The past record of Senator Clapp, it is believed, will nominate him. This is the first time that the voters of the state have had the opportunity to vote direct for the nomination of a United States senator.

In the gubernatorial race it appears that Governor J. A. A. Burnquist will be an easy winner over Samuel G. Iverson.

For lieutenant governor there are three candidates. James A. Peterson, Thomas Frankson and Dr. J. A. Gates. The candidates are all able men. It is generally conceded that Thomas Frankson will be nominated.

Julius A. Schmahl will be renominated for the office of secretary of state over E. K. Sampson by a very large majority.

For state treasurer, Henry Rines appears to be far in the lead of R. L. Johnson and Peter J. Schwarg, the other candidates.

It is believed that Judge Ira B. Mills will again be nominated for the office of railroad and warehouse commissioner. He is opposed by Elias Steenerson.

On the non-partisan ticket there are four candidates for associate justice of the supreme court—James H. Quinn, Albert Schaller, W. B. Anderson and Thomas Kneeland. Indications are that James H. Quinn and Albert Schaller will be nominated.

The democrats and prohibitionists have incomplete tickets.

C. B. Buckman is making a strong race for congressman in the sixth district. He is being opposed by Ed. L. Rogers and Harold Knutson. According to the Akeley Herald-Tribune, Hon. Frank M. Eddy says that Edward L. Rogers is practically out of the race and Mr. Knutson, who is well known by Mr. Eddy, has not the qualifications that a congressman of the Sixth district should have. In spite of the fact that Eddy has for years been politically opposed to Mr. Buckman, he says, "I am going to vote for Buckman because he is the only one of the three candidates that is fit to go to congress. Buckman was a faithful worker for this district when he was in congress." Buckman will carry Beltrami county by a large majority.

In the race for representative in the legislature the five candidates will run very close. The candidates are L. G. Pendergast, Charles S. Carter, Sam S. Sherman, E. W. Hannal, and Helic Clementson.

For judge of the probate court the candidates are Joseph F. Harris, M. A. Clark, Judge H. A. Simons and M. G. Stocum.

The candidates for county commissioner in the second district are V. E. Lindholm, B. A. Arneson, A. J. Hilden, Hans B. Insdahl and Albert Johnson.

In the fourth district William Lennon, county commissioner, is being opposed by B. M. Armstrong, C. O. Espe, Gustave Sandell, E. E. Schulke and Joseph Jerome.

In the fifth district, J. C. Thompson, county commissioner, is being opposed by Sam Ellis, W. H. Gish, Paul Haluptzok, Nils A. Otterstadt, Otto Simon and H. Wesley Wright.

In Bemidji, an amendment to the city charter will be submitted to the voters. The amendment provides for the installation of a white way and should receive the vote of every citizen in the city.

Don't forget to vote next Monday at the primary election.

A TRIAL WILL CONVINC YOU. NOTHING that we could say would so thoroughly convince you of the value of Chamberlain's Tablets as a personal trial. We can tell you of thousands who have been permanently cured of chronic constipation, indigestion, biliousness, sick headache and disorders of the stomach and liver, but this will have little weight with you as compared to a personal trial. That always convinces. Chamberlain's Tablets
