

OVER $500 IS RAISED ON FIRST DAY OF ELKS' BIG CARNIVAL

Proceeds to Be Used on New Home Under Construction; 30 Arrests by Kangaroo Court.

RACE FOR QUEEN IS VERY CLOSE

Everyone Has Entered Spirit and "Big" Time Has Been Planned for Tonight.

Over $500 was raised at the Elks' big carnival last night, the opening night. This money will be used to aid in the construction of the Elks' new home which is under construction at the corner of Fourth street and Beltrami avenue.

The opening of the carnival was very much a success. "Strings of dignity were let loose" and joy reigned supreme. Everyone entered the spirit of the occasion and never before was there so much merriment in Bemidji.

Many Merry-makers. The armory where the booths and kangaroo court were in operation and the city hall where the dance was given were filled with merry-makers and the fun lasted until late last night.

The kangaroo court during the evening did a big business. Twenty-five men were arrested and paid fines amounting to $30.75. Two broke jail, one wrote an I. O. U. for the fine, one promised to pay a fine when he had money and one fine was suspended.

When Eduard Netzer and Phil Gill were arrested, John Morrison, who acted as judge, adjourned court for an hour and locked the men in the jail. Netzer escaped and the city is on a "man hunt." Every indication is that Netzer will be captured again and locked up.

Lose Cuff Keys. When Bob Osborne and Fred W. Langdon were arrested by kangaroo court officials they were handcuffed together and the handcuff key was lost. After searching around the city for some time a duplicate key was found. The men were fined.

Eugene Berthold Berman, who arrived in the city last evening where he went to meet the senators, took hold of court affairs last night and promised to make many arrests today. Several judges occupied the bench last evening. George Stein was clerk of the court.

Expensive Dog. Business at the different booths was on a large scale. The "dog" booth was especially busy and many persons went away with valuable dogs. Mayor Charles Vanderluis has a seven dollar dog at his home. The dog, however, has not been tagged and kangaroo court arrests may follow.

The race for queen of the carnival is very close. At one time yesterday Marie Klein was in the lead, at another time Mable Kittleson lead and later Anna McManus was leading. They are running very close today and everyone is urged to vote for their favorite today.

Many at Dance. The dance at the city hall was one of the best in Bemidji for some time. Confetti and paper streamers were much in evidence and the dancers "tripped the light fantastic" until late at night.

The Minnesota Electric Light & Power company turned on the arch street lights last night and will continue with them until Saturday night as a donation to the carnival.

Big plans have been made for the entertainment tonight and it is believed that a much larger crowd will take part in the merrymaking.

The "colored" orchestra with the Uncle Tom's Cabin company will furnish the music at the dance.

The following were in charge of the booths at the armory: Associated charities: Mrs. Thayer C. Bailey, Mrs. D. B. Fuller, Mrs. A. Lord, Mrs. E. A. Barker and Mrs. E. H. Smith; food booth, Mr. and Mrs. A. L. Barker, Miss Verna Barker and Scott Stewart; ham and bacon, M. F. Willson, Elks' pillows and pennants, Alex Doran in charge; flowers, Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Elliott; novelties, Mr. and Mrs. George Elliottson and Florence Gratton; dolls and Teddy bears, B. R. Erickson, Nat Given and James Parmalee; Indian novelties, Mr. and Mrs. William Smith; buster dogs, Charles Dalley, Margaret McDonald, Marie Horner, Mary Jackson, Anna Jackson, Helen Shannon, Agnes Strand, Anna Benda, Mrs. George T. Baker and Mrs. Ed French; The Eastern Onion Telegraph company, Miss Charlotte Oaks; confectionery, Mr. and Mrs. Ross Runnells; confetti, Art Gould, Miss Dolly Koors and Edna Anderson.

W. J. Baker, editor of the Democrat, and family and L. Prchal and families of Le Sueur Center motored to Bemidji, a distance of 311 miles, and are guests at the home of Er. Gould.

J. Carry Smith, a representative of the National Purity Federation, delivered an address at the church meeting at the Presbyterian church last evening.

SPECIAL REPORT FOR WORLD'S SERIES

The Pioneer has completed arrangements to thoroughly cover the world's series baseball games. A special wire of the United Press running directly from the baseball parks at Brooklyn and Boston to St. Paul and relayed to Bemidji will carry an account of the games for the Pioneer.

BURNQUIST IS AGAINST EXTRA SESSION OF THE LEGISLATURE

Seeks Another Way of Letting the Guardsmen on the Border Vote.

"ADJOURNED SESSION" MEMBERS HERE TOMORROW

Will Be Taken to State Park Sunday and Banqueted at Douglas Lodge.

Although members of the "adjourned session" of the state legislature passed resolutions asking that Governor Burnquist call an extra session of the legislature to provide for votes for members of the Minnesota National guard on the Mexican border, Governor Burnquist will attempt to find another way to let the guardsmen vote.

Asks Attorney General. He will ask the attorney general whether some legal method can be devised to enable the men to vote at the November election. A prompt reply has been asked because an extra session must be called at least 30 days before the election, Nov. 7.

To Lumber Camp. Tomorrow afternoon they will come to Bemidji and will be taken to Neeley's Siding where they will be given a "lumber camp dinner." They will return to Bemidji in the evening and will be entertained at the Elks' carnival.

Sunday-morning they will be taken on an automobile tour to the state park where they will be given a banquet at Douglas Lodge Sunday noon. They will motor back to Bemidji Sunday afternoon and board their special train for home Sunday night.

DEAD OR ALIVE REWARD OF $500 IS OFFERED

The county commissioners of Itasca county have offered $500 reward for the capture of the assailant of Ioga Dahl, "dead or alive."

Sheriff Charles Gunderson has also been ordered to purchase and start training a pair of bloodhounds at once. "The need of the dogs is so unsettled a section as Itasca county has been clearly shown," said one of the commissioners.

STATE OFFICIALS SIEZE RAW MILL LUMBERTO COVER CLAIM OF $2,200

Property of O'Brien & Callahan at Ray, Koochiching County, is Taken.

STATE CLAIMS MONEY FOR ILLEGAL CUTTING

First Seizure of Its Kind Ever Made in the State; Other Companies Give Bonds.

Raw mill lumber and other property of O'Brien & Callahan at Ray, Koochiching county, was seized by order of State Auditor Preuss. The seizure was made to protect the state on its claim of $2,200 filed against O'Brien & Callahan for timber illegally cut on state lands.

In most cases, according to Oscar Arneson, clerk in charge of the timber contracts in the state auditor's office, lumber companies have given bonds in excess of claims, but in this case the bonds given were only $900. The property seized will be sold at auction at the state auditor's office.

TELEGRAPH BRIEFS

Winnipeg, Man., Oct. 6.—Because bakers are still selling 20-ounce bread for seven cents a loaf, club women today launched a movement to teach at least the coming generation of housewives how to bake bread. St. John's and Kelvin Technical high schools have found that the loaf can be baked for 4 1/2 cents, and they claim this loaf is more nutritious than either the baker's loaf or the average housewife's unscientific bread, which they claim, can be made for 3 4/7 cents.

Minneapolis, Minn., Oct. 6.—With flour milled in Minneapolis selling for 20 cents a barrel less in Boston than in Minneapolis, millers today predicted $10 a barrel for flour, at retail, and $2 a bushel for wheat to the farmer. Unless rain falls in Argentine quick, one said $2 wheat is almost a certainty this month. Flour opened quiet today, with patent firsts, the highest grade flour, getting few buyers at $8.60 to $8.80. Some millers this week were reported to get $9 a barrel for flour in carload lots, but that price was thought exceptional, rather than average. Second grade flour sold today at $8.40 to $8.60 with flour usually used in pastry and by bakers selling at $7.20 to $7.30. With flour prices this week the highest in 40 years, spot orders were few. There were practically no deferred orders. Business for this time of the year is unusually slack.

New York, Oct. 6.—Mother Jones' instructions to the striking car men's wives to "play hell" showed results in the police court this morning. Three men and six women were arrested in a fierce melee, an outgrowth of the traction strike.

New York, Oct. 6.—"New York is too quiet. The traction strike is too much like a picnic. I am going to stir it up through the women." That is what Mother Jones, 86, told the United Press today. "The metropolis will see fireworks before I am done. This labor trouble here will start a revolution all over the country. It is really the women who start reforms and revolutions. This town is money mad."

Washington, Oct. 6.—The weather bureau promises pretty fair baseball weather in Boston tomorrow.

New York, Oct. 6.—The milk strike situation is not changed. Producers refused today to accept a month's contract.

Rutland, Ill., Oct. 6.—The same of the state bank here was blown early this morning and $6,000 taken. The yeggmen have not been captured.

Philadelphia, Oct. 6.—Six persons were arrested today charged with a holdup at Atscon, N. J. The holdup resulted in the killing of Henry Rider of Howell, Mich., and the wounding of Andrew Rider and daughter of New Jersey.

Chicago, Oct. 6.—An extension of an eight-hour day to all women was urged today when the women's trade union met here for a three days' session.

Boston, Oct. 6.—World's series ticket speculators are working brazenly open. They are even advertising in the newspapers.

London, Oct. 6.—Orville Wright, noted American aeroplane inventor, has presented all his patents free of charge to England, the aviation magazine today says.

New York, Oct. 6.—A conspiracy to assassinate Theo. P. Shone, president of the Interborough Rapid Transit company and Frank Headley, general manager of the same corporation, will be charged against two men who are detained at police headquarters, the police announced late last night.

Minneapolis, Oct. 6.—Senator Ole O. Sageng of Dalton, the champion of woman suffrage and famous as the "man without a party," will take the stump for Charles E. Hughes and the Republican state ticket. He will speak for the last two weeks of the campaign under the auspices of the Republican state committee.

St. Paul, Oct. 6.—Property left by James J. Hill, railroad builder, subject to probate in Minnesota court, is valued at more than $2,000,000, by his son, Louis W. Hill, in an inventory furnished appraisers of the estate today. The inventory does not include several parcels of real estate in the Northwest, or Mr. Hill's property in other states. Stocks and bonds are also entered as par and the market value will be largely in excess of figures given. The total estate is not yet known, but will run several millions higher than the total of the inventory made public yesterday. The inheritance tax in Minnesota is estimated at $1,500,000.

Chicago, Oct. 6.—Former U. S. Senator Albert J. Beveridge opened his western speaking tour in behalf of Charles E. Hughes here last night. He attacked the administration foreign policy, claimed Republican credit for the constructive legislation of the administration and declared the prosperity of the present was "sectional, spotted and stained."

BULGARIANS EVACUATE SEVERAL SMALL VILLAGES, SAYS REPORT FROM BERLIN

BULGARIANS DRIVEN FROM BULGARIAN SOIL

Salonica, Oct. 6.—The Bulgarians are retreating before the British on the Struma front.

ALLIED ARMIES FIGHTING WAY TOWARDS MONASTIRE IN MACEDONIA, BALKANS

London, Oct. 6.—The British are driving back the Bulgars in severe fighting on the Struma front. The town of Nevoien has been occupied without a loss.

Berlin, Oct. 6.—The Bulgarians have evacuated several small villages on the east bank of the Struma where the British have begun a new offensive. In Transylvania, Field Marshal Falkenhayen has won a new victory over Rumanians, driving the enemy's center back across Vromhod.

London, Oct. 6.—The British on the Somme front have advanced their positions farther east in the direction of the Bapume highway.

Rome, Oct. 6.—The allies have informed Holland that any peace move by her will be construed as pro-german.

Sofia, Oct. 6.—Not a single Rumanian soldier of the 15,000 that crossed the Danube remains on Bulgarian soil. The Bulgarians repulsed a British attack near Nevoien.

London, Oct. 6.—Two allied armies are fighting their way toward Monastire in Macedonia, after having defeated the Bulgarians in two pitched battles.

Boston, Oct. 6.—Characterized at a court hearing as "the meanest man in the world," Arthur E. Houde of Newton will be brought on trial before Judge John C. Kennedy in Cambridge tomorrow on the charge of shooting his wife.

New York, Oct. 6.—To insure perfect sanitation of the dishes from which food is eaten, they should be washed and rinsed in boiling water, according to a health bulletin just issued by Dr. Samuel G. Dixon.

St. Paul, Oct. 6.—Buying rotten eggs at the dump for a half a cent a dozen, Issadore Menselsohn kept a few chickens for a "comealong" and advertised "strictly fresh eggs, forty-five cents a dozen." He was arrested, pleaded guilty and was fined.

Buffalo, N. Y., Oct. 6.—The elimination of the county jail as other than a house of detention, is one of the main objects of the Congress of the American Prison Association which will open in the Hotel Statler tomorrow and will continue five days.

LEAVE ON RED LAKE WATERWAY TOUR

Senator D. P. O'Neil of Thief River Falls, Dr. Dugan, federal engineer of St. Paul and Charles S. Carter, candidate for the state legislature from this district, left today for the Red Lakes where they will make an investigation of the flood conditions. They will go down the Red Lake river to Thief River Falls and will hold meetings at Highland and Thief River Falls. They will attend the drainage meeting at Crookston Monday.

Fergus Falls, Minn., Oct. 6.—Fergus Falls has no further use for a city lockup. The building, which cost $4,000 or $5,000 several years ago, is to be remodeled and used for housing electric light apparatus. Arrests for all causes have averaged only about one a month during the summer. Fergus Falls has been dry four years.

Sioux Falls, S. D., Oct. 6.—Ice forms on the walls of a peculiar cave at Englewood, in summer and disappears in the winter. Thousands of tourists are visiting the phenomenon. In the coldest winter months, green grass and trees grow near the semi-tropical mouth of the cave. In the hottest months of the summer this cave is hardly passible, because of ice and snow obstructions.
