Official Paper of City of Bemidji. The Daily Pioneer receives wire service of the United Press Association.

THIS PAPER REPRESENTS FOREIGN ADVERTISING BY THE AMERICAN PRESS ASSOCIATION. GENERAL OFFICES NEW YORK AND CHICAGO. BRANCHES IN ALL THE PRINCIPAL CITIES

COUNTY OPTION. International Falls Press: Both the Bemidji papers are on the side of better government and are vigorously urging their readers to vote in favor of abolishing the saloons in the county by means of the county option law on August 14.

Baudette and Spooner will roll up a majority in favor of county option in spite of the fact that the saloon gang in those cities think they have all the voters under their thumb and will compel them to do their bidding.

Blackduck American: The sooner the saloons are wiped out of the entire county and it is freed of brewery and distillery influence, the sooner will the entire county start on the road to prosperity and greater development.

For years prior to the ousting of the saloons from Blackduck their baneful influence in retarding development of the country tributary to this village was easily discernible. On August 14 voters will be given an opportunity to vote on the question of banishing the saloon from the county under the county option law and there ought to be a tremendous majority in favor of a dry county.

REJECTED ADVERTISING. During the past few months the Pioneer has rejected thirteen advertising contracts from out-of-town concerns whose lines would be in direct competition with local business houses. The aggregate amount in dollars and cents is approximately $500.00.

The lines represented include dry goods, drugs, furniture, electrical fixtures, auto tires, men's clothing, hardware, women's wearing apparel, quack doctors, patent medicines, florists and musical instruments. In each instance the Pioneer advised them that it would not accept business which would directly compete with local merchants.

Our local institutions are entitled to this protection and many of them appreciate it. Some have never given it a thought while others have never known of these conditions. Then again there are the indifferent kind, who think it makes no difference. To those we wish to impress the fact that if it pays the out-of-town merchant to buy space in your local newspaper, it might pay you as well. It is a thought which, if properly considered, should make you, Mr. Business Man, a regular advertiser.

CAUSE OF WORRY. The giant U-Boat Deutschland, which made history by cruising from Germany to America with a $700,000 cargo of merchandise, is scheduled to start back to Germany today with a cargo of badly needed supplies for the Fatherland.

If, as the promoters of the commercial agency that built the Deutschland claim, this is only the beginning of undersea commerce between the two countries, the British blockade not only has been permanently pierced, but Great Britain faces a crisis in her commercial export trade, according to what is being said and done in London.

Some time before the Deutschland arrived, the merchants and manufacturers of England were frightened by the seemingly authentic report that Germany had stored up $1,800,000,000, or nearly two billion dollars worth of goods ready to dump on the markets of the world after the war. The Britishers organized at once the Association of Trade Prospective societies, with 50,000 members and adopted a resolution urging the government to help head off the flood of German goods through the establishment and operation of a ministry of commerce.

Should the undersea commerce venture of Germany, while the war is still in progress, prove practical on a big scale, England will be powerless to crush the Teutonic commercial competition and will, it is believed, face a serious situation in dealing with her world markets, particularly after the war and somewhat immediately.

SURVIVORS OF CO. B, FIRST MINNESOTA, HAVE LAST MAN'S BANQUET

(By United Press) Stillwater, Minn., July 21.—Wierdites attended the annual meeting of the "Last Man's Banquet Club," an organization composed of survivors of Company B, First Minnesota. The banquet was held this afternoon, the anniversary of the battle of Bull Run.

There were 32 survivors of the company at the close of the Civil war, today there are only eight. Three of these eight were absent today.

Louis Hospes, a father of one of the "boys," when the club was first organized, presented the club with a bottle of one. It was decided that the bottle would not be opened until there was but one survivor and he would hold a banquet and drink a toast to his departed comrades. The names of all the members were written on the bottle. Each year the names of the dead members are erased. At each banquet chairs are placed for the entire company, the chairs for the dead comrades being draped in black crepe.

Today when the comrades told of the "days of the war" and swapped stories, they would look at the wine and then at each other and the one question that arose on their faces was—who?
