THE COST OF DEMOCRACY.

Nearly one thousand million dollars has been the cost to the people of the United States of their experiment in entrusting the affairs of the nation to the Democratic party.

Total $3,799,915,756.99

These expenditures do not, in either instance, include expenditures for the Panama canal.

1914 $1,032,407,588.41 1915 1,094,275,613.55 1916 1,095,357,963.72 1917 (incomplete) 1,624,543,257.93

Total $4,846,584,423.61

Deducting the expenditures of the Republicans from those of the Democrats, the remainder reaches the enormous total of $1,046,668,666.62.

It will be conceded, of course, that the increased cost of preparedness should also be deducted.

When these figures are read in the light of the Democratic platform its condemnation of Republican extravagance, etc., they afford a striking example of how far the Democracy has failed to square its performances with its promises.

"TAKE YOUR TIME" HAS NO PRECEDENT

By HAMILTON (United Press Staff Correspondent) New York, Sept. 14.—John K. Tener, president of the National league, is one man who doesn't understand why every young pitcher who goes in to the big league is admonished, even after he becomes a veteran: "Take your time."

"The best of the pitchers, men who have made baseball history, did not do it," Tener said today, "and if there is anything in following an effective man's method to gain the same sort of effectiveness, the young pitcher is gaining nothing by taking his time."

Tener pointed out that when a pitcher begins to get nervous, when the opposition begins to pickle the ball for base hits, the fans begin to roar: "Take your time!"

"And it was not done by any of the famous pitchers," he said. By way of proving his contention

Tener picked out Radbourne, McGinnity, Mathewson, Rusie, Rucker, Miner Brown and Alexander, present day marvel.

"They all worked fast," he said. "Mathewson was one of the fastest workers I ever saw and McGinnity, Radbourne and Rusie were all speedy workers. Alexander, who holds a world's record for shutout victories in one season, is a fast worker.

"Perhaps, if the fans were aware of these facts they might cry out for the pitcher to speed up when the game went wrong."

Tener was quite a marvel as a pitcher himself back in the days when baseball was just beginning to make its popularity reach a high spot. So he was asked how he worked.

"Well," he replied, "I wasn't a speedy pitcher, but I noticed that I always worked better when I worked fast."

Tener made no attempt to give a reason for the effectiveness of the pitcher who worked fast, but he admitted that a great many slow working pitchers, probably, are just as effective as the men who fire rapidly from the mound.

"I never took the trouble to notice any slow pitching men and study their effectiveness as a class," he said. "However, I noticed that a great many of those who took their time on the mound didn't last a long time in the big show. I guess their arms get colder than if they worked with some 'pep!'"

So, if Tener's judgment is worth anything it might be well for the rookie pitcher to study effectiveness while working at a fast pace. Anyway, he will have the consolation of knowing that some of the game's greatest workers were men who used rapid fire tactics in putting the ball up to the batter.

Heinie Zimmerman, who recently was traded to the New York Giants by the Cubs, declares he is supremely happy in his new surroundings. Heinie is a resident of New York and probably would rather play at the Polo grounds, where he is idolized to a certain extent by Bronx fans.

Mike Mowery, who was unconditionally released by the Pirates, and then was taken up by the Dodgers, is playing the best baseball of his career. He is fielding like a demon and his hitting has been at the most opportune moments.

Minneapolis, Minn., Sept. 14.—Twelve seasoned Minnesota football veterans are ready to answer the call that will send Coach H. L. Williams into the seventeenth year as coach of the University of Minnesota football stars.

Only four players from last year's eleven are definitely lost. They are Dunningan, right guard; Al Quist, right end; Turquist, left tackle, and Bunny Bierman, halfback.

PEAT LANDS WILL BE LOOKED INTO

Thief River Falls, Minn., Sept. 14.—Arrangements are being made by Senator D. P. O'Neill, chairman of the Commercial club committee on peat lands, for an exhaustive inquiry into the subject and a visit on the part of experts from the department of agriculture to these lands in Northern Minnesota in the hope of eventually solving a problem of special interest to owners.

PROPOSES TO STOP BLACKLIST BY LAW

Buenos Aires, Sept. 14.—Representative Avellaneda is waging a vigorous fight in the Argentine congress for passage of a bill, introduced by himself, prohibiting in this country all commercial practices of the nature involved in the British blacklist of enemy firms in business in foreign countries.
