

What Society is doing

A very pretty wedding took place last evening at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Bert Getchell, when Miss Eva Getchell, their daughter, was united in marriage to Arthur Larson of Northfield, Minn. Rev. S. E. Gregg of Littlefork, a brother-in-law of the bride, read the wedding ceremonies. About 20 guests were present. Miss Getchell wore a white organdy gown and carried a bouquet of roses. A wedding supper followed the ceremony. Among the out-of-town guests were Mr. and Mrs. G. Larson and daughter, Edith, of Northfield, Rev. and Mrs. S. E. Gregg of Littlefork, Mrs. L. L. Omdahl of Bagley, Mr. and Mrs. H. A. Sivertsen of Grand Forks, N. D., and Albert Dahly of St. Paul. Mr. and Mrs. Larson will make their home at Crookston where Mr. Larson is an instructor in the agricultural college.

THEATRES

Grand Theater.
Ethel Clayton is given the feature role in a splendid cast assigned to the six-reel production of "Dollars and the Woman" by the Lubin company of Philadelphia which will be shown at the Grand theater tonight. The photoplay scenario was made by Mark Swan from Albert Payson Terhune's notable story published under the title of "Dollars and Cents."

Those who insist upon digging into everything until a moral is unearthed will not have to hunt far in "Dollars and the Woman" before perceiving that the married woman who, even innocently, accepts financial assistance from any other man than her husband is see-sawing on the brink of a precipice. And when her husband is poor and her benefactor is not only wealthy but a former suitor for her hand she is lighting matches in a powder factory.

Rex Theater.
In the American-Mutual feature, "The Little Troubadour," at the Rex theater tonight, Vivian Rich appears as the abused little slave and again as the adopted daughter of the wealthy but grumpy old banker. In the two distinct roles this winsome young star gives ample proof of her recognized abilities as an emotional actress.

The fun makers at the Rex tonight are the extremely comical George Ovey, who appears in "Jerry's Big Luck," and the lanky but strong and active Rube Miller in "Jealousy a la Carte."

Nowadays, the Good Dresser Wears Tailored to Measure Clothes and Buys Them at a Moderate Price—

Two features are very apparent where one sums up the good dress situation nowadays—the first, that good dressers wear tailored to measure clothes—the second, that they no longer pay "fancy" prices for them.

The first fact is due to the general "dressup" wave that is sweeping the country—convincing all men that individuality, distinction, personality, are quite as important features of clothes as the cloth and the pattern. And custom made clothes emphasize these points.

We're pioneers in the movement to supply fine custom clothes at prices that all men can afford.

It has always been our idea that the only thing that prevented any man from wearing custom tailored clothes was his belief that their price was high—therefore, if we could reduce that price we would increase our volume and be able to afford the reduction.

This is exactly what we have done. You can buy tailored to measure clothes here at very moderate prices. The styles are original and unique, the woollens are standard and reliable, the patterns are striking—the clothes are fully guaranteed throughout.

The Continental Tailors of Chicago have helped us make this condition possible.
