
 "THE NE'ER-DO-WELL" TO BE SHOWN
 AT GRAND THEATER FRIDAY AND SATURDAY

Overwhelmed by the magnitude of the Panama canal, Kirk realizes how useless he has been.

The film version of Rex Beach's "The Ne'er-Do-Well" will be shown at the Grand theater Friday and Saturday. There will be two shows daily, one at 2:30 o'clock in the afternoon and one at eight o'clock in the evening.

The picture was produced by the Selig Polyscope company of Chicago, and is one of the most remarkable moving pictures ever staged. Although it takes fully two and one-half hours to run, there is not a scene that could be eliminated without detriment to the continuity of the picture.

The acts are swift and full of incident, the exciting episodes numerous, and the tension does not let down between times, as is the case with most pictures that we see on the screen.

A large and complete cast is headed by Kathryn Williams and Wheeler Oakman, and the entire company which made "The Spoilers" famous.

In order to acquire the requisite atmosphere, the entire company spent several months in Panama, and the result has proved well worth the trouble and expense.

The exterior scenes are striking and beautiful, and at all times there is the interest of a strange country, people and customs.

"The Ne'er-Do-Well" features Wheeler Oakman and Kathryn Williams and an all-star cast.

The hero is Kirk Anthony, a college graduate and veteran football player, and since graduation the coach of his university team. On the evening following a football victory the last of the season, Kirk and others start out to celebrate. Late that night he finds himself on ship-board, and when he awakens he is without money and without baggage.

During the voyage, Kirk becomes acquainted with a woman—a Mrs. Stephen Cortlandt—whom he learns to admire very much. She is really a diplomatic agent of great influence. One day while Kirk is out hunting he meets in a forest bower a Spanish girl who is known only as "Chiquita." He falls desperately in love with her, and tries vainly to discover her identity.

The story of his making good, of his winning of Chiquita despite the counter-plottings of Mrs. Cortlandt, of the clearing of his name, and of the final decisive intervention, in Panamanian affairs of old Darwin K. Anthony, is strongly engrossing and varied by many richly humorous episodes.

Chiquita is by far the most charming feminine character Rex Beach has drawn, and Kathryn Williams as Edith Cortlandt is an exceeding, convincing and fascinating type.

ST. PAUL BOY IN THE RUNNING.

A ST. PAUL BOY is a possible winner of the big 75-mile continuation race, which is to be held as a feature of the auto races at the Minnesota State Fair, Sept. 6 and 9. Fred Horey, formerly of St. Paul, has driven so well in the last two years that he has achieved an international reputation for his ability. He will also take part in a special match race against another Northwest driver, unnamed as yet, for the championship of the Northwest. It will be one of the hottest races at the fair.
