That one term plank in the Democratic platform of 1912—it is more than likely to hold, after all.
When President Wilson called upon the Mexican commissioners at New London he revived old precedents, but did he wave the Stars and Stripes?
A man in Washington has made a bust of the President, thus anticipating Mr. Hughes by several weeks.
Discussing the indorsement by the Democratic convention of Texas of Mr. Wilson's Mexican policy, the Houston Post (Dem.) flatly declares: "It is not believed anything like a majority of the people of Texas indorse our Mexican policy, and those in a position to know seriously doubt that the platform adopted expressed the real sentiments of the convention itself."
The Omaha Bee couples woeful waste with watchful waiting as a Democratic failing.
Bolled down, the best that has been said of President Wilson's Mexican policy was that he had good intentions. We've often heard of a road paved with this kind of material.
The President is deceived if he believes that the history he has written is not more praiseworthy than that which he has made.
President Wilson signed the Philippine bill as moving picture cameras clicked. There is one man who is not afraid to have his mistakes recorded!
"Victory," Mr. Fairbanks told Oklahoma Republicans, "surely will perch on our banner." But Champ Clark tied it up in a neater and more compact bundle when he said: "They licked hell out of us."
Members of President Wilson's cabinet are ready to do anything to reelect their chief, except resign.
Writes a former Princeton man: "At first we called him 'W. W.'; then we made it 'I. W. W.'"

the Store That Advertises
Most people pass right by the store that's behind the times and patronize the modern, up-to-date store where all the latest and best methods of doing business are in use.
The store that is up-to-date is the one that advertises. The very atmosphere about the store is reflected in the announcements, for advertising suggests modern methods—progress, good merchandise and a cheerfulness in making suggestions for the busy buyer who hasn't time enough to try to think what is needed.
Then again, the merchant who advertises sells so much goods that he can afford to sell cheaper than others and still make money.

LADIES', MISSES, CHILDREN'S COATS
It's time to buy, while the assortment is unbroken and the price is normal. The price of woollens, linings and trimmings are advancing, in fact every item that enters into the construction of a first class coat is going up, we can not duplicate a coat in the stock at the price we paid.
