

BELTS KNITTED IN SWEATERS

Models of This Kind More Graceful on Slender, Youthful Figures Than on the Large Woman.

Many of the new sweaters have the belt knitted in and these models are very graceful on slender, youthful figures; but the large woman looks better in a sweater with separate belt, buttoned or tied like a sash. The latter soft of belt may be adjusted to suit the lines of the figure and the knitted coat does not cling as closely as one with the waistline drawn in by a purled band.

When the belt is knitted, the slip-on model is favored and for autumn these slip-on sweaters have sleeves and very often deep sailor collars.

A very good-looking model of heavy white wool is purled in large ribs the whole length of the sweater. The sleeve, set in separately, is purled also, and the wide rib makes the sweater warm and substantial looking for autumn wear. Wide and narrow stripes in purple border the sleeve, the lower edge of the collar and the waistband, which is set into the sweater with smaller needles.

Brown sweaters are considered smart this season and a popular model is of brown English mohair wool which has a rough surface like angora. The belt and trimmings are of brown Scotch wool with stripes in lighter brown.

Very high colors are favored in silk sweaters and the best models have a corrugated stitch forming a heavy rib. Sashes are wider than ever and are trimmed with deep fringe; and sweater pockets are very large with a point at the lower edge, a covered button finishing the tip of the point.

COLD BATH AS BEAUTY AID

Woman Who is Accustomed to Invigorating Shower Finds It Precaution Against Wintry Blasts.

The woman who is accustomed to a cold shower will find it a great precaution against the cold of winter. It should be taken the first thing in the morning in a well-warmed bathroom. Some enjoy the tepid shower, which is afterward allowed to run cold.

The cold plunge is more taxing to the delicate woman, and if a shower is impossible the cold sponge bath is its best substitute, says a beauty expert. All of these cold baths should be followed by a brisk rubbing with several coarse towels, so as to insure the healthy glow which imparts a glorious tinge to the surface of the body.

If your flesh is flabby, after washing the face with warm water and soap, dash the skin with cold water to which has been added a teaspoonful of benzoin. A cold compress around the neck at night will harden the flesh and remove the flabby appearance.

There are many women who, when cold weather approaches, put on armor-like clothing and shut themselves in almost airtight houses. This is wrong, of course, both for beauty and health. Some skins are sensitive to cold and direct contact with wintry winds is hard on them; but though your cuticle may be delicate, it need not prevent you from going out. A coat of good skin food, well rubbed in and dusted over with powder, should be applied before leaving the house.

PRETTY ONE-PIECE FROCK

The one-piece gown promises to be in demand, especially with the woman of slender proportions. The waistline in this instance is marked by a sash girdle of self-material with facing of lighter colored silk. The combination here is two tones of brown, the embroidery being worked in the lighter shade.

Velveteen Frocks.

There is an unusual number of velvet and velveteen frocks on the street. They have been offered by the exclusive dressmakers, as well as by those who cater to the department shops in ready-to-wear apparel.

R. B. Hayes and his sawing rig were busy at the Deer Lake school Monday. Judging from the pile of wood, there will be plenty of fuel for the next few months.

Esther and Edith Hayes and Walter Pierce forsook the logging bee party last Friday and spent most of the afternoon visiting the Long Lake school.

The gods of the chase have not been very kind and the weather has not been very propitious to the hunters hereabouts this year.

Saturday night a meeting of the Farmers' club was held at the Pony Lake school. It was decided at the meeting to buy a carload of shorts and flour. A carload of selected oats has already been bought and sold by the Farmers' club. Dr. Coy, the enthusiastic president of the club, informed the writer that the club is in a very promising condition. Due to the draft and several removals, a dozen or more members are unable to be present at the meetings, but with this loss, there are forty or more reliable members. Pretty good record for less than a year's existence. The next regular meeting of the club will be at the home of Leonard Myhre and not everybody, whether members or not, are invited.

A very pleasant surprise was tendered Mr. and Mrs. Nick McCartney last Saturday night. Five years ago Mr. and Mrs. McCartney jumped over the proverbial broomstick and Saturday night finished five years of wedded bliss. The McCartney's hadn't thought anything about the anniversary but Mrs. John Germann, who is Mr. McCartney's sister, did not forget and she planned the surprise which was a real success. Collation was served at midnight. Those present were Dr. and Mrs. J. L. Coy, Mr. and Mrs. George Burr, Mrs. James F. Hayes, Mr. and Mrs. John Germann. The little folks were Misses Gertrude Coy, Edith and Esther Hayes, Minnie Burr and Dolia McCartney, Masters Jerry, Earl and "Doc Jr." Coy and Walter Burr.
