THEATERS

AT THE REX.

Don't miss June Caprice, the "Sunshine Maid" in her new William Fox drama, "Miss U. S. A." It is a red, white and blue photoplay and will be shown tonight at the Rex theatre.

"Miss U. S. A." deals with the spy system in this country, and besides it has love interest and plenty of stirring action.

Miss Caprice, as Capitola, in the play faces death twice. She battles hard for her life while ferreting out the spies, and is saved by a young volunteer soldier who comes to her assistance in the nick of time. The scene is laid in Virginia at the time of the United States declares war on Germany.

Also a Starlight comedy, "Good Bye Widow".

SUNDAY'S BIG BILL.

At the Rex Sunday there will be shown William S. Hart, the premier "bad man" in one of his greatest pictures "Dakota Dan", directed by Thomas H. Ince. That favorite of Bemidji, Emmy Whelan, will also be shown in "The Outsider". This is one of the celebrated Metro features and is filled with thrills and romance. In all there are eight reels on the Rex program Sunday, with the matinee at 2:30 o'clock.

MONDAY AT THE REX.

"Don't be afraid, Mr. Burglar", was the remark which brought the thief to a realization of the childish faith in mankind. Little Mary McAllister in "Pants" at the Rex Monday is a five part photoplay replete with richly humorous situations and tensely dramatic climaxes.

Constance Talmadge.
The big New Year's day offering at the Rex will be Constance Talmadge in "The Honeymoon". Don't miss this one.

ELKO TONIGHT.

Huddled in a chair, his head buried in his arms, sat "The Strange Weakling", known to his companions as a raven and a coward haunted by a mysterious fear. "The Fury" approached and tapped the miserable stranger on the shoulder. Failing to gain a response to her advance, she jerked him roughly from his chair, and slowly the watchers saw her look of scorn change to pity. Here a strange romance was born between this mysterious beauty and the man with the "haunted eyes."

William Desmond is seen in the stellar role, supported by a capable Triangle cast. This picture will be shown at Elko theatre tonight.

ELKO SUNDAY.

The story of a pretty, ambitious young girl who was willing to make big sacrifices to follow her ambitions, is told in "Easy Money", the new Word-Picture Brady-Made which will be the attraction at the Elko Sunday. Charming and popular Ethel Clayton is the star of this production. Miss Clayton appears in the role of Lois Page, the young girl who makes the sacrifice. The sacrifice she makes will surprise everyone, for it is something unusual and it has an altogether unusual conclusion. Supporting Miss Clayton is a splendid company of film players. The scenic effects are very pleasing and interesting.

GRAND TONIGHT.

Florence Labadie in "Her Life and His", a Pathe play and a comedy.

GRAND SUNDAY.

"Chicken Casey", the feature at the Grand Sunday has many bright and interesting situations, and it is visualized with Ince's fine craftsmanship, but honors go to Miss Dorothy Dalton for a most consistent and intelligent performance of her role. The constantly expanding capability she has been showing has by no means reached its limit, but this performance shows a finish and larger grasp of screen interpretation than she has ever before exhibited.

RED CROSS NOTES

FINE XMAS PRESENT

W. N. Bowser donated 20 skeins of yarn as a Christmas present to the Red Cross chapter, and the members wish to express their appreciation for the liberal donation.

After the first of the year the chapter will commence making infant layettes for the French and Belgian refugees.

BACK TO DUTY.

Charley Paul of the U. S. S. Massachusetts, who has been the guest of Bemidji friends for the past week, returned to his duties yesterday morning. Mr. Paul, who was formerly a member of the Bemidji band, was presented with a purse by the Bemidji band boys while in the city. He is now in a marine band on the Massachusetts. Mr. Paul, who formerly pitched for the Bemidji baseball team, has also done considerable pitching for the naval team.

NEW OFFICERS ELECTED.

At the annual business meeting of the Ladies' Aid society of the Swedish Lutheran church held yesterday, the following officers were elected: President, Mrs. E. J. Clover; vice president, Mrs. Ward; secretary, Miss Eleanor Erickson; treasurer, Mrs. Ole Larson.

NEW YEAR'S WAKE.

A New Year's wake and program will be held in the Swedish Lutheran church New Year's eve, commencing at 8:30 o'clock.

MEETING POSTPONED.

There will be no meeting of the Boy's Brigade of the Episcopal church this evening.

FUNERAL OF ROBERT M'CALL WILL BE HELD SUNDAY

The funeral of Robert McCall, the well known lumberman who died at St. Anthony's hospital Saturday evening, will be held tomorrow afternoon at 2:30 o'clock from the Huffman & O'Leary undertaking parlors, Rev. B. D. Hanscom of the Methodist church officiating. Mr. McCall, who had been in the employ of the Crookston Lumber company for 12 years or more, was in charge of one of the camps at Nebish. He had been in poor health for the past summer and was taken worse Saturday when he went to the hospital where he died about 9 o'clock in the evening. Mrs. McCall is confined in a hospital in Rochester, following an operation, and will be unable to attend the funeral. The body will be shipped to St. Louis, Mich., tomorrow night. A brother, William McCall, who is here from St. Louis, will accompany the remains.

Mr. McCall was born in Canada, December 7, 1868, and went to Michigan in 1879, when his parents settled on a farm in Bethany township, Gratiot, Mich. He was married to Miss Katherine Everling about nine years ago. He left Michigan in 1892 and when he visited the old home four years ago it was 21 years since he had been to his childhood home.

He leaves his wife, two sisters, Mrs. Mary Healy and Mrs. Ella Morrow, both of St. Louis, Mich., and four brothers, William of St. Louis, Mich., Dan of Breckenridge, Mich., Roy of the state of Washington and John of Midland, Mich.

Albert Everling, a brother of Mrs. McCall, of New Ulm, Minn., is also in the city to attend the funeral.

The funeral will be held on Sunday to give the men of the camp an opportunity to attend, as many had expressed their desire to be present.

NEW OFFICE ROOMS.

Dr. H. A. Northrop is moving his offices from the O'Leary-Bowser building into the M. E. Ibertson building and the new offices will be open Monday.

Just received a shipment of 1918 desk calendar pads, including the "Daily" and "Perfection." Get yours now, so you will have it on hand when you wish to make notations in it for future reference. Pioneer office. 10c
