HOLLWEG EXPECTED TO THROW GAUNTLET TO CRITICS AT THE REICHSTAG OPENING

Interest Centers on Expected Fight; Leaders are Ready to Support Hollweg.

CRITICS MAY UNITE TO PREVENT FRICTION Stormy Session of Reichstag is Evident; Attacks are Ready to Be Launched.

May Get Support. Before the session today an anti-Hollweg leader said that if Hollweg assumed a strong stand against England he would receive the support of a majority of the members.

Socialist Arrested. The absence of Dr. Liebknecht, Radical Socialist, arrested several weeks ago for taking part in a disturbance in Berlin, will certainly not contribute to a calm session, though Liebknecht was probably the reichstag's most disturbing member.

MOVE CONSIDERED PRO-GERMAN, SAYS LLOYD GEORGE IN FIRST INTERVIEW

British Have Only Begun to Fight, Says Successor of Lord Kitchener.

ATHENS SAYS GREEK ARMY IS READY FOR WAR

Expected That King Constantine Will Make an Important Declaration Today.

(By United Press) Editor's Note.—The following interview with David Lloyd George, directing force of Great Britain's armies, asserting war must go on to the finish, is the first statement given to American newspapers since he succeeded Kitchener.

Authority for Statements.

The United Press is able to make these statements upon the authority of Right Honorable David Lloyd George, secretary of state for war.

"The British have only begun to fight," Lloyd George said. "We have already sacrificed thousands of our best lives to purchase immunity for civilization. This investment is too great to be thrown away."

"The war will be continued more than at any time since the beginning of the war, according to Lloyd George. There is evidence in England of a suspicion toward America which did not exist a year ago. This is due to the popular suspicion that President Wilson might attempt to butt in with a purpose of stopping the European war. A similar suspicion is also held against Spain."

No Infantry Attacks.

Paris, Sept. 28.—The official statement today says that the French artillery again shelled the German organizations on the Somme front last night. No infantry attacks were made.

Paris, Sept. 28.—The Bulgarians have taken a few elements of the Serbian trenches in attacks on Kamatichalam Ridge but suffered such heavy losses that attacks were not renewed. All other Bulgarian attacks in Macedonia were repulsed.
