MISS JACOBI WEDS

Bemidji people will be interested in the following item appearing in yesterday's Grand Forks Herald, as Miss Jacobi is well known here, having passed several summers on Lake Bemidji with her parents:

"Mr. and Mrs. G. R. Jacobi of Reeves avenue have announced the marriage of their daughter, Geraldine, to Lieutenant Roy Russell, on Friday, at Kalamazoo, Mich. Lieutenant Russell, who is a son of Mr. and Mrs. W. D. Russell, of 510 International avenue, is stationed at Camp Custer, in Michigan. Miss Jacobi was on her way here for a brief visit with her parents, and the fact that Lieut. Russell could not obtain a furlough at this time, when it had been planned to have the marriage here, caused a change of plans that resulted in the very quiet ceremony at Kalamazoo on Friday.

"Mrs. Russell will arrive here on Monday to spend a few days at her home, and then will return to join the 'Daddy Long Legs' company, with which she is playing this season. She will meet the members of the company in Kentucky.

"The wedding will be of more than the usual amount of interest here, where both Lieut. and Mrs. Russell have resided for years, and have been popular members of the young society crowd. Mrs. Russell is a talented reader and actress, and much of her time of late has been spent in New York studying. This winter she has been meeting with success with the 'Daddy Long Legs' players."

Y's CLUB ACTIVE

At the meeting of the Y's club last evening in the basement of the Presbyterian church, plans were made to give a play in the near future. As yet the play has not been selected, but it is expected that it will be something in the line of a college play. The girls have also commenced to make a woolen and silk piece quilt for the Red Cross hospital. After the regular drill last evening, basketball and bowling were played. At the close of the evening the members of the club surprised Mrs. L. P. Warford, one of the matrons of the club, the occasion being her birth anniversary. Lunch was served and the birthday cake, with the required number of candles, formed the centerpiece. The guest of honor was presented with a remembrance gift.

ENJOYED WIENER ROAST

A wiener and marshmallow roast was enjoyed by the members of the Young Woman's Gymnasium class at the H. A. Northrop cottage last evening. About twenty were in attendance. Supper was prepared over a large camp fire and after supper, games were played. The Northrop cottage is located on Omich avenue.

MOTHERS

Should see that the whole family takes a thorough, purifying, system-cleansing medicine this spring. Now is the time to purify the blood, clean out the stomach and bowels and drive the accumulated germs of winter out of the system. Hollister's Rocky Mountain Tea is the standard tonic laxative to cleanse the bowels, helping nature to make red blood and clear complexion. Every member of the family should take 3 or 4 doses—their color will improve, they will feel well and happy—eat better, sleep better, work better. City Drug Store.—Adv.

THEATERS

ALICE BRADY TONIGHT

"Woman and Wife," adapted from Charlotte Bronte's beloved novel "Jane Eyre," will be shown at the Rex theater tonight. This photodrama is the second Select Star Series release featuring Alice Brady, who surpasses here even her previous success in "Her Silent Sacrifice."

In her sympathetic delineation of the much-suffering heroine, Miss Brady rises to a high rank as one of our leading emotional actresses. Jane Eyre is a poor girl who travels over a long rocky road before she finally wins to her haven of happiness. First as "a poor relation" among cold-hearted relatives, later as an inmate of an institution for orphans under a cruel supervisor, and lastly as a governess to the child of the man she loves and who loves her—even here she finds a seemingly insuperable obstacle to happiness. A kind fate finally intervenes, and after many privations and sorrows, she is united with her true lover.

"Woman and Wife" is a picture play worthy to revive your memories of the heroine of "Jane Eyre" whom you recall with such deep affection, and Alice Brady's characterization of the luckless girl will endear her to your hearts.

Also a Metro-Drew comedy.

"Draft 258"

Metro special production de luxe, "Draft 258," starring Mabel Taliaferro, which will be shown at the Rex theater Thursday and Friday, is a patriotic pageant of great scenes in the history of the United States.

From the battle of Bunker Hill to a lawn fete of the present day for the benefit of the Red Cross, stirring scenes follow each other in this picture, the logical successor to "The Slacker," written and directed by the author-director of "The Slacker," William Christy Cabanne. The battle of San Juan Hill is vividly presented, with regular cavalry men of the army charging in the re-enacting of these scenes. The battle of the

With exactness of detail, the signing of the Declaration of Independence is pictured, with all the "original signers" portrayed by players chosen for their likeness to the different parts. In connection with "Draft 258," a motion picture camera was planted for the first time on Bedloe's Island for the purpose of taking pictures of the Statue of Liberty.

"Draft 258" is a pictorial review of great events in American history.

GRAND TONIGHT

The unexpected results of admitting a snappy, up-to-the-minute American girl to British small-town society is amusingly depicted by Vivian Martin in her Paramount photoplay, "The Fair Barbarian," which is to again be shown at the Grand theater tonight. "The Bed Room Blunder," Paramount-Mack Sennett two-reel comedy, in which Charley Murray and the famous beauty, Mary Thurman, appear, shows some extremely funny scenes. It is also on the Grand program tonight.

Grand Tomorrow.

Nora Carey, a pretty, intelligent "hand" at the Travers Ribbon factory, was covered by Marlinoff, the foreign, hot-blooded foreman of the plant. She repulsed him as much as she dared, because her job depended upon his favor, but nevertheless he persecuted her. Finally he fired her. What happened then? You'll see when you see "Whims of Society," the new World-Picture Brady-Made at the Grand theater tomorrow, Wednesday. Ethel Clayton is the star of this unique production.

ELKO TONIGHT

"The Other Woman," an interesting and entertaining photodrama presented by a capable cast with Peggy Hyland, Milton Sills and Anna Lehr in the leading roles, with a comedy, entitled "All Aboard," will be attractions at the Elko theater tonight.

Elko Tomorrow.

"A whirlwind of action and a riot of fun, and typically Fairbanks," describes the new Douglas Fairbanks film, "Reaching for the Moon," produced by Arteract, coming to the Elko theater tomorrow and Thursday. With New York and Italy as backgrounds, extraordinary "film pictures" are presented, interspersed with flashes of real comedy.
